Banquet Speaker

Henry Henrichs, president of the Washington State Federation of Federal Employees, was main speaker at a banquet Saturday evening at the Willard hotel which highlighted the federation's district convention in Klamath Falls. The dinner ended the day-long sessions in which the aims of the organization and means of accomplishing them were discussed.

City Fathers Sit Through Quiet Session At Council

Peace and quiet reigned at last night's city council meeting, with only one local taxpayer braving a potentially stormy night to register a complaint with the city fathers. Mrs. Carol Giller, 3222 Union, protested to the council regarding several private garages which are jutting out over her lot a matter of some 18 inches, delaying improvement work on the property. The council moved to check into the matter and see that the buildings were moved.

HISTORIC EVENTS in the ADVANCE of MEDICAL SCIENCE
While druggists in general are noted for their unflinching control, one of their number was "up in the air" a good part of the time. In 1783 Pilatra De Rosier, French druggist, was first human to dare balloon ascension. Later he was killed in a flight over the Channel, thus also becoming the first aeronautical victim.
