

Organizing Regent Honored By DAR

Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, organizing regent of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and chapter regent during the first four years of the chapter's life, was honored at the 25th birthday anniversary of the chapter held Monday evening, June 2, in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Burge Mason Sr., charter member, presented a corsage to Mrs. Wattenburg, in behalf of the chapter, and told of the appreciation of the organization for the years of tactful, patient and persevering service which Mrs. Wattenburg has given to this group, especially during its formative years, and dubbed her "Mother of Eulalona."

Mrs. Wattenburg responded, expressing her pleasure in the long years of association with the members and her pride in the many worthwhile accomplishments this group has brought to Klamath county, especially in the work of marking historic spots, and in helping the people of the Klamath basin to become interested in their family histories.

Charter members present besides Mrs. Wattenburg and Mrs. Mason were Mrs. Sydney Evans, Mrs. Roland E. Wright, Mrs. Allan Sloan and Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones. Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. J. G. Swan are charter members but were unable to be present.

Mrs. Robert Odell acted as toastmistress and called upon each past regent to tell something of the highlights of her year as regent of Eulalona. Letters were read from several past regents who were out of town or unable to attend. Past regents include Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, 1922-1925; Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, 1926-1927; Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, 1927-1928; Mrs. Harry Ackley, 1928-1929; Mrs. J. G. Swan, 1929-1930; Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, 1930-1931; Mrs. Warren Hunt, 1931-1932; Mrs. Allen Sloan, 1932-1933; Mrs. Thomas Hampton, 1933-1934; Mrs. Lloyd J. Goble, 1934-1935; Mrs. George Gardiner, 1935-1936; Mrs. D. Lamb, 1937-1938; Mrs. Robert O. Odell, 1938-1939; Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm, 1939-1940; Mrs. G. Logan Black, 1940-1941; Mrs. William Dawson Foster, 1941-1942; Mrs. Zach W. Dixon, 1942-1943; Mrs. Harry E. Goeller Sr., 1943-1944; Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, 1944-1945; Mrs. William J. Owsley, 1945-1946; Mrs. Roland E. Wright, 1946-1947.

Mrs. Owsley paid a tribute to the memory of Mrs. E. H. Balsiger who died recently, and also read fitting selections honoring the past regents who have died during the past twenty-five years. These were Mrs. Thomas Hampton, and Mrs. Harry Ackley.

Mrs. Norman Fraley sang the much loved old songs, "Long, Long Ago" and "Love's Old Sweet Song," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore.

Mrs. R. E. Wright, chapter regent, presided during the short business session. Mrs. C. E. McClellan, chapter chairman of girl homemakers, presented her report showing the following awards, inscribed pins from the National Society DAR: Gilchrist, Jo Ann Conkling; Malin, Joan DeMerritt; Fairhaven, Barbara Roberts; Altamont Junior high, Catharine Glidden; Chiloquin, Joan Loosley; Fremont Junior high, Cleo Cadwell; Klamath Union high school, Betty Glidden.

Mrs. Wright presented the award at the Fairhaven graduation, Mrs. Mitchelmore at the Altamont Junior high, Eva Burkhalter at Klamath Union high school and Mrs. W. J. Owsley at Fremont Junior high.

Mrs. Owsley, with ritualistic services, installed the officers who have been elected to serve the chapter during the ensuing year: Mrs. Mitchelmore, regent; Miss Burkhalter, vice-regent; Mrs. Harry C. Dickerson, secretary; Mrs. Lewis Hornby, treasurer; Mrs. W. D. Foster, registrar; Mrs. William Owsley, historian; Mrs. Wright, chaplain.

A reception followed. The table was centered with a bowl of roses flanked by silver candelabra. A birthday cake bearing the inscription, "1922-1947 Eulalona" and carrying 25 candles, was cut by Mrs. Wattenburg, while Mrs. Evans poured coffee. In charge of this feature of the evening's program were Mrs.

Donation

Members of the Past Noble Grand club of Prosperity Rebekah lodge met in the IOOF hall Tuesday, June 3, for a potluck luncheon and business meeting. During the business session it was announced that the club would prepare another donation for the IOOF home, this time of bath towels and wash cloths, and members were urged to bring their contributions as early as possible.

This was the last regular meeting until September, but it is planned to hold a picnic at the home of Alma Cofer, 1017 High, some time during the summer months. The date will be announced later.

Graduation

Mr. and Mrs. Monty B. Jones of Klamath Falls plan to leave Monday for Bellingham, Wash., to attend the graduation of their son, Monty B. Jones, at Western Washington college of education. They will arrive in time to attend the faculty reception on Thursday. Commencement will be on Friday. Joining them in Bellingham will be their daughter, Mrs. J. D. Nye, and another daughter, Eunice Jones, all of Klamath Falls. They will return with Monty next week-end.

Double Rites

On Sunday morning, June 8, an event of interest will be the double wedding of Euphama Switzer to Carroll Misher, and Ella Jones to Luther Slaughter. The double vows will be exchanged at the Calvary Baptist church with the Rev. Perry M. Johnson reading the ceremony.

C. E. McClellan, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. Helen Mueller, Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm and Mrs. Robert Odell.

Mrs. Mitchelmore will make her committee appointments during the summer months. Mrs. Wright, retiring regent, received many words of praise and appreciation for her untiring and successful efforts in carrying out the work of the chapter during the past year. The chapter was adjourned for the summer.

Vows Exchanged On Sunday Afternoon

In a simple ceremony at the First Baptist church on Sunday afternoon, June 1, Verna Dean Meggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Meggs of this city, became the bride of Claude J. Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Long of Medford.

The single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Cecil C. Brown before a sitting of pink and white snapdragons and palms. Wedding music was played by Lenore McMillan, and Gordon Robinson sang "Because" immediately preceding the nuptials.

Miss Meggs was attired in an afternoon frock of white, and carried a white Bible topped with a single lavender orchid.

Lois Null, maid of honor, wore a dress of powder blue with a corsage of pink rosebuds and gardenias pinned at the shoulder. Lloyd Sparks was best man.

Following the wedding service, a small reception attended by families and friends of the couple, was held at the church. The new Mr. and Mrs. Long cut the first piece of their wedding cake at a table decorated with white roses and matching tapers. Mrs. Mary Long, sister-in-law of the groom, served, assisted by Lenore McMillan, Mabel McMillan and Miss Null.

Soon after, Mr. and Mrs. Long left for a week's wedding trip, and upon their return will make their home in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Goeckner, who are leaving this coming week for Salem where they will reside, were complimented at a number of informal affairs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bogatay are entertaining this evening at their home on Manzanita street with a buffet supper. Guests invited include the Goeckners, Mr. and Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. William DeCew, and Mr. and Mrs. James Cronin.

Farewell Shower

A group of friends of Mrs. William Albee honored her with a surprise party and handkerchief shower Monday evening, June 2, at her home. She is leaving this week with her family to make her home in Pendleton.

Guests present were Mrs. C. E. Lowther, Mrs. Henry Vaden, Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. R. J. Fisher, Mrs. Louis Richardson, Mrs. Chet Langslet, Mrs. W. Ward, Mrs. Hugh Hadlock, Mrs. L. R. Thompson, Mrs. A. E. Powell.

Mrs. Harvey Ayres, Mrs. Harold Shafer, Mrs. Tom Lawrence, Mrs. William Albee, and Mrs. W. H. Albee of Oregon City. Refreshments were served later in the evening.

Complimented

Women of Reames Golf and Country club complimented Mrs. T. J. Jerrow, who, with her family, will leave soon for Grand Forks, North Dakota, to make her home, at a buffet luncheon Friday afternoon.

Arranging the affair were Mrs. L. D. Stephens, Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Mrs. Marvin Nereth, Mrs. R. O. Sproat, Mrs. Martin Swanson, Mrs. Frederick Farley, Mrs. Paul Farrens, Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, and Mrs. William Hakelstein.

The morning was devoted to play in the first elimination of the spring handicap, the Lamm trophy tournament.

Catholic Group Installs Heads

Installation of officers of Court Klamath 1265, Catholic Daughters of America, was held in the parish hall Monday evening, June 2 at 8 p. m. Grand Regent Ellen Ely presided and led the opening prayer, followed by the salute to the flag and group singing of the "Star Spangled Banner." Before turning the gavel over to the installing officer, Anita Kennedy, Mrs. Ely thanked the officers and members for the cooperation they had given her during the past year. Ann Piala acted as monitor for the installation ceremonies, and the following were installed for the ensuing term; grand regent, Rose O'Leary; vice regent, Kathleen Maguire; prophetess, Mary Anne Granas; lecturer, Virginia Herlihy; historian, Vivian Kiernes; financial secretary, Elizabeth Brandness; treasurer, Nancy Murphy; organist, Louise Vaughn; monitor, Minnie McCrosky; sentinel, Marcella Carrier; trustees, Ellen Ely and Mildred Seavey.

Grand Regent Rose O'Leary thanked the members for the honor they had conferred upon her by electing her to the office. Ellen Ely was presented with a past grand regent's pin by Agnes La Londe. Violet Plesier, retiring financial secretary who had served faithfully for the past five years in that capacity, was the recipient of a beautiful console set, the gift of the court, in appreciation of the splendid work she had done, and a red rosebud corsage was presented to each officer after her installation.

It was decided to hold only one meeting each month during the summer, and plans were made for a picnic to be held sometime in July, the date to be announced later. Kathleen Maguire and Mary Anne Granas will be co-chairmen for this affair. It was also announced that a social party will be held at Sari's Tuesday evening, June 10, at 8 o'clock. All Catholic Daughters and their husbands and friends are invited, and reservations may be made by calling Rose Igl, 6367, or Jean Moore, 3578. Pat Dale will be chairman for the evening.

After the meeting cards were played, and the following received awards: Mary Anne Granas, Barbara Peterson, Rose O'Leary, Ollie Holzgang, and Leone Mathis. The hall was beautifully decorated with roses, carnations and stock, and the tea table with its lace cloth was lighted by white candles in crystal holders. The centerpiece of carnations and stock was arranged in a crystal bowl. Rose O'Leary, grand regent, and Ellen Ely, past grand regent, presided at the tea service, and Violet Plesier and Mildred Petrick, co-hostesses, were assisted by Mamie Giacomini, Elizabeth Dalton, Barbara Bruner, Olivia Hobbs, Lydia Staub, Mary Goldblatt, Effa Johnson, Catharine Johnson, Julia O'Keefe, Helen McAuliffe, Nora McAuliffe, Katherine Elliott, Alice Lamm, Evelyn Ball, Eugenie Courtwright, and Margaret Molitor. About 60 were present during the evening.

The next regular meeting will be on Tuesday, June 10, where additional plans will be made for the state convention to be held in Salem, June 26, 27, and 28.
