WHYTA'S SHOPS AND SHOPS

is catering to the June bride and her attendants... with complete wedding outfits and dainty formal in jewel-toned pastels for bridesmaids. One exquisite bridal gown Martha viewed is fashioned of imported lace over gleaming white satin... designed to be cherished.

The ready-to-wear on the second floor has an enticing selection of new formal... of which most appealing is a sherbet pink moire with an extremely full bouffant skirt, strapless bodice and a matching, long-sleeved jacket for a modest touch.

Slim jersey prints are enhanced by frills and soft bustle effects... in regular sizes... following arrival of a large lingerie shipment that most of us knew by this time how satisfactory nylon is for easy laundering and quick drying... and these plainly tailored, well-fitting slips in tearose are no exception. Ironing isn't even necessary... but naturally improves their appearance.

There's a new selection of the famous Regina slips, too... of soft white crepe, lace trimmed. These have a straight nylon front and bias cut back... while the absence of seams prevents uneven hemlines and gives a sleek fit.

In larger sizes... Whyta's has lace-backed satins in pink and white, through 48... and black taffeta slips ranging through 50... all wonderfully fitting.

Attracting plenty of attention are the delicate combinations of blue night gowns of sharkskin fabric that's long been popular for blouses. These are fashioned with a modest high neckline and peter pan collar in front and a low v-cut in back.

Fit for a bride's trousseau are gowns of white or pastel satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline outlined by ruchings of narrow lace and a dainty lace bow decorating the skirt, and comfortable summer-ish are the pretty beige or blue jerseys on which wide ecru lace forms a square neck and three-quarter, push-up sleeves add a fetching touch. They're cut very full and a narrow ribbon sash encircles the waist.

The lingerie department of WHYTA'S... in the Medical-Dental building... is well supplied with nylon hosiery, proportionately sized shorts, mediums and longs... from 8 1/2 through 11.

Kathy's Hat Shop is making up draped "sunods" of silk jersey that are wonderful little travelers... as they stay put on the head or pack in a minimum of space. These are in white or black... for $3.98... but you can have the same in some other fabric for an outfit ensemble.

Kathy's is showing an interesting new selection of summer felts... white, light gray, beige, brown and black... with either wide or narrow ribbons, amulet, velvet or ribbon touches... and some have distinctive draped trims... forerunner of next Fall's styles.

For dress-up occasions any time, Kathy's seductive picture hats of black taffeta add costume glamour... or the close-fitting feather hats... in white, pink, aqua, gray or black... a bit of whimsy.

A one-third off sale on all summer straw hats is being held at KATHY'S HAT SHOP... 1114 Main... and it's here you can have an old, but expensive, favorite remodeled into a becoming and modern creation.

Aluminum tubing is being used for the framework for terrace furniture and the webbing is of plastic to resist deterioration, giving you furniture with no upkeep problem and featherlight.

The Modernistic Beauty Shop... over on Klamath avenue... is going to be closed every Saturday afternoon... starting this week... "Stormy" Borden informed that this will continue through the summer months only... giving the shop's personnel a longer week-end for outings and such. When Autumn rolls around again, the Saturday afternoon closure will probably be discontinued.

Mrs. Borden recently returned from Portland where she attended a week's clinic on a brand new cold wave permanent that requires special training. MODERNISTIC BEAUTY SHOP... 915 Klamath avenue... has added this cold wave to its other specialties... and Stormy, now taking appointments for this type of curl, is the only operator in the city qualified to give it. She'll gladly tell you more about it or advise on any hair problems... if you'll drop in or call 3883.

Your Store

has arranged a fascinating window display of gifts for June brides... everything from kitchenware... through the house... but holding the place of honor... so to speak... are magnificent, satin-covered down comforters... first of this kind Your Store's been able to get in over three years!

Those on display are of dusty rose... but upstairs in the linen and drapery department, you'll find a further choice in boucler shades of green and blue. These comforters contain the finest of white goose down... and intricate stitching forms various designs.

They're perfectly elegant as wedding gifts... from an individual or a group. Prices on down comforters range from $28.50 to $49.95... at YOUR STORE, Inc. ... 721 Main.

Beauty experts say that bridal bouquets should complement a bride's figure as well as her gown. The staturesque type can carry an armful of flowers without appearing dwarfed, but if she's petite, an old-fashioned nosegay or a showy bouquet is more suitable.

LaPointe's has most any type of foundation garment that will do the right thing for you and your summer clothes... be they cool, filmy frocks, play suits or slacks... and if you have a slender figure that doesn't particularly need support but merely an aid to better posture and smoother fit to garments, Martha recommends the well-known formfit girdles... which also come in panty styles of white or tearose... designed especially for those who favor slacks.

As for bras... LaPointe's carries three outstanding makes... Formfit, Life and Charmfit... in the A, B, C and D cup sizes... that give natural emphasis and uplift.

Since scarleties eased, improvements have been made in foundations... and if you're in doubt about which of the new models is best for you, it's wise to take your problems to an expert like Mary Hutechinson, head of this department.

A half-price sale now under way in the foundation department of LAPOINTE'S... 507 Main... is a chance to save a bit. Odd lot selections of girdles and brassieres... including white numbers and black taffetas... are marked down for clearance!

The newest in sun glasses are keyed to costume effects and are designed to look like your own. Formfit, Life and Charmfit... eye-protecting shields of light-polarizing plastic are built into visored sun caps... and when not in use can be snapped back inside.

Curri's is featuring a joyful summer fragrance... Cheramy "Frolle"... and a formula for romance... "one drop for you, two drops for a beau, three drops for romance"... in attractive new containers of powder blue on which colorful designs are inspired by the carefree spirit of a carnival.

As a sort of introductory offer, a purse flacon has been added to the Frolle perfume set... at a price of only $1.25 for the two. The toilet water is packaged in two and four-ounce sizes... the smaller bottle selling for $1.25 and the larger for $2.00. The talc is 50 cents and the dusting powder $1.00... all prices plus tax, of course.

In addition, the line includes sachet and bath softener. Another new item now available at CURRI'S... the friendly drug store at the corner of Ninth and Main... is Chantilly face powder... which is previously lacking among these toiletries. Blended for softness and clinging qualities... it comes in five lovely shades... and has the same piquant, clean fragrance as the other Chantilly items. It sells for $2.50 and tax.

An al fresco barbecue has been designed for outdoor cooking... a new electric rotisserie with glass sides, large enough for a ten-pound roast or bird that turns on a rotating spit. If you want to broil steaks, there's a flat grill to replace the spit. A hinged aluminum lid contains the heating element.

The heavywrought but graceful iron furniture of prewar days is back, but stainless steel glides have been set in the legs so they slide easily across a terrace or carpet.
