CARNIVAL

By Dick Turner

"When I suggested we try to steal their maid, I meant for me, not you!"

Boy Scout News

All three patrols of troop 6, sponsored by the Salvation Army of Klamath Falls received awards with the rating "A" given at the 147 Modoc rendezvous. Hundreds of Scouts representing scores of troops in the Oregon-California council, camped along the Deschutes in the former Camp Abbot.

Intermittent rains and ever cloudy skies caused all the skills of camping out, to be used by the Beaver, Panther and Wolf patrols. Camp unit set-ups and cooking were done on the patrol basis this year and proved to be extremely popular with the boys. Practice hikes and camping trips prior to this event served to prepare the Scouts of troop 6 for their perfect ratings.

A number of the parents also braved the weather for the three-day rendezvous, to watch with pride, all the activities of their boys. Their cooperation and attendance helped materially to make the trip a success.

The Scouts who participated were: Senior Patrol Leader George Nitschelm, Beaver Patrol, Leader Glen Munsell, Gary Heidrich, David Seutter, Louis Fredrickson and Avey Swearingen.

Panther Patrol, Leader Billy Nendel, Ralph Austin, Curtice Chenoweth and Wayne Byrd.

Wolf Patrol, Asst. Patrol Leader
