Wheat Shows Small Gain

CHICAGO, June 19 (AP)—An urgent demand for corn sent the July contract of that grain to within ¼c of its all-time high on the board of trade today. Oats advanced sharply with corn, but wheat tended to lag and scored only small gains.

July corn reached $1.99, highest price for any corn contract since 1919 when a top of $1.99¾ was recorded.

Buying in corn was traced to commercial interests, including export houses.

Wheat closed ¼-½c higher, July $2.17⅝, corn finished 2¼-5½c higher, July $1.98½-$1.99, and oats were ¾-1¼c higher, July 96⅛-⅝c.

Private wire advices said the commodity credit corporation purchased 2,050,000 bushels of wheat for export yesterday. Dispatches from New York said Belgium overnight purchased 2500 tons of flour and 80,000 bushels of corn.

POTATOES

Most Stocks Stage Gains

NEW YORK, June 19 (AP)—The stock market put on its best performance of the week today, many leaders closing with gains ranging to around 2 points.

Motors paced the rise while a midday flurry brought steels, rubbers, rails and several favorites into the ranks of the gainers, some attaining new highs for the year. Transfers were in the neighborhood of 1,000,000 shares. Widespread advances outnumbered declines at the finish.

The recent slide of American Telephone was interrupted after it touched a new bottom below 150, and the stock bounced back more than a point from the day's low.
