

Vows Exchanged In June Ceremony

POE VALLEY—Lorraine Mae Stover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stover of Lakeview, became the bride of Leonard Harms of Wilbur, Wash. in a ceremony read June 10 at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Brethaupt of Poe Valley.

Rev. James Chisholm of the First Baptist church in Lakeview read the rites. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. George Ashcroft sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Chisholm. Canticles were lighted by Danny Stover and Dwayne Mulkey. Mrs. Paul Brethaupt played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin with finger-tip veil, and carried a bouquet of white roses with satin streamers. For jewelry she wore a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Maid of honor was Alma Stover, sister of the bride, who wore blue net. Her bouquet was of spring blooms. Bridesmaid was Maxine Millard, who was attired in a gown of blue net and carried a nosegay similar to that of the matron of honor.

The bride and groom cut their three-tiered wedding cake, which was served by the bride's attendants. Assisting were Virginia Masten, Helen Sullivan and Shirley Masten. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Albertson, Mrs. Henry Albertson, Mrs. Calvin Dent and daughter, Belle, Mrs. Wallace and Clara Wallace, all of Lakeview.

For going away the bride chose an ensemble of blue with white accessories. After a brief honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Harms will make their home in Wilbur, Wash.

Bly Church Scene Of Evening Rites

BLY—Betty Patzke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patzke of Bly, and Archie Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mitchell of Ellenburg, Wash., exchanged vows in an evening ceremony on Sunday, June 1, in the Christian Missionary Alliance church in Bly. The Rev. Floyd Pollock read the double ring vows.

The traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Edna Book, with a violin solo, "I Love You Truly," by Eldon Austerman. Alice Boyd sang "Because," "Wedding Prayer" and "Lead On, O King Eternal."

Florence Garner and Leona Rupp lighted tapers immediately before the ceremony, which was read before an altar banked with spring blooms.

Given in marriage by her brother, Edward Patzke, the bride wore a long gown of white organdy. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias and red roses.

Her sister, Joyce, was maid of honor. She was attired in a gown of light blue and carried a bouquet of gardenias. Judy McClintock and Sharon Boyd were the flower girls.

Vernon Mitchell, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ring bearers were Jerry and Jimmy Patzke, and ushers were Pat and Bud Patzke.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Patzke home. Out of town guests were Mrs. Glen Mitchell, Marcella and Vernon, of Ellenburg; Florence Garner and Leona Rupp of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Patzke of Corvallis; Eldon Austerman of California, and Rev. and Mrs. Floyd Pollock of Eagle Point.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left following the reception for a wedding trip and are now at home in Bly.

Midland
Annetta Bollman celebrated her eighth birthday Monday with eight little guests. Games were played and refreshments were served to Jimmie Tekkanen and John Lee Stroud of Bly, Ralph Miatler, Dona Jean and Georgia Lee Flowers, Jerry Dean Coe, Leland Houck, Freddie and Annetta Bollman. Mrs. Bollman was assisted in serving by Mrs. John Miatler, Mrs. LeRoy Houck and Mrs. Stroud.

Shops and

recommends two new items in its exclusive Helena Rubinstein line that were concocted especially for the hot weather months. Sun Tint gives your skin a smooth, golden tan out of a bottle. And Apple Blossom Deodorant Cologne which provides a refreshing fragrance along with the job of combating perspiration.

Sun Tint... as the name implies is a dark tinted liquid that is smoothed on with a cotton pad, giving a sun-tanned look to the skin. It can be used to bronze legs, face or arms... stays on till removed by soap and water... and won't rub off on your clothes. Price is $1.00 and tax.

The Deodorant Cologne is delightfully scented with apple blossoms... and you'll find it very effective when rubbed over the body, on the feet or under the arms... giving a long-lasting freshness and fragrance. It also sells for $1.00 and tax.

at CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS... corner of Ninth and Main... where you'll find both of these Rubinstein items at the cosmetics bar.

Washday pin-ups are the cute little pique hats, now being fashioned as button-on hat trimmings for slacks for either off-the-face or picture hats.

LaPointe's
has two "specials" in progress... well worth your looking into... a clearance on negligees and robes... even those exquisite satin numbers fashioned especially for a bride's trousseau... and on wool skirts.

Prices are cut in half on filmy negligee sets of white or pastels... some having sheer robes over satin gowns... and on nylon print sets. With luxurious lace trims... these are the ones most of us have looked at with yearning... and now they're budget priced at only $9.00.

Flattering robes have been reduced so that present prices range from $4.95 up to $16.50 for the bride's sating. Among this selection are gleaming brocades, deep-toned crepes, rayon prints, checked taffetas and washable cottons... many ideal for vacation travelers.

The wool skirt clearance... table in LAPOINTE'S... 507 Main... are gay plaid combinations, checks, all-over colors in summer shades and white... in both pleated and slim styles... sizes 24 to 30... priced at $3, $4, $5 and $6.

Women who dress well use restraint, according to Eugene K. Denton, president of a New York specialty shop, and if you can't resist "trimmings" you'll look dowdy because trifles smother a woman's face and her personality. He blames manufacturers for the gawgaws tacked on clothes, and the woman for superfluous accessories.

Rickys Jewelers
offer a couple of cleaning aids a bit out of the ordinary... one made purposely for jewelers and the other for shining up your silverware.

"Glitter" is the jewelry brightener for cleaning up rings, necklaces, bracelets or earrings so they'll sparkle like new. This liquid product includes a small brush and is extremely easy to use... just dip, rinse and wipe! The price is only 25 cents a bottle.

The silver polish found at Rickys is a new type... and is so satisfactory that it's used on the store's own silver stock. Known as "E-Z-Z" it has an emulsified base which won't injure nail polish... and is a 90-screen abrasive, as minute and soft as face powder. If you're entertaining and find a spot on your silver, it's easy to whisk it off in a jiffy with this polish... priced at 50 cents a bottle.

Following arrival of a big shipment of Ransom... scarce for a long time... RICKY'S JEWELERS... 700 Main... has an ample stock of this approved fluid for cigarette lighters... and don't forget about the "dutch auction" being held on radios in the downstairs radio salon. Prices drop another $2.50 on Monday morning.

Now that many are enjoying a profusion of roses in the yard, here's a small tip worth remembering: roses gathered in the late afternoon keep longer than those cut in the early morning, and it's best to remove leaves from the part of the stem that goes in water, as these decay easily and promote bacteria growth.

Pine Street Market
offers some appetizing picnic items from its shelves this week... and they're equally nice for cold lunches. Some... like the Sorella's Liver Loaf... aren't exactly new... but they've been missing so long that they seem so.

Distinctly new, however, are the Fancy Green Olives stuffed with Anchovies... and the Market has also received more of those delicious Green Olives stuffed with Blanched Almonds... a nice touch to the salad plate when entertaining.

Another newie is vacuum packed Korn Patches... a tasty, salted cocktail tidbit you'll want to try. Ready prepared Welsh Rarebit is back again... put up in jars with pure sherry wine added. You serve it sizzling hot over toast... and perfect with bean dishes or for interesting sandwiches, in the S. and W. Brown Bread... of which another shipment has been received by PINE STREET MARKET... corner of Seventh and Pine.

specializes in lovely linens... a fact to remember when it comes to wedding or shower gifts for the June bride. If there's a linen shower in the offing... and what could be more appropriate... SPENCER'S can show you a wonderfully complete selection in this line... ranging from inexpensive guest towels to perfectly gorgeous dinner sets in the ultra class.

To complement her best china and silver... Mosaic bridge or dinner sets of pure white linen come from China... beautiful with intricate Spoke embroidery work. Looking perpetually starched are the Grass Linens... obtainable in bridge or dinner sets or individual 44-inch square cloths. Bridge sets of fine handkerchief linen are of soft pastels... peach, blue, yellow or green... crisscrossed by hemstitching.

Spencer's in-stock by treasured by a new homemaker are delicately embroidered pillow slips... of hand-made Venice lace... and all sorts of pretty guest towels... at SPENCER'S... 619 Main.

Because slip covers wear out fastest on chair arms, the smart home owner will buy extra fabric to replace these vulnerable spots.

Ed Greene
of GREENE'S PEST CONTROL SERVICE... headquarter at Tulelake... told Martha that the reason for the increase in bugs on the porch and along these paths few weeks is because of the long stay of dry weather Klamath experienced... and it's his opinion that the recent rainy spell will improve this situation considerably.

Mr. Greene announced that he will start spraying trees again within a week or ten days... if the weather remains bright... and is taking orders for elimination of earwigs, flies and mosquitoes around home yards... using a DDT spray which controls these pests... from three to five weeks. Cost of this ranges from $4.00 to $10.00 a yard... depending on the gallonage of spray used.

You can obtain estimates on spraying or place orders by calling Tulelake 2013... or by dropping a card to ED GREENE, Box 404, Tulelake, Calif.

A new twist for your charm collection is to attach single charms at spaced intervals to a pearl necklace, and a bit of glamour and class to your attire by lacing the bodice up with a gold chain.

has received another shipment of the faded denim "smarlie" pants... only this time they're brightened up by silver nailheads outlining the pockets. The "pants" are of pedal-pusher length... or you can get the same bright denim in shorts. Feather stitching provides the trim on another group of these faded denims... hardy outdoor togs... and also available in this type of slacks and halters. There's still an ample stock in Dude Ranch jeans of dark denim, too.

Out on display since the sun started beaming again are all sorts of abbreviated daytime duds... short, swirly-skirted two-piece cuties of red, green or blue seersucker peeping through eyelid embroidery... and fresh white cotton twill sets on which short, full skirts and the bra are encircled by black lace.

Simply styled for making up your own party outfits are ziggy striped short-sleeved seersucker with a wide elastic waistband and button-flap pocket... and very tailored are the white twill two-piece combination... a sequined midriff top and shorts enveloped by colored braids.

Quite fetching are the sleeveless dress and bloomer sets on which snakes tie in a back bow to give a little girl look... and one-piece shorts of cotton prints... made suspender style with a zipper up the back.

WHYTAL'S... in the Medical-Dental building, Main at Ninth... still has a plentiful selection of the youthful midriff dresses... in chintz, singham or seersucker... two and three-piece play dresses plus shorts in a variety of fabrics... and those hooded beach robes of striped crash.

If you're wearing sheer summer blouses, be certain your lingerie is the peep-show type and doesn't have frayed lace, worn straps or faded fabric.

children's department... on the second floor... is now headquarters for Camp Fire Girls and Blue Bird apparel... including required regalia for summer camp... as well as the neat regulation uniforms. Skirts, blouses, jerseys, ties and other items are already in stock... and orders will be placed immediately for anything that is not in stock.

While shopping with your young daughter, take a look at the darling summer frocks for little Misses that just arrived... dotted Swiss and dimity sheers, sizes 3 to 6x... and sun dresses of plaid gingham for the 3 to 6ers.

For the slightly older group... there are cool pinafores of sprightly Mexican designs over white with rick-rack edgings... a fine grade cotton print sleeveless hat has an artful poke of eyelet embroidery... and cotton poplins of yellow, green or blue fashioned with colorful insert pleats of plaid combinations.

Prices on these clever frocks found at MILLER'S... 612 Main... range from $2.19 to $3.98.

A gold bracelet or twisted gold chain will put sparkle into a party coiffure by using either to encircle a topknot curl, while a two-strand pearl necklace, anchored by jewel clips, makes a perfect headband for a sleek hairdo.
