been a houseguest of her cousin, Mrs. Jules Napier, who is another Klamathite receiving farewells from friends. The two left Friday for Eugene where Mrs. Jules Napier will make her home. She has taught school here for a number of years, and is well known to many Klamath folk.

Another pair of tripsters, Mrs. Robert David Payne (Virginia Hubb) and daughter Tyana, who flew from here last Friday for Philadelphia to join Lt. Payne who is stationed with the United States army air corps, medical branch, at Middletown, Pa. Virginia and Tyana have been here for the past three months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Hubb of High street.

Janice Hubb is expected home in mid-June from Albuquerque, New Mexico, where she has been working for the University of California on the atomic bomb project.

Recent visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Elias Corwin Coleman of Battle Creek, Michigan—who must be entirely disillusioned as to our glorious western weather about which millions of dollars have been spent in publicity. The Colemans flew to Los Angeles and it was cold and muggy. They came to Klamath Falls to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Calvin Lawson Hunt, and found buckets of rain falling. As for Crater lake, they found it a big bowl of soupy fog and not a single hint of the blue in the picture postcards. The Colemans left Sunday for the east via Seattle but plan another trip when the weather might possibly behave with proper manners. Dr. and Mrs. Warren C. Hunt entertained with a family dinner Saturday evening for the visitors.

In Klamath Falls and very busy greeting old friends last week was Charles Scharfenstein of Long Beach, Calif. where he and Mrs. Scharfenstein have made their home since leaving here a couple of years ago. They are looking forward to an August visit from their son, Cadet Thomas Scharfenstein of the United States Coast Guard academy at New London, Conn. Tommy is now a first class cadet and when he is graduated next spring his parents will be sitting in the audience with the distinction of having two sons finish from the academy. Lt. Charles Scharfenstein is now aide to navigation officer stationed at Argentina, Newfoundland. His family is with him at Argentina and the Scharfensteins also plan to visit with them on their trip east next year. Charles finished at the academy in 1941.

Greeted home are Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Nicodemus who have been living in Brookings the past two and one-half years. Right now, until they find a house, they are at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Bratton, 1966 Portland.

Invitations to commencement exercises and weddings fill the mail in early June. From Portland comes announcement of the graduation of Thomas A. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Miller of Portland, from Catholic Central High in Portland. The Millers left here several years ago and both Tom and Dave have been attending Central High. They are planning a visit here this summer.

Grace K. Rhoades was saying goodbye this week-end to her many friends and little first graders, a lot of them pretty big by now and a number in the 1947 graduating class! Miss Rhoades' first class at Riverside finished high school years last Wednesday night. Our son entered first grade under the kindly tutelage of "Mizrodes" and often we were called "Mizrodes" instead of Mother. Her word was infallible and the law as far as our first grader went and she was made of such stuff as angels are fashioned—golden wands and all. The teaching profession is losing one of its best with the resignation of "Mizrodes" who is soon to become Mrs. Willis Arthur Shelley.

At Harry Hibbs' last day at Roosevelt where he was a first grader this year, the class shared little cup cakes brought to the picnic Wednesday by first grader Joanne Bogatay. Harry left Saturday morning with his parents and two little brothers to live in Ventura.

One of the prettiest teas in many a day was that arranged by Mrs. Loren Palmerston and Mrs. George H. Adler for Mrs. William Spangler, an event of last Tuesday afternoon in the Pelican party room. The garden flowers were especially lovely, roses and iris and a particularly fetching bowl of violets. Two tea tables were arranged which was very convenient for the guests who found the most wonderful sandwiches and tiny little cream puff affairs stuffed with chicken salad! The corsages worn by the hostesses and those who were assisting were Esther Reed daisies dyed in such pretty colors.

Nadine Palmerston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Palmerston of Pacific Terrace, has received one of 100 certificates of merit given by Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism honorary. Nadine is studying at the University of California at Berkeley. The scholarship certificates were given to 10 students in 10 of the country's outstanding colleges and universities.

Another message directly from Dr. and Mrs. Lowell Coggeshall, now of Chicago and stationed at the Marine Barracks during war years here, who were visited last week by Dr. and Mrs. George I. Wright of this city. Dr. Coggeshall expressed a great deal of pleasure over the Oregon Vocational school which will soon be in operation at the Barracks plant. He and Mrs. Coggeshall sent greetings to their many friends here.

Bridge Club
Mrs. William L. Bolga entertained for members of her bridge club last Tuesday evening at her home, 1451 Crescent, and guests honored Mrs. Richard Hibbs, a member, with a handkerchief shower prior to her departure for California where she will reside.

Pinochle Club
The Yatti Yatti Pinochle club met at the home of Mrs. Paul Zeigler on Thursday, May 29. Charter members are Rose Perkins, "Balee" Petty, Ingaletta Allenby, Jacquetta Templeton, Elsie Hayden, Blanche Sutherland, Vivian Blafsky and Mrs. Zeigler. One new member joined, Donna Foley.

AT THE RECEPTION which followed their wedding on Sunday afternoon, June 1, are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hull Trelease. Before her marriage, Mrs. Trelease was Veldene Ruth Durant of Klamath Falls. After June 15, the young couple will be at home at 1017 High street.

Rites Solemnized Sunday Afternoon

An event of Sunday, June 1, was the wedding of Veldene Ruth Durant, of this city, and Robert Hull Trelease, also of Klamath Falls. Rites were solemnized at 2 o'clock in a ceremony read by the Rev. David Barnett Jr., in the First Presbyterian church.

The altar was banked with pink and white snapdragons, palms and tapers in candelabra. Preceding the ceremony Mel Erickson sang "Ave Maria" and "O, Perfect Love." The traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Wendell Smith.

Given in marriage by her uncle, William E. Beck, the bride was attired in a slate blue cutaway suit complimented by pink accessories. She carried a single orchid on a white prayer book, with white ribbon streamers and tiny pink rosebuds.

Helen Durant was her sister's maid of honor, and wore a gray gabardine suit with aqua accessories. Her bouquet was of American Beauty roses.

Joe Bellotti, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man, and Ralph K. Schouboe Jr. and Van Thome were ushers.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Vernon Smith and Barbara of Bend and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shinn and Charles Jr. of Grants Pass.

Immediately following was a reception at the William E. Beck home, 320 Lewis street. Mrs. Roy Gooding and Mrs. Joe Bellotti poured and served after the new Mr. and Mrs. Trelease cut the first slice of their wedding cake.

The young couple left for a two week wedding trip which will take them to Lake Louise and Calgary, British Columbia. After June 15 they will be at home at 1017 High street.

For something old, the bride wore a gold charm bracelet made entirely of heirloom jewelry. Something new was her wedding ensemble, something borrowed, the white prayer book, and something blue was the traditional blue garter. She also wore diamond earrings, a gift of the groom.

Grace Rhoades To Wed In Portland

A wedding of interest in Klamath Falls is planned for next Tuesday, June 10, in Portland, when Miss Grace Katherine Rhoades of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Rhoades of 841 North Cottage street, Salem, becomes the bride of Willis Arthur Shelley of Portland, formerly of this city.

Miss Rhoades has been a member of the Klamath Falls school system since 1935 with the exception of the years she spent with the Women's Army Corps (WAC), during the war. Miss Rhoades was a student at Willamette university and completed her college work at the University of Oregon. She taught for a number of years at Riverside school and on her return from army duty taught one year at Fairview and this past year was first grade teacher at Roosevelt.

The bride-to-be has chosen a petal pink afternoon dress for her wedding costume and hat and accessories will be navy blue. Members of both families and a few close friends have been invited as wedding guests. The couple will be at home near Portland. The address—route 7 box 590.
