

Friendship Camp Is Convention Host

Friendship camp 8898 of Klamath Falls, entertained the 19th Southern Oregon convention of the Royal Neighbors of America recently with Lucille Helfer, district orator, presiding.

Honor guests were State Supervisor Mae E. Logan, of Portland, and Ella Walker, district deputy, of Medford. Delegates were present from Medford, Ashland, Jacksonville, Cottage Grove, Eugene, Grants Pass, Powers, Portland, Sacramento, Calif., Grand Rapids, S. D., and Deer Park, Wash.

District officers were introduced by the camp orator. Honor guests and oracles from the district camps were presented by Lucille Helfer, Mayor Ed Ostendorf greeted the members with a speech of welcome.

Officers were elected with Ferne Barnum, orator from Ashland; vice orator, Irene Shirley, Medford; recorder, Alice Turner, Medford; chancery, Jessal Steele, Klamath Falls; marshal, Geneva Davies, Jacksonville. Other heads will be appointed.

Ashland camp invited all to attend the next district convention in 1948. A school of instruction was held in the afternoon under the direction of Mae Logan.

Officers-elect were installed during the meeting. Songs were sung and the afternoon session was adjourned. In the evening, a banquet was attended by more than 100 guests. Serving were the women of the First Christian church. Table decorations were made by the Social club.

Memorial services were given by the Klamath Falls drill team. Lucille Helfer, Mildred Markey and Ila

Simpson sang an appropriate number. Also participating were Ramona Steel and Kate Hogue. The retiring march was exemplified by the Ashland camp. An interesting program of skits, readings, and songs was given by the combined district camps. Kate Hogue and Ella Pauley were presented with their 25-year jewels.

Refreshments were served later in the evening.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Recent Banquet

The banquet held at the Wilma hotel by the ladies auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen Thursday, June 12, at 6 o'clock members of Mt. Shasta lodge 632 of Dunsmuir were guests. Sixteen members of the Society for Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartette Singing in America, Inc., together with John Houston, conductor, provided the musical entertainment during the banquet.

The tables were decorated with miniatures of equipment and buildings pertaining to railroading, and the place cards were locomotives.

Following the banquet a regular meeting took place in the LCOF hall at 8 o'clock with Edna Jones, president, in charge. Geraldine Heath of Mt. Shasta lodge with her officers and drill team conducted the initiation ceremonies at which Lucille Knight and Alta Yarbrough were received into membership. Edna Jensen was presented with a corsage and proclaimed the official member of the auxiliary. She thanked the group and then gave a brief account of the 10 years work of the auxiliary here.

After the meeting Betty Jean Thrasher of Florida, a niece of Fay Myers and a visitor in Klamath Falls, sang "The Desert Song" and "Sweet Dreams, Sweetheart," accompanied by Patricia Henry. Refreshments were served by Edie Caldwell, Mary Knight and Betty Johnson.
