Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis and Denny visited Monday with their daughter and family. Mrs. Johnnie Campbell of Klamath Falls, Mary Anne Smith and Geneva Hittson spent several days in Portland last week. Mary Anne will go to Portland this fall to take nurses training. Mr. and Mrs. Migge Burke spent a few days in Portland, returning home on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Conley and son of Grants Pass spent the Memorial Day week-end with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. George Olson and son of Klamath Falls spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hricizac and sons. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Seater spent the week-end at Arbuckle, Calif., with Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Campbell. Small Jimmy Seater stayed with his grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin House and Elsie and Edna Mae DeBusk, all of Merrill, spent Memorial Day in Klamath Falls and with relatives in Langell valley. Mrs. Lester Moore and children of Merrill spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Effie Gilman. In the afternoon they visited Mrs. Walter Smith. Kathleen Moore returned home with her mother after spending a week with her grandmother. Mrs. Mary Dearborn, Mrs. Elsie Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt and family spent Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. Wes Dearborn and family. David Miles arrived Sunday evening from Boardman to spend the summer with his mother, Mrs. Herman Hodges. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Boggs visited friends in Klamath Falls and Merrill on Memorial Day. Margaret Burnett and family spent Wednesday with Cora Leavitt and family. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyers are leaving soon for their home in Northern California where they purchased a ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Herb Johnson and family spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wes Dearborn and family. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Turner came up from San Francisco for the Memorial Day week-end. They visited the Frank Pepples and Owen Pepples. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller of Medford spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hricizac.

Mt. Laki

Mrs. Mary Townsend of Petaluma, Calif., arrived last Sunday to spend several months visiting relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Whitlatch spent Memorial Day with relatives at Shedd, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Breithaupt and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jackson attended the graduation exercises at the Ashland high school last Tuesday night. Robert Griffith, brother of Mrs. Breithaupt, was a member of the graduating class. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Enman and family spent the week-end at Odell lake fishing. Mr. J. Baldwin of Glendale, Calif., is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Buford Kaylor. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill and family left Friday for their summer home at Lake of the Woods. They were joined Sunday by Mrs. Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dixon and Donna Dixon. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Thompson left Thursday for Cottage Grove and Sweet Home where they will visit relatives. Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Potter were Mrs. Carl Mays and daughter Linda of Laguna Beach, Calif., Bill Lamb of Connecticut and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamb and children of Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Reed are hosts this week to Reed's mother, brother and sister-in-law, Mrs. Mae Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Reed, and Emily, all of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Collins and children spent Decoration Day in Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. Van Wyckoff left by train on Monday for a vacation in Pennsylvania, where they will visit with relatives of Mrs. Wyckoff. McNary, Arizona, is the destination of Marie Joyce Dunlop, who left by train on Saturday for an indefinite stay. Jack Wolff was a Medford visitor on Friday. Mrs. Walter Collins and Mrs. Fred Markwardt represented Chiloquin Tuesday at the home extension planning day held at Altamont. Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Norvall were Mrs. Norvall's nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mathews of Astoria.

Going Out For The Last Run

Warren G. Burt, Southern Pacific engineer for the past 42 years, climbed into the cab last Saturday to begin his last run for the company before going into retirement. Burt started with the SP in 1900 as a fireman and boasts that he has never missed a paycheck yet.

Cascade

The bodies of the two fishermen, Leonard Callier and Harold Hadley, who drowned in Odell lake a week ago Sunday, have not yet been recovered. The cloudy weather has made it impossible to see the reflection of the motor which was lost from the boat if it is in shallow water. Constant watch has been kept on the lanchone and several searching parties have patrolled the lake. Two men from the U. S. navy arrived Tuesday to help in the search. Odell Summit lodge was tilted to capacity over the holiday week-end. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Badley, the owners, were here from Portland to assist in the rush. The lodge is managed by Mrs. Badley's brother, Clyde Franklin. Mrs. Mike Lee and two children, Frances and Vernie, returned from San Francisco and Oakland. The children stayed at the home of Mrs. Lee's uncle and aunt, and Mrs. Lee received treatment at San Francisco in the Southern Pacific hospital. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Ferguson of Corvallis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pratt during the Memorial Day week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice A. Lawrence of Portland spent the past week with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nagel. The Nagels also had as their guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Larch O. Douglass of Salem. Douglass is a nephew of Mrs. Nagel and Mrs. Douglass is the former Dorothy Hukel, operator here for the SP company.

Midland

Mrs. Edward Burke was hostess to a few friends who honored Euphemia Switzer with a miscellaneous shower. Games were played and music enjoyed, with refreshments served later to the following guests, Miss Switzer, Mrs. C. W. Switzer, Mrs. Edna Travers, Mrs. Fred Milani, Mrs. John Mistle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mistle, Jackie and Ronnie, Mrs. Jack Casebeer and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burke. Carroll Mistle spent the past week-end with relatives and friends, returning Sunday evening to Oakland and school where he is enrolled in aviation ground mechanics. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bollman have bought a trailer house and expect to move to Bly in the near future. Bollman also bought a new diesel logging truck. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Casebeer have moved to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Paddock's house and will be located there for the present. Mr. and Mrs. Paddock and family are making their home with Mrs. Katie Phipps who was widowed last winter. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pratt Jr. opened their summer home at the west end of Odell lake the week-end of May 24. They brought their large speedboat, the No-See-Um, which they built during the late winter at their Corvallis home particularly for use on Odell. They had as their guests over the week-end Laura Pratt and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wite of Corvallis. Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Atwater of Eugene were hosts to a group of college friends of their son, Davis, at their Odell lake summer home during the week-end.

Mallin

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Knight and children, Beverly and Teddy, of Deshler, O., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Herringshaw and family of Mallin. Mrs. Gladys Knight, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herringshaw, is an elementary teacher in the Deshler schools. Mr. Knight is affiliated with the agriculture extension service of the veterans administration and is sole owner of the Deshler Custom cannery. A former lieutenant, junior grade, in the navy, Knight was stationed at Treasure Island, Calif., and visited in Mallin several times before his discharge a year ago. Beverly, 12, and Teddy, 11, both students of Deshler Junior high, are active in school band, 4-H, and Scouting. This is their first trip to the West coast and also Mrs. Knight's, prior to their arrival here, they spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Chamberlin and family of Everett, Kan. The next stop was with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Book of Ogden, Utah, and while in Salt Lake City the party was taken on a tour of the city. They will return home by way of Chicago. A family dinner was given June 1 by Mr. and Mrs. Herringshaw and guests were Mr. and Mrs. John S. Herringshaw, Albert Herringshaw and his three sons, Jimmy, Dicky and Sammy, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Herringshaw of Roseburg, and Mabel Hart of Klamath Falls, fiancée of Arthur Herringshaw, and Jim, Norman, Howard and Tommy Herringshaw, and the Knight family.

Oregon Women Die In Crash

SAUNKMIN, Ill., June 5 (AP)—Two La Grande, Ore., women were fatally injured here yesterday when their new automobile and another crashed at a highway intersection. Dead were Mrs. Imogene Russell, 58, and Nell Thatcher, 60, a teacher. Before she died, Mrs. Russell told attendants at the hospital her closest relative was a sister, Mrs. Ruth Cox, Boise, Idaho. The two women were apparently en route home after accepting delivery of a new car at Marion, Ind.

Demo Committee Officers To Meet

PORTLAND, June 5 (AP)—An organization meeting of state democratic central committee officers has been called for Saturday by Chairman Byron G. Carney. The officers called are those whose election was protested by Democratic National Committee Law Wallace. Proxy votes, mostly from Eastern Oregon counties, were ruled out by the party's credentials committee. Wallace threatened legal suit but no action has been filed in courts here. Snails can live on high mountains or in ocean depths, under pressure ranging from 6 1/2 pounds to 4 1/2 tons a square inch.
