

Tulelake

Vacation Bible school for the Community Presbyterian church opened Monday morning with Rev. Francis Chambers, assistant pastor, in charge. Sessions will be from 9 a.m. to noon through June 27.

Classes have been organized for beginners, primary, juniors and intermediate groups with Bible instruction, music, dramatics, arts and crafts to be studied. A picnic and evening program are scheduled.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas have with them this week as a house guest Frank Bulkeley, Kingston, Mo., near Plymouth, who is succumbing to the import business of the late John Haley, Mrs. Thomas' father.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tschirky have named their new daughter, first child in the family, Yvonne Elizabeth. Tulelake girls week came last year from Switzerland when her father returned from a visit to his homeland following close of the war.

Mrs. Lee Sagehorn is visiting in San Francisco with a sister and brother-in-law, Admiral and Mrs. Robert P. McDonnell, U.S.N., from Washington, D. C., who are on the West Coast preparatory to sailing for Guam where the navy officer has a year's assignment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Coyner and two sons, owners of the Tulelake Variety store, are in Portland, Ore., on a combined business and pleasure trip. The store, during their absence, is in charge of Sylvia Stratman, Klamath Falls, former employe.

John Pierson, veteran of the navy, has accepted a position as pharmacist at the Tulelake Drug company. Pierson opened the drug department in Earl's market two months ago. He was associated with Bowerman's in San Francisco before coming to Tulelake. Mrs. Pierson, a son and daughter are also here. W. R. Moore, owner of the Tulelake drug store, expects to vacation with his family for some time later in the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barks spent last week-end in Sacramento and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Griser, and their young daughter, Beverly. While south they visited Mr. and Mrs. Tex Tiner and Mr. and Mrs. William Humphries of Walnut Creek, and the Hubert Bonds at Redding. All were former Tulelake residents. Mr. and Mrs. Barks made their home at Walnut Creek during part of the war years.

Langell Valley

Mr. and Mrs. George Fernlund and son spent Sunday at Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett and family, Jim Womack and Frank Henry spent Sunday at Crater lake. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Embrey and children spent Saturday at Ashland and brought back cherries.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott House entertained at dinner Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Ross, Mr. and Mrs. LaRue House and daughter, Bill, David and Tom House, and Pet Hodges.

O. C. Johnson and Charles Dearborn are camping at Diamond lake for a few days fishing.

Mrs. Alice Ferrer of San Francisco, Calif., arrived Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Ed Jones, and family.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bechtoldt on the birth of their baby daughter, June 15, in Klamath Falls. The Bechtoldts also have two boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Maxwell and Dolores, Geraldine Dyer, and Carl Prough left Thursday for a trip to Washington to visit friends and relatives.

Edith Gift, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gift, is in Hillside hospital. She is suffering from three broken ribs, a broken collar bone and a broken nose received when a tractor overturned with her late Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Rupert spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Novotny.

Lila Jean Driscoll is enjoying a vacation trip to San Francisco to visit relatives and friends.

Helen Gowan of Klamath Falls spent the week-end at Bonanza with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gowen.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Norlin and son of Salem spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple and sons.

Cascade

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Benson and children are spending their vacation with Mrs. Benson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Layoy. The Bensons now reside in Halsey but are former Cascade Summit residents.

A shower was held for Mrs. Elvin Forbis last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. L. Porter. Those present were Mrs. Gene Layoy, Mrs. Mike Lee, Mrs. Elmer Adkison, Mrs. Annette Hopps, Mrs. James Poag and children, the honor guest, Mrs. Forbis, and the hostess.

Floyd Shanbeck of Cruzatte was a Cascade Summit visitor last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Bode and daughter, Joan, spent two days at Odell lake fishing. The Bodes are former Cascade Summit residents. They have for the past 12 years resided in King City where they operated a restaurant. Mrs. Bode is a sister of Roy Temple. They have sold their restaurant and will make an extended trip, going into Canada and as far as Montana and Wyoming. They expect to go into the meat market business when they return to King City.

Roland L. Porter Jr. is spending a week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Porter. He will return to Seattle where he is a student at University of Washington and enroll for the summer term next week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Moody have been spending each week-end at their summer home on the south side of Odell lake.

Capt. and Mrs. T. Carman are occupying their summer home. Capt. Carman is a former captain of the Los Angeles police department.

WHY WE SAY

This common flower was originally named "Day Eyes" because it folds closed at night and reopens each morning. The original "Day Eyes" was slurred into daisy.

day in Madras. Those making the trip were Roy Gleager and LeRoy Jr., Gerry, Henry and Jack Wolf.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mathis were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dare and daughter of Berkeley, Calif.

A former resident, Bert Larkey, has been visiting in Chiloquin from San Francisco.
