

Chapter Holds Final Meeting

Members of Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held their final meeting of the year in the home of Mrs. George Wright, 1629 Portland. Eva Rae Jacobson announced her engagement to Edwin H. Briscoe, and invited the group to attend their wedding at the First Covenant church on June 15. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Loyal Heath, who presented a very interesting talk on the subject, "Good Thinking."

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. William Taverner and Marilyn Knoble, to Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Jean Ostendorf, Mrs. Loyal Heath, Mrs. Patricia Fairchild, Mrs. Don Miller, Lois Rumer, Mrs. George Wright, Eva Rae Jacobson, Mrs. Frank Hall, Mrs. Robert Wirth, Mrs. Jules Napier and Mrs. George Wardell.

On Thursday evening, June 5, the group met for their annual dinner at Sari's, closing their social season. The affair was in charge of Jean Ostendorf. Mrs. Jules Napier was the honored guest, and was presented with a farewell gift from the chapter. An original poem written by Mrs. George Wright was read to Mrs. Napier, who left Klamath Falls to make her home in Eugene, and expressed regret at losing a faithful member. Mrs. Napier is a charter member and past president of the chapter.

Present at this event were Jean Ostendorf, Doris McCord, Lois Rumer, Mrs. Don Miller, Mrs. Gail Webb, Mrs. Robert Wirth, Mrs. Frank Hall, Mrs. Jules Napier, Mrs. William Taverner, Marilyn Knoble, Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mrs. Loyal Heath, Mrs. Patricia Fairchild, Mrs. George Wright, and Mrs. George Wardell. Also present were three guests, Charlotte Bailey of New Jersey, Mrs. Jack Napier and Mrs. E. H. Hullman.

Betrothal Told

Mrs. Annes M. Goodwin of this city, this week announced the betrothal of her daughter, Edna Louise, to Charles Cecil, also of Klamath Falls.

The couple will exchange vows on August 10 at the First Methodist church. Mr. Cecil is a member of the announcing staff of radio station KPLW.

Entertained

Chapter U of PEO entertained Chapter AU at luncheon at its last meeting when Mrs. Andrew Collier was hostess. Mrs. Frank Howard is president of Chapter U.

Reports of the recent convention will be given by Mrs. N. B. Drew, Mrs. Ernest Heiken, Mrs. Frank Bell and Mrs. Lloyd Porter.

Newcomer Feted At Lovely Tea On Tuesday

Bouquets of iris and honeysuckle decked the Pelican party room Tuesday afternoon, June 3, when Mrs. Loren Palmerton and Mrs. George Adler entertained at tea for Mrs. William Spangler, a new resident of Klamath Falls.

Pouring for the afternoon was Mrs. Paul Farrons and Mrs. Charles W. Kemper. Mrs. Carl Steinselger, Mrs. Alisa Kuykendall and Mrs. Ernest Taylor assisted.

Mrs. Spangler is the former Mrs. Guy Stoddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ford McCormick of Eagle Point.

A BRIDE OF JUNE 7 was Gloria Olson, above, who became Mrs. William Canton. Vows were exchanged at 2 o'clock at Sacred Heart Catholic church. She is the daughter of Mrs. L. J. Olson, and Mr. Canton's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Canton, all of this city.

TWO ATTRACTIVE brides-to-be are Edna Louise Brown, (left) and Eleanore Kandra, Miss Brown will wed Charles Cecil of this city, in a ceremony set for August 10. Miss Kandra will become the bride of Dr. Charles E. Wilson Jr., of Bowling Green, Kentucky, in August. —Pictures of Mrs. Canton and Miss Brown by Kennell-Ellis.

Summer Has Come Despite Calendar

Whether the calendar agrees or not, summer is here for Klamath folk. This week brought a rush of people coming and going on camping trips, vacations, and just out of town. Good weather or bad, people have apparently just decided it's time to go.

Maryellen Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wright, and Nancy Bennet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bennet, arrived home from their respective schools this week and both will be on the staff of The Herald and News this summer. Maryellen has just completed her junior year at the University of Oregon, and Nancy is studying at Mills college in Oakland.

Planning to spend the summer months working at Crater Lake lodge are several members of the younger set including Dorothy Collier, Joanne Bennet, Jim Ivory, Dick Yates, and Nancy Humble. Mary Ann Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills, will spend the summer studying at Stanford university.

East-bound are Ruth Landry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Landry, and Jean Hilton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James M. Hilton, who left last Saturday evening for an extended summer trip. First stop will be Los Angeles to be followed by New Orleans, Chicago and Minneapolis, as well as other points of interest along the way. Mrs. Hilton, and son, Dick, are also traveling, and will join the girls for the return trip.

Visiting here are Mrs. Peter Cartwright and sons Danny and Philip from Portland, guests at the Lloyd Prock home on Lakeshore drive. This is Philip's first trip to Klamath Falls being a December arrival but Danny has visited frequently. The threesome arrived by plane Thursday morning.

Added to the list of first plane trippers, Sara Stewart, daughter of the Neal Stewarts, who left Wednesday morning for Portland where she will visit her great-uncle and aunt, the John Berrys, during Rose Festival time. Sara will accompany her aunt, Mrs. Allan A. Bynon, from Portland to Salem to meet her parents and brother Angus, for a Father's Day reunion at the Frederick Bynon Sr., summer place at Brush College in the Polk county hills. They will return home late this coming week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Shuck of Merrill left Thursday morning for Los Gatos, California, where they will attend the graduation of their son, Mervyn, from Montezuma Mountain Ranch school.

Wanda Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Royal Shaw of Pacific Terrace, is spending next week, following her graduation from the University of Oregon, as a guest of Kay Leslie, a Pi Beta Phi sorority. (Continued on Page Six, Column One)

Eleanore Kandra To Be Married This Summer

Romantic news was announced this week when Mr. and Mrs. John Kandra Jr. of Tulelake made known the betrothal of their attractive daughter, Eleanore, to Dr. Charles E. Wilson Jr., of Bowling Green, Kentucky.

The nuptials will be an event of August in Klamath Falls. Miss Kandra, member of a prominent Tulelake family, recently returned from Columbia, Mo., where she was graduated this spring from Stephens college. She was active in school affairs and particularly interested in aviation, holding numerous campus offices. She is affiliated with Phi Phi Phi sorority and was senior sister of aviation hall.

Dr. Wilson attended Western Kentucky college and the University of Louisville, graduating from the University of Kansas City school of dentistry, Kansas City Western Dental college. He is listed in the 1946-47 "Who's Who" in American colleges and universities. The young couple met in Kansas City. In September Dr. Wilson will begin his practice in Lexington, Ky., where they will make their home.

Musical Program

Piano pupils of Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen entertained their parents with an informal musical program at the Mushen home on Hillside street Sunday afternoon.

Assisting with the program was Betty Glidden, who presented a group of vocal numbers. Refreshments were served later in the afternoon.

Rites Solemnized At Sacred Heart

A lovely June bride was Gloria Olson, daughter of Mrs. L. J. Olson, who became the bride of William Canton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Canton, all of Klamath Falls, in a ceremony read at 2 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, June 7.

The Rev. Father Timothy P. Casey read the double ring ceremony at Sacred Heart Catholic church. Tall white tapers lighted the church and the altar was banked with bouquets of white Snow Queen daisies. As guests assembled, Mel Erickson sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Elaine Abbott, who played the traditional wedding processional from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered the church.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Wilson of Lebanon announced the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie, to Earl Reynolds Jr. at a luncheon at their home last Saturday.

Mr. Reynolds is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds Sr. of this city. Vows will be exchanged August 24 at Lebanon. Miss Wilson is a graduate of Oregon State college where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma, and has been a member of the home economics staff at Oregon State recently.

Mr. Reynolds was graduated from OSC last week-end, when he completed studies in engineering.

Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William Goodwin of Worland, Wyoming, have announced the betrothal of their daughter, Mary Jane, to Joseph Paul Sabo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sabo of Klamath Falls. The wedding will be in August. Both are students at Oregon State college.

The bride was escorted to the altar by Glen Waggoner, her brother-in-law. Her gown was of heavy brocade satin, fashioned princess style with a sweetheart neckline, long fitted sleeves, and a full court train. A tiered, illusion net veil fell from a tiny bandeau of daisies. She carried a single lavender orchid on her white prayer book, with white ribbon streamers completing the arrangement. For jewelry she wore a triple strand of pearls and her mother's wedding band on her right hand.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Glen Waggoner, who was attired in a long gown of white, with bouffant net skirt and fitted lace bodice. White carnations were worn in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Carolyn Avery and Mrs. Jack Kellum. Miss Avery wore a gown of turquoise and Mrs. Kellum, a peach colored gown. Both were of similar style to that of the matron of honor. Each of the attendants carried old-fashioned nosegays of dainty flowers.

Mrs. Olson, mother of the bride, chose an afternoon dress of light blue, and Mrs. Canton, the bridegroom's mother, was attired in a suit of blue. Each wore corsages of rosebuds.

Best man was Edward Canton, brother of the groom, and ushers were Jack Kellum and Barney Cavanaugh.

The wedding party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Canton received with their parents in the reception rooms of the Klamath Lutheran church, where the young people cut the first piece of their decorated wedding cake. Bernadine Hannon served the confection. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Ross Stampely, and at the punch bowl was Mrs. Layton Stephens. Ida DeWitt was in charge of the bride's book.

Soon after, Mr. and Mrs. Canton left for a stay of two weeks at Lake Louise in Canada. Upon their return they will make their home in this city.

An out of town guest for the wedding and reception was Mrs. Florence McCarthy of Rio Hondo, Texas, aunt of the groom.

End Of School

A theatre party on Saturday afternoon, June 7, marked the end of the school year and the beginning of summer fun for Roberta and Patrick Kittredge, children of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kittredge, who invited a group of young friends for the afternoon.

Mrs. Dolores Mills assisted Mrs. Kittredge in serving refreshments at the family home on North Third street after the movie.

Roberta and Patrick's guests were Denise Kenyon, Roberta Manning, Gloria Stalk, Loralou Rolph, Mary Louise Jerrus, Marcia Mills, Sylvia Gerber, Emily Elliott, Caroline Reilly, Dorothy Lowell, George Vlahos, Lyle Mills, Wayne Elliott, Roger Lentz, John Lentz, Eugene Kean, James Lools, Ronnie Miller, David Cumming, Ralph Watson and Dannie Lowe.

MRS. CALVIN LAWSON HUNT admires a bowl of lovely iris from the Hunt gardens arranged about the rooms for the tea given by Mrs. Warren Coe Hunt last week complimenting her new daughter-in-law. —Guderian.

MRS. WILLIAM SPANGLER, (center) a new resident of Klamath Falls, was honored at a lovely tea on Tuesday afternoon, June 3, when Mrs. George Adler, left, and Mrs. Loren Palmerton entertained for her at the Pelican party room. —Guderian.

A MUCH FETED VISITOR in Klamath Falls is Virginia West, (left), of Hillsboro and Portland and formerly of this city, houseguest of Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore at her home, 2045 LeRoy. The two are pictured on the steps at the Moore residence. —Guderian.

Salem Visitor Is Honored at Party

Mrs. Erwin C. Bahlborg of Salem, who has been the guest this week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bentley of Tulelake, and Mrs. L. O. Arens, also of Salem, were honored with a dessert bridge at the Bentley home Wednesday.

Small old fashioned nosegays in cut glass vases centered the luncheon tables and places were marked for Mrs. Pauline Moeller, Klamath Falls; the guests of honor, Mrs. Bahlborg and Mrs. Arens, Salem; Mrs. Arthur Martin, Mrs. James D. Renton, Mrs. Eldon Larson, Mrs. Marvin Thomas, Mrs. P. C. Bergman, Mrs. Charles K. Weise and the hostess, Mrs. Bentley. Mr. Bahlborg is driving down this week-end.