School Honors Go To Tulelake Girl

TULELAKE—Dorothy Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas, completing her junior year at the University of Nevada, Reno, this week where she majored in dietetics, took a number of honors during commencement in addition to responsible posts that she filled on the campus during the school year.

A member of Delta Delta Delta sorority, Miss Thomas was elected to the highest women's honorary for leadership and scholarship as president of "Cap and Scroll." She is also a member of Sagena, an honorary organization, and of Gothic N, athletic honorary for participation in the campus aquacade this year.

She has been president during the term just ended of the YWCA on the campus and will serve during the coming year as vice president of Tri Delta. She has been a student senator, chairman of the campus calendar and a member of the press club.

Topping her other awards was the presentation of the Rose Seigler Mathews scholarship at the University of Nevada last year.

At the end of the term she returned here with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Martin and Mr. Martin, present for commencement, to spend the summer.

Short Session

Catholic Daughters of America held a short business meeting in the parish hall Monday evening, June 8, at 8 o'clock. In the absence of the grand regent, Rose O'Leary, Kathleen Maguire presided. Plans were made for a joint picnic of Knights of Columbus and Catholic Daughters to be held at the Gravel pit, Sunday, July 30. All members are asked to keep this date in mind. After the business meeting cards were played and the awards for high score were given to Virginia Herlihy, Kathleen Maguire and Billie Walker. Consolation awards went to Elizabeth Brandness, Mary Ann Granas and Minnie McCroaky. Refreshments were served by Mildred Smith, Violet Pieser and Astia Kennedy.

On Tuesday evening, June 10, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sari were host and hostess to about 80 Catholic Daughters, their husbands and friends for a most enjoyable evening. Refreshments were served by Lillian Dale, chairman, assisted by Angeline Milani, Victorine Milani, Mabel Brock-trup and Martha Lavenik. Rose Igi and Jean Moore were in charge of reservations.
