

Ewell Blackwell Pitches No-Hitter Over Braves

Cincinnati Side-Arm Thrower Established As No. 1 Hurler In National League; St. Louis Redbirds Win 7th Straight

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ewell Blackwell's no-hitter against the Boston Braves last night was the first by a pitcher in the National League since 1912. Blackwell, 33, pitched a complete game, allowing no hits, no runs and no errors. The Cincinnati Reds won 5-0. Blackwell's no-hitter was the 10th in his career, the last eight having been racked up in succession. He is the only pitcher in the majors to have defeated every other club in the league at least once. The no-hit, no-run job against the Braves 6-0 was his third shutout of the season.

BEVY OF CHAMPIONS AT POST FOR NCAA RACES

SALT LAKE CITY, June 19 (AP)—There will be an eye-catching array of defending champions on deck in the finals of the National Collegiate Athletic association track and field meet Saturday night—if they get safely past tomorrow night's preliminaries. Champions from the 1946 meet came here to defend their titles in 11 of the 14 NCAA events. The big show, featuring dozens of college boys yearning for places on the U. S. Olympic team next year, will get rolling each night at 7:30, mountain standard time, in the University of Utah stadium. Only in the broad jump, two mile race and the high jump are cham-ionships vacant. Seventy-nine colleges have dispatched 310 athletes to the 4365-foot altitude to Salt Lake City. More than a third of them will be closed out in the preliminaries. Illinois' Big Ten kingspins are defending their team title with only nine competitors, headed by Herb McKenzie, a doubles winner of last year with triumphs in the 220 and 440. Southern California brought a 22 Trojan in an effort to get back on top in this meet. USC won nine years in a row, ending in 1943 after which Illinois, then Navy and Illinois again took charge.

Tag Match Is Main Go

Main-attraction tonight at the armory will be four of the rascals' tag team affair with a time limit of one hour. The toughs of the fight will be Herb Parks and Stocky Kneibler, a pair of sluggers, against Pierre LaBelle and Jack Kiser. Kneibler, in addition to being what the movies would call a "heavy," is something of a comedian in the ring and possesses a wonderful left hook. Kiser and LaBelle are cleaner fighters and both very capable. Opening the card, at 8:30, will be Buck Weaver and Buck Davidson, hooking up for their first fight over the five round route.

Stanley Next Opponent For Ginger Snapp

Lincoln Stanley, colored middleweight from San Francisco, has been signed as the next local opponent for Jack (Ginger) Snapp. The fight will be a 10 round main event in the armory next Tuesday, June 24. Snapp, who has been tramping all over the middleweight division in the Northwest, tied another scalp to his belt last Tuesday night in Seattle, chilling Eddie Halligan in the sixth round. In that fight Snapp clearly displayed mastery over Halligan, knocking him down four times before the final push. Lincoln Stanley has been fighting on the Pacific slope, mostly around the Bay area, for several years and has had his ups and downs although rated as a good tough puncher. This bout will be his first in Klamath Falls. Stanley's contract, owned by the Harry Fine stable in San Francisco. Tickets for the Tuesday card went on sale at Matt Finnigan's sporting goods store yesterday.

Festive Plans For Regatta

SEATTLE, June 19 (AP)—Pretty girls, a band, a parade and other trimmings are planned for next Wednesday, when the dozen college crews arrive for the second annual Lake Washington regatta. Automobiles for the parade are being provided by local alumni of the schools entered—California, Columbia, Cornell, Harvard, MIT, Pennsylvania, Princeton, Syracuse, UCLA, and Yale. The Washington regatta is the 12th entry. The dozen boats—more than the entry list at Puget Sound—this week—will clash over the 2000 meter distance June 28.

Harvard Shell Out-Runs Yale

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 19 (AP) Having settled their private scrap with Harvard the victor as expected, the Crimson and Yale crews prepared today to head for Seattle, Wash., and the Lake Washington regatta, June 28. Harvard's eastern sprint champs looked impressive beating Yale by two lengths in a four-mile grind late yesterday. It was the 82nd meeting of these traditional foes in America's longest intercollegiate sports rivalry and the Crimson's ninth in a row over the Elis.

Tulelake Summer Sports Now In Full Operation

TULELAKE, June 19 (AP)—William Proctor, Berkeley, instructor for the community summer recreation program, which is already under way, will arrive Friday to take over his duties which will continue until the last of August. Ross Raglund, chairman of the program, stated Wednesday that response to the program was far more enthusiastic than had been anticipated and the committee now has $225 on hand to get the project off to an excellent start. Busloads of prospective swimmers are being taken to Klamath Falls daily to learn the business of handling themselves in the water. Ages are alternated and each child will get 10 hours' instruction a month. The swim program was organized by Mrs. R. M. Prior and swimming lessons are under the direction of Dorothy Thomas, an instructor last summer at a girls' camp at Lake of the Woods, and Frances Frey. Both young women are accomplished swimmers and both are university students. Fifty teen-agers learned to tango at the first teen-age dance held in the high school gymnasium last Thursday night under the direction

Coast Loop Ceiling In Knot Again

By The Associated Press
The top rung on the Pacific Coast league ladder was a little crowded today. Oakland, San Francisco and Los Angeles were all roasting there, separated by only three percentage points. The tussle difference looked like this: Oakland .553; San Francisco .551; Los Angeles .550. The rest of the league was 4 1/2 to 10 1/2 games down the line. Portland took away Oakland's full-game lead, 15-2, last night. The Beavers got 18 hits off four Oakland pitchers and moved themselves into the first division, a half game ahead of Sacramento. Portland drummed out six consecutive hits in their six-run seventh inning, clustered five tallies in the sixth, including George Vico's bases-loaded homer, and enjoyed four-hit pitching by their righthander, Vic Raschi. San Francisco's pitcher, Bob Chesnes, had a big night as the Seals thumped Sacramento, 8-1. He boomed out two home runs over the right field fence, something that hasn't been done by one man in one game at Sacramento in more than 20 years. He also held the Solons to six hits and struck out eight. The Seals got 15 hits. Los Angeles got off to a five-run lead in a second inning by way of Bill Schuster's homer with the bases jammed and had a pleasant evening in the rear of the stadium by beating San Diego, 9-2. The Angels clustered four runs in the seventh, including Larry Barton's homer with one aboard. Red Lynn pitched his seventh victory. The Hollywood Stars blasted Seattle, 8-5, the loudest explosions being set off by first baseman Tony Lupien with two doubles, a triple and a homer. The Seattle first sacker, Hollywood's Alton, also got four-for-four, two doubles and two singles.

Tutored By Klamath Gun Club

The boys did their first shooting at the ages of 8 and 9 down at Dorris in 1939. Along in the early war years they became more and more interested in trap shooting and were coached by Tom Waters, Cliff Dunn, Marshall Cornett, Jack and Charlie Martin and others of the Klamath Gun Club. During the period when shells were hard to get they didn't get in much shooting, but in 1945 Ralph Jenkins, a national figure in traps, was out here, saw Merv and Jim shoot and predicted coming champions. Since that time red-headed Merv and black-headed Jim have become just that, and have a room full of trophies to prove it.

Smith Gives Trailer For Jaunt

Just the other day at Medford Jim fired a 29x100 to win the Mendocino trophy and the Mail Tribune plaque, and E. E. Smith, a Portland sportsman, liked their gun handling. He volunteered to set the boys up with a trailer and other equipment if they wanted to go to Vandalla. So, right after they shoot in the PITA grand at Yakima July 24-27, they and their father will load up their trailer and head east. Expense money for the trip is being donated by several local shooters and others. They'll travel to Boise, Salt Lake City, Casper, Cheyenne, Denver, Omaha, Des Moines, St. Louis, on through Wisconsin, Minnesota and finally to Vandalla, taking part in any trap shoots they happen to locate on the way.

Goodwill Gesture Thrown In

Since the Gleason boys started planning the trip, several chambers of commerce here in Oregon have decided that the jaunt is a natural as a means of state and locality advertising, so the trailer will carry a good many packages of Oregon products and goods will items will be passed out along the way. Jim and Merv may or may not win any prizes back at Vandalla, but trapshooters all over the Northwest are certain that these boys can crack clay pigeons with anyone their age in the country.

Dozer Leading PGA Qualifiers

DETROIT, June 19 (AP)—Clement Dozer, stocky little Hartdale, N. C., par buster who has been a professional golfer for more than half his 38 years, led a star-spangled field into the final 18-hole qualifying round of the national PGA championship today. With a ringing first-round 34-33-67, five under par, he headed the parade of 133 pros. Claude Harmon and Jimmy Demare were one stroke back. With sixty-two of the first round scores no worse than 74, the Green-side contingent predicted it would take a 36-hole count of 148 or better to reach match play starting Friday. The championship bracket consists of the 63 low qualifiers and defending champion Ben Hogan, who is in automatically. Dozer and Mrs. Lynn Keller. New additions to the financial "kitty" have been donated. Seigler's giving $25, the Tulelake post, American Legion, $100, and the Associated Taverns $50.

Trip To Vandalla, O., National Trapshoot Planned For Gleasons

A seven-week trip during which they will carry the Oregon banner all the way back to the Grand American handicap trap shoot in Vandalla, O., is being planned for Merv and Jim Gleason, the two Southern Oregon youngsters who have been doing some terrific gun handling in shoots all over the Northwest. The Vandalla affair, which is the Kentucky Derby of the scatter gun sport, comes off August 18-23, and around 4000 of the nation's best shotgun men will take part in the firing. Jim, aged 15, and Merv, 17, will shoot with the juniors and in the "champion of champions" parade with the various state titlists. The lads now live and operate out of Central Point, but they lived in Klamath Falls up until last summer. A tremendous interest in them and their future is being taken by members of the Klamath Gun club and individual sportsmen of Oregon.

Bat Rampage Whips Moose

Last night's softball program saw the Four Star Merchants hold themselves to the top of the league standings, where they are tied with VPW, by virtue of their 21-0 shut-out of the Moose team. At the other end of Modoc practice field, Ashley's noosed out the Knights of Columbus, 6-4.

The Merchants got an early start when Roy Harris teed off on a low pitch and slugged out a left field fly which was good for a home run. Virgil Horn brought in the second run for the Merchants after a double in the second inning. Everett Buck, Four Star windmill batter, downed every Moose batter who faced him for two innings, and then Ziebler singled in the third inning for the first Moose hit of the tilt. The Merchants scored eight times in the third inning and Roy Harris poked out his second homer. Then, in the fourth inning, the Merchants garnered 11 runs to raise their total to 19 runs while the Moose had yet to make their first score. The game was called in the fifth inning with the score at 21-0. A third base error which allowed two runs in the fourth inning cost the Knights their game. Hurrier Chet Ashby allowed the Moose only five hits and Louie Toucher gave up seven hits to the Ashley team.
