

Both Ends Of League In Tangle

By The Associated Press
The Coast League standings were tumbled at both ends today.
The Los Angeles Angels pulled in to a virtual first place tie with San Francisco by defeating San Diego 4-1.
The Padres' defeat, coupled with Hollywood's 7-6 victory over Seattle, raised a three-way jam in the basement involving those same clubs.
The Angels made it three out of four over the Padres as Bill Fleming and Jess Dobner combined to spin a three-hit shutout. Fleming allowed only two bingles—one a scratch—before being replaced in the eighth inning after loading the bases on two walks and a safety.
Dobner put out the fire and gave up only one more blow to save the game.
Los Angeles nipped Manny Salvo for the loss, with the big hurler being ejected by Umpire Lon Warneke in the ninth following a protest of a called ball. George Caster finished.
The win left the Angels two percentage points behind San Francisco, Oakland and Portland also was postponed because of rain.
Hollywood jumped from last to sixth by edging Seattle for the third time in four games. Eddie Albona, pitching his first game for the Stars, was credited with the win, although needing help from Paul Gregory when the Sids rallied for three runs in the eighth.
The Stars wound up with a two-point edge over San Diego, which in turn led Seattle by the same margin.

Speed Model Planes Out For 100-MPH

The third inter-city gas model plane competition between Southern Oregon gas model fliers and tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock on the alkali flat two miles past Worden on the Dorris highway.
Klamath Falls, Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass are expected to be well-represented tomorrow, with the competition boiling down to Medford and Klamath.
Events will include free flights, speed and stunting to provide a well-rounded program of gas model flying.
The Medford club is expected to bring over 15 to 20 planes in an effort to wrest domination in the gas model field from Klamath.
In the first previous control-line meet, one Klamath club entry set a 100-mile-an-hour pace for first place, while in the second the locals took both first and second places with speeds of 95 and 94 miles an hour.
The boys have worked over their engines to try to get back into the 100-mph bracket, and the Medford club has acquired new speed engines with the same end in mind.

Bend Golfers Coming Down

The annual Reames Country club-Bend golf tournament is slated for here tomorrow, with 15 to 20 linksmen from Bend tentatively promised to be on hand.
All players on the Reames team are asked to be at the course at 9 a.m. for pairing. The tournament will include 18 holes of match play.
The date for this meet this year is conflicting with two other Bend golf dates, a professional exhibition tomorrow and the start of the Oregon State Open Monday, so W. E. Naylor, chairman of the Deschutes county team, is not certain just how many of his players will make the Klamath Falls trip. Those expected include:

Tennis Exhibit

SPOKANE, June 7 (AP)—Pauline Bets and Sarah Paltrey Cooke, newly-turned professionals, will play an exhibition tennis match here early this summer. Announcement of their scheduled appearance was made by officers of the Spokane athletic round table, which will sponsor the match.

Diamond Lake Open

Diamond lake, the resort spot in Douglas county, was opened for fishing today. Bag limits for trout on the lake is five fish per day, not to exceed 30 pounds, and two fish in any seven consecutive days, and the fish must be 10 inches to be legal. Public accommodations at the lake are booked for weeks in advance.

Maybe Billy Southworth "knew something" when he grabbed Johnny Beasley off the St. Louis Cardinals' scrap heap and gave him another chance with his Boston Braves.
Although the sore-armed right-hander has yet to approximate his 1942 form when he won 21 as a Red Bird freshman, he has copied two in a row for his old boss Southworth, who now skips the Boston crew.
They had Beasley in New York during the week for treatment by a

Cal Takes Bulge Over WSC Outfit

BERKELEY, Calif., July 7 (AP)—University of California, victor over Washington State college by a 6-1 count in their rain-soaked opening game, hoped to capture the Pacific Coast conference baseball championship today with one more win over the Cougars.
The clubs were slated to play a double-header today, but more rain menaced the three-game playoff series which will decide the sectional candidate for NCAA competition in the east.
Yesterday's game was called in the seventh inning when the field became too sloppy for safe play. The Bears had pushed across three runs in the sixth to take a decisive lead.

Yale's Great Guard Still Full Of Pep

Ol' Pudge Maintains Players Getting Soft

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Writer
NEW YORK, June 7 (NEA)—Walter W. Heffelfinger is an extraordinary figure. He's been called the greatest of gridiron gladiators and has been an almost legendary idol of Yale men for 45 years. He's better known by his nickname of "Pudge."
Starting as a 15-year-old schoolboy in Minneapolis in the days when the game of rugby was being modified to suit the American boy's yen for knocking people down, Pudge ended his active career at 85 by playing in a charity game in Minneapolis against kids young enough to be his grandsons.
At 75, Old Eli's All-American guard of 1889-90-91 climbed into a uniform to give high school line-men pointers. Crowding 49 now, he still takes time out to teach corner lot football teams.
Heffelfinger has been commissioner of Hennepin county, Minnesota, which includes Minneapolis, for many years, is vice president of a New York advertising agency, has a ranch and oil interests hard by the town of Blessing, Tex.
He hasn't missed a football game played by the Golden Gophers of Minnesota for years.
Comparing the gridiron sport of his day with modern football, Heffelfinger's own gripe is that modern players are too soft. "They wear too much armor," he complains. "In the old days when the athletes led their hair grow long and used nature's methods of protection. He does, however, rule out the old handkerchief mustache. It put a handle on the wearer for an opponent to grab onto."
Pudge says old-time players were no better than those of today, and that the evening's program, coached by Fred Schmidt, decided Pittsburgh's Art Herring, 4-3. Herring threw to just one batter, Schultz.
The St. Louis Browns' 4-3 win over the New York Yankees stretched Detroit's American league lead to 1 1/2 games. The Tiger's day game with Boston was washed out.
Mel Harder received credit for his 21st major league victory, although he was knocked from the box by Sam Chapman's two-run homer in the eighth inning of Cleveland's 7-4 romp over Philadelphia.
Chicago eked out a 4-4 nod over Washington in another night game, sixth on the evening's program. Floyd Baker raced home with the winning tally after two were out in the last of the ninth to defeat Fireman Tom Ferrick. Ed Lopat struck out a homer by Buddy Lewis, a double by Al Evans and seven other Washington hits for his fourth win.

Weather Has Upper Hand

Weather permitting, for the second week in a row, the Klamath Sons have a baseball game scheduled for Recreation park tomorrow afternoon. The Mt. Shasta city team, which is hibernating for a win after three straight losses this season, is the opposition.
Last week all Northern California league games were rained out and weather reports from over the area indicate a strong possibility that the same might be true again tomorrow.
Recreation field has been muddy all week from the continuing rains, and as a result of the weather the Sons haven't played a game since their disastrous trip to Medford 14 days ago.
On the softball scene two more titles were cancelled last night because of wet grounds at Modoc field, and will have to be played later on this summer. There are a pair of contests on tap for tomorrow afternoon at Modoc practice field.
The schedule, which may yet be washed out, calls for a game between the Bureau of Reclamation team against the Four Star Merchants at 2:30. YFV vs. Ashley Chevrolet an hour later.

Well, Anyhow—

OREGON CITY, June 7 (AP)—V. C. Pedersen went fishing and caught a bear.
It was on the east slope of Mt. Hood and Pedersen sighted the bear high up in a tree. He grabbed a .22 caliber rifle from the automobile and felled the brute. He told friends excitedly he shot a 700-pound bear. It dressed out 70 pounds.
The United States navy band of Washington, D. C., was formed by the navy department in 1918 with an instrumentation of 18 men. This band, now a world famous musical organization, is noted for its fine musicianship and is accepted by the musical public as one of the greatest bands in the United States.

JAKE LAMOTTA ROMPS TO WIN OVER JANIRO

NEW YORK, June 7 (AP)—Middleweight Jake Lamotta, the Bronx jolter, walloped baby-faced Tony Janiro, just as everyone expected he would, but what everyone was wondering today was where and how the district attorney comes up with rumors of fixed fights.
This taffy pull last night was a rip-snorter all the way. Ranked as the third best middleweight in the world, Jake trimmed himself down to 154 1/2 pounds—because it would have cost him a $10,000 forfeit if he was over 156—and then proceeded to punch the youngster from Youngstown, Ohio, who is only a welterweight, into exhaustion, and gallop to a 10-round decision.
Outweighed by five pounds, Janiro got an "A" for effort from the crowd of 14,165, which chipped in to a gross gate of $71,874, for the way he fought back from the verge of a knockout from the sixth round on. He refused to go down until four seconds from the finish, when he collapsed and was saved by the bell. All of which made it a hair-raiser of a brawl.
Rumors were flying around the Garden before the thumping got under way, and it was learned the D. A. had called several of the interested parties down to his office. One report was that the fight was "wrong," and that Jake might lose.
Joe said he hoped the boy, born here May 28, would become a champion fighter.
"If he's as lucky as I am, he will be," said Joe.
Interviewed on a golf course at San Diego, Calif., after the birth was announced here yesterday, Louis disclosed that he and his wife, the former Marva Trotter, were remarried last July in a small Indiana town near Chicago. He couldn't remember the name of the town.
Louis and his wife were divorced in Chicago on March 27, 1945, after nearly 10 years of marriage. They have a daughter, Jacqueline.

Son Added To Louis Stable

MEXICO CITY, June 7 (AP)—Joe Louis, the world heavyweight boxing champion, has a new son. His name is Joe Louis Jr., and he's a heavyweight too—117 pounds when he weighed in.
Joe said he hoped the boy, born here May 28, would become a champion fighter.
"If he's as lucky as I am, he will be," said Joe.

Bratton's Title Hopes Skidding

CHICAGO, June 7 (AP)—The title aspirations of 19-year-old Johnny "Boneyboy" Bratton, generally considered No. 1 contender for the Williams' NBA lightweight crown, had skidded today after the dapper Chicago negro was belted into his second straight defeat by durable Gene Burton, New York slugger.
Burton decisively beat Bratton in 10 rounds last night before a crowd of 14,000 Chicago stadium fans who contributed a $62,649 gate.

40-1 Underdog In Derby Win

British Bookmakers Clean Up As Favorite Finishes Fourth Over Epsom Downs Track

EPSON DOWNS, June 7 (AP)—Pearl Diver, a 40 to 1 French horse owned by Baron G. De Waldner, scored an astonishing four-length victory in the 168th running of the English Derby today as the shortest priced favorite in more than a decade—Tudor Minstrel—finished out of the money.
Backed down to 4 to 7 and virtually conceded the $38,404 winner's pot in all the pre-race speculation, Tudor Minstrel ended a faltering fourth, carrying with him, in defeat once more, Gordon Richards, who is the world champion of jockeys—but has never won a Derby. Richards has ridden 330 winners.
A crowd of nearly half a million, including the royal family, turned out for this renewal of England's ancient classic and saw the colt many had been calling Britain's "horse of the century" come home far out of it.
Behind the flying French winner were Migoli, 100-8 shot who was the Aga Khan's hope for a fourth derby triumph; Sayajirao, the $117,600 purchase of the Maharaja of Baroda, highest-priced yearling in turf history, then the favorite; Sayajirao had been 6 to 1 second choice to Tudor Minstrel in the betting, but wound up three-quarters of a length back of Migoli, as Jockey E. Bridgeland drove Pearl Diver to his smashing victory in this field of 15.
The defeat of Tudor Minstrel, who had been unbeaten and even unthreatened in the six starts of his racing career up to now, was a rude shock to the assembled thousands but a merry event for the bookmakers. They stood to lose thousands of pounds if either Tudor Minstrel or the second choice, Sayajirao, had come home in front.
In fact, many of them, stricken by a run of winning favorites this week, closed out their stalls yesterday and departed, even before the running of the race and a half grind over the course that starts uphill, runs downhill around the single turn, and finishes on the rise again.
since they were out-of-staters, Frank Troch was second with $1. Leaders in the first half of the 16-yard even were: class A, E. J. Dearling, Portland, 100; class B, Pete Driscoll, Klamath Falls, 100; class C, Bud Hoehn, Mt. Vernon, Wash., 99; and class D, Bill Nirschl, Pendleton, 95.

Indian Bets Entire Wad

EPSON DOWNS, England, June 7 (AP)—An anonymous Indian emptied a sipper-fastened bag of five-pound ($20) notes—more than $30,000 worth—in half an hour today betting the entire wad on Tudor Minstrel, favorite to win the 168th running of the English Derby.
Curious crowds gathered about the Oriental, who declined to give his name, as he went from one bookmaking stall to another placing his bets at odds of 5 to 4 and 6 to 4.
