An unusual, but appropriate gift was that presented to the Marian Bosworths by the League of Women Voters. The farewell remembrance was a subscription to the United Nations magazine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Tingley and daughter, Jane, of 1015 Pacific Terrace, left last Sunday for an extended vacation trip cross country to Wisconsin. They planned to drive by way of Salt Lake, Omaha, and then to Shawano, Wisconsin, where they will visit relatives and friends. For the return trip, the Tingleys will go wherever their interests dictate, planning to be back home in three or four weeks.

Joy Evans Ralph of The Herald and News staff left by plane Sunday for Portland where she took the train en route to Chicago where she will spend the next three weeks. Mrs. Ralph is registered at the Sherman in Chicago. She plans to return to Klamath Falls over the northern route through Canada.

Sanford Timothy is the name chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Rose for their son and first child born Tuesday at Klamath Valley hospital. Mrs. Rose is the former Rita Mathers of this city.

THE FIRST METHODIST church was the scene of the wedding of Marian Matthews and Lloyd J. Hafar. The ceremony took place Thursday, June 5, at 8 o'clock.

June Bride

Marian Matthews became the bride of Lloyd J. Hafar in a ceremony performed at the First Methodist church, Thursday, June 5, at 8 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Matthews and Carl D. Matthews and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Hafar.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Victor Phillips. Mrs. Jack O'Connor was organist and Jerry Fields, the soloist. The bride wore a white satin gown with a train and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown headdress. She carried a bridal bouquet of red roses. Ruth Matthews of San Francisco, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. She wore a light blue gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her headdress was of pink and white carnations.

Best man was Bill L. Matthews, the bride's brother. Ralph Hafar and Phillip Heath ushered. Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlors. Pouring and serving were Mrs. Dorothy Suber, Miss Matthews, and Cleo Lampropoulos. Nancy Elliott and Mrs. Ted Coker passed the guest book. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hafar of Waterloo, Ia. The couple is now residing at the Lincoln apartments, 323 E. Main.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marin of 245 Henry street announce the engagement of their daughter, Marian, to Lewis Hamblin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Hamblin of 148 E. Main. No date has yet been set for the nuptials.

Shower

Mrs. Rauberta Jorde, now of Stockton, Calif., was honored recently with a stork shower at the home of Mrs. Betty Mae Padgett, 2010 Worden. Mrs. Padgett and Mrs. Peter Newman were co-hostesses. Nuptials Read At Sacred Heart

In a ceremony read at 1 o'clock, Sunday, June 1, at Sacred Heart Catholic church, Dorothy Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Clark, of Corning, Calif., became the bride of Floyd Ewing, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Ewing. The Rev. Father Timothy P. Casey read the ceremony. "Ave Maria" was sung preceding the rites, and Sister M. Faustina played the traditional wedding marches.

For the nuptials, the bride wore a gown of white marquisette, fashioned with a fitted bodice, long, full sleeves, fitted at the wrist, and a long court train. Her veil of illusion net was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls and orange blossoms.

She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and gardenias. Matron of honor was Mrs. Donald Hancock, who wore a gown of blue net. Mrs. Neubert Built was the bride's only other attendant. She was attired in a gown of white. Both attendants carried Colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations and blue forget-me-nots.

Best man was Carl Ewing, brother of the bridegroom, and ushering was John W. Clark, brother of the bride. A reception was held following the ceremony. Bouquets of spring blooms and tapers decorated the bride's table, which was centered with a pretty white wedding cake. After the bride and groom cut the traditional first slice, Mrs. J. W. Thompson and Mrs. Vic Douglas served the confection.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Ewing left for a two-week wedding trip which took them to Lake Tahoe. For traveling, Mrs. Ewing selected an afternoon frock of pink, with black and white accessories. They are at home in Klamath Falls at 835 Eldorado.

Sunday Rites Read At First Covenant

The wedding of Eva Rae Jacobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Jacobson of 1815 Portland, to Edwin H. Briscoe of Greeley, Colorado, was an event of Sunday afternoon, June 15, at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Selmar Jacobson read the ceremony at the First Covenant church.

Pinks and white gladioli formed the setting for the rites, with many tapers in candelabra lighting the church. Mrs. Lane Warren sang "I Love Thee," by Greig, and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Mark Johnson, who played traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown of traditional white bridal satin with a Peter Pan collar, dainty buttoned bodice, and long fitted sleeves, pinned at the wrist. Her full length veil was borrowed from Mrs. Lane Warren. It was brought from Sweden by Mr. Jacobson, father of the bride, several years ago. Holding it in place was a beautiful gold crown, given by Sweden to the Grand lodge, Order of Vasa, in New York, to be worn by children of members in this country. Her arm bouquet was of calla lilies tied in a bow of white satin ribbon.

Marcia Jacobson, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a white crepe gown, trimmed in orchid, and carried a spray of lavender carnations. Joyce Briscoe, Josephine Desmond, Nell Lindbergh, and Inga Johnson were bridesmaids. Mrs. Briscoe and Miss Desmond wore aqua gowns, and Miss Lindbergh and Miss Johnson were attired in gowns of pink. All wore Juliet caps of white, and carried white muffs with pastel sweet peas.

Nancy Warren was the little flower girl. Her gown was of white dotted swiss trimmed with gold. She carried a white basket of rose petals. The bride's mother, Mrs. Jacobson, chose an afternoon dress of beige with pink accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of pink roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Edwin L. Briscoe, wore a dress of powder blue with matching accessories. Pinned at the shoulder was a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Hulda Jorgenson was hostess, attired in a gown of green with pink accessories. Harold Briscoe, brother of the groom, was best man, and ushers were Per Olaf Hedberg, Ralph A. Warren, Lane Warren and Martin Strid.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. Bouquets of red roses decorated the rooms. Serving was Mrs. Swan Erickson, and presiding at the coffee service was Mrs. Ludwig Peterson. Assisting were Rose and Eda Laasagna, June Selstrom, Mrs. John Berg and Mrs. Carl Carlson. Donna May Peterson had charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Briscoe, mother of the groom, of Greeley, Colorado; Josephine Desmond of Boston, Massachusetts; Eva Rae Peterson of Ogema, Wisconsin; Donna May Peterson of Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin; Mr. and Mrs. Arvid West and Mrs. Hulda Jorgenson of Portland, Mrs. Earl Jacobson and her sons, Kenny and Kent, Mrs. Hilder Haglund and son, Carl, all of Oakland,

Plans Formed

An artistic arrangement of Iceland poppies, varying in shades of pale yellow to deep orange, graced the home of Mrs. Betson Dixon of Bonanza, on Friday afternoon, June 15, when she entertained the Bonanza-Langell Valley Garden club.

Mrs. George Ferland had charge of the program and gave a very interesting talk on vegetable gardens. Luncheon was served to 14 members. Mrs. Irene Bejndahl, pioneer club member, was the only guest. Tentative plans are being made to hold a silver tea at the Bonanza library, Friday afternoon, June 27. Members of the club are requested to bring one or more arrangements of flowers, which will be the subject of a round table discussion. The public is cordially invited to attend.

New Director

Virginia C. Denton of Hayfield, Minn., will be the new Camp Fire Girl executive director in this area. Miss Denton will arrive here in September to replace Mrs. Joe Leonard, present director.

For the past year Miss Denton has been a caseworker for a county welfare board, stationed in St. Paul, Minn. She is experienced in Camp Fire and served as camp counselor at Camp Namanu, just out of Portland. She is a graduate of McAllister college, class of 1940.

NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR of Camp Fire Girls here will be Virginia C. Denton, of Hayfield, Minn., who will assume duties in Klamath Falls in September.

California, and Mrs. Ludwig Peterson of Prineville.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Briscoe left soon after the wedding on a two week trip to Mexico. For traveling the bride wore a suit of blue with navy accessories. Pinned at the lapel of her suit was an orchid.
