Di Maggio Big Stick For Oaks

Los Angeles Sails Into Top Spot With Padre Win

By BILL BECKER
Associated Press Sportswriter

Vince, the eldest of the fly-chasing DiMaggios, is on the fence-busting beam again and almost single-handedly keeping the Oakland Acorns in the thick of the hectic Coast league chase.

DiMaggio clouted a three-run homer last night—his sixth circuit smash in the last nine games—to give the Oaks a 5-3 victory over Portland. It enabled the Oaks to move into second place, one point ahead of San Francisco and one game behind the new leader—what again?—Los Angeles.

The Angels sailed into the lead on the very good left arm of Ace Pitcher Cliff Chambers who set San Diego's slipping Padres down with four hits in notching a 3-1 decision. It was Chambers' 11th win against four defeats.

Sacramento clipped San Francisco, 9-4, toppling the Seals from first to third, and Seattle shut out Hollywood for the second straight time, 10-0.

In all, DiMaggio batted in four of the Oaks' five runs to run his RBI total to 38, which is considerably better than par for his total of 38 hits. His home run, No. 11 of the season, traveled 370 feet into right center.

Once the whiffing king of the major leagues, the oldest DiMag—after a moderate start—appears en route to coast slugging honors. Only Max West, San Diego, and Ed Bauer, Los Angeles, 13 each, and Lou Novikoff, Seattle, 12, top him in fourmasters.

Kewpie Dick Barrett, Seattle's veteran righthander, blanked Hollywood with six hits. The Rainiers clouted Starter Xavier Rescigno for six runs, then added four more off Ed Albosta in the eighth. Hillis Layne drove in four tallies.

A three-run splurge in the third inning sewed up the Angels' victory—their fourth straight over the Padres. Larry Barton's homer and Tuck Stainback's triple featured. Swede Jensen's boundary belt deprived Chambers of a shutout. The big lefty fanned eight, in shading Al Olsen.

Sacramento's steady stopper, Tiny Tony Freitas, checked the slugging Seals for the first time in their current series, while his Solon mates slammed three chuckers for 18 hits. Starter Jack Brewer was the loser. Bill Ramsey's homer and Joe Marty's two triples led the assault. Freitas scattered eight blows, whiffed seven men.

Soft League In Another Sked Switch

Already 12 games behind schedule because of bad weather, the City Softball league has called off a couple of more tilts which were slated for Sunday afternoon and League President Frank Drew is planning drastic measures to get the league back even with the board again, starting Monday.

The Sunday tilts are called off because of the conflict in dates with the Junior chamber of commerce boat regatta on Upper Klamath lake.

Starting Monday night, Drew said, Modoc field will be turned into two diamonds, one at each end of the field, and two games will go on simultaneously. That will make four games per night under the lights.

In that way, Drew figures, the league can catch up with the schedule in two weeks, providing the weather doesn't interfere again.

The league will play just three nights a week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, with no games on Sunday.

So Monday night two regular games, Merchants vs. VFW, and Knights of Columbus vs. Reclamation service, are on tap, plus pickup of a couple of postponed games, the opponents to be announced later.

Fishermen Protest Cutter Disposal

ASTORIA, Ore., June 21 (AP)—The scheduled decommissioning of the coast guard cutter Onondaga at Seattle next Monday was under protest of tuna fishermen today.

They said the cutter's retirement would leave the fishing fleet at the mercy of storms in the coming tuna season. Pilots asserted two smaller cutters, the 125-foot Nemaha and Bonham, were not adapted for rescues in the rough water off the Columbia river. The Nemaha also is scheduled to be laid up for repairs soon.

They were told, however, by Commodore J. E. Stika, commander of the 13th coast guard district, Seattle, that a better vessel would replace the Onondaga soon.

Farmers Hopeful Of Car Supply

PORTLAND, June 21 (AP)—Pacific Northwest wheat farmers faced the coming harvest season today with increased hopes that no boxcar shortage would develop.

Spokesmen for all rail lines in the area said there was no shortage of boxcars now, and added that a large number of additional boxcars were arriving from the Mid-West with corn cargo.

Klamath Sons Take On Weed In Sunday Tilt

Bly Is Opponent For Juniors Here

Currently leading the Northern California baseball parade, the Klamath Sons take on an old diamond enemy Sunday afternoon. The Weed Sons, last year's No-Cal champs, will form the opposition for the Klamath boys on the Weed diamond.

The Weed team, although not doing so well this year, has gone into baseball in a big way, completely rebuilding its park and stadium at a cost of several thousands of dollars. When the field is grassed down, the Weed park will be the best in the Northern California league.

Floyd Shotwell, righthanded tosser, probably will be Manager Mel Carpenter's choice to start on the mound for the Sons, and the lineup may be strengthened by the return of Jim Bocchi, University of Oregon student and former KUHS star athlete.

Here at home, the Sons' junior team, has slated a tilt with Bly, the first home game for the juniors in Interstate league play. The game will be played at Recreation park at 2 p. m. Sunday.

Heretofore the Juniors have beaten Canby and lost to Alturas. The lineup will include Jay Quigley, Bill Sarl, Tommy Edwards, Dick Vallencour, Bob Redkey, Virgil Horn and a number of other young baseball players.

The Bly nine will have the services of Fred Gay, former Coast leaguer and later a star with the Klamath naval air station nine. Gay, now working at Bly, is expected to do the hurling for Bly against the Juniors.

Track Carnival Opens Tonight

SALT LAKE CITY, June 21 (AP)—College boys who hope to visit London next year as Uncle Sam's representatives in the Olympic games go chasing after titles tonight in the NCAA track and field carnival after turning last night's preliminaries into a fine show despite miserable weather.

Harrison Dillard, defending champion in both hurdle races from Baldwin-Wallace, floated over the high barriers in a stunning 13.9 seconds, tying the NCAA record that Ed Dugger of Tufts set seven years ago.

Mel Patton, Southern California's willowy six-footer, once again tied the world's record of 9.4 seconds in the 100-yard dash, but it won't get recognition. Behind him blew a 4.1-mile tailwind, 1.1 miles over the allowable maximum.

Lithe Herb McKenley of Illinois' defending team champions, making dead sure he will be around tonight to fight for the 220-yard and 440-yard dash titles he won a year ago, stepped his quarter-mile heat in 46.6 seconds, fully 15 yards ahead of the field. This was announced as, unofficially, at least, the fastest 440 ever run around two curves.

Ginger Admits Halligan Gave Him Rough Night In Their Seattle Bout

Back from his Seattle jaunt and getting ready for the coming fracas with Lincoln Stanley, Jack (Ginger) Snapp concedes that he had a rough time with Eddie Halligan the other night. He chilled Halligan in the sixth round—Eddie was inquiring in the dressing room later on how the fight came out—but all the same had a lively evening.

Halligan liked to throw leather at the midriff and Snapp still has the bruises around his waistline. He also got a cut in the corner of his mouth, but its healed okay. Jack said the fight rocked along without great incident until the fourth round.

In that canto Halligan decided to slug. He pulled his arms out wide and Snapp stepped in with his short punches for the beginning of the end. Moral: When fighting Snapp, keep your hands in front of your face.

Feminine Fans Demand Autographs

The ladies up at Seattle fell for Ginger in a big way, had him stammering and blushing and writing his autograph on fight programs after the battle. He passed out about as many autographs as did Louis that night.

Louis, incidentally, looked like a real champ in his Seattle mix, particularly during the two rounds he swapped punches with Bill Peterson. Roy Drake, Snapp's manager, said that the Bomber had a slight roll of fat around his middle, but it could be sweated off in a couple of stiff workouts. He weighed in at 212.

• • •

Stanley Accorded Good Punch

Linc Stanley, the San Francisco colored boy who will fight Ginger here in the armory Tuesday, is a worrisome boxer and fair slugger, according to Drake. He's had a lot of fights in the middleweight bracket, winning a lot and losing a few. Fritzie Zivic beat him, but not badly.

Snapp will work out daily just to keep in shape until the fight Tuesday, but that business of keeping in training is second nature to him now and not something that must be poured on before every fight.

He's battling regularly enough now to where going to the gym for him is just like going to the office for us folks.

Snapp has a fight date in Portland for the Damon Runyan Cancer Fund on July 1, then will go back to Seattle for his next exercise. Fight writers in the latter city are already comparing him with their beloved Al Hostak, and Ginger may get a bout with Hostak within a couple of months.

• • •

Eddie Lee Next Foe For Snapp

Eddie Lee, a New York boy recently coming to the Pacific slope, probably will be Snapp's foe in the Portland show. Lee's principal claim to fame is that he went six rounds with Rocky Graziano before losing to the Rock.

Portland Promoter Tex Salkeld also has signed Joey Clemo and Roy Hawkins to appear on the July 1 fight card, but hasn't announced their opponents. Hawkins, a big favorite down here, won his last four fights by knockouts and is regaining some of the prestige he had rubbed off in two fights with George Millich.

Cards Step Up Winning Streak With Eighth Win

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

"Whitewasher" Walter Masterson, who hasn't been scored upon in his last 34 innings, threatens to win as many games this season as he did all told in his previous five and a fraction years in the big time.

The tall, bespectacled righthander, won only 20 in nearly six seasons with Washington. Last night he notched his sixth triumph against three defeats, shutting out the St. Louis Browns 3-0.

Masterson's 34 consecutive scoreless innings tops the previous high of 31 strung together by Frank Papish of the White Sox. Cleveland's Bob Feller had 29 earlier this year.

The world champion St. Louis Cardinals continued their rush for the top of the National league standings by winning their eighth straight 7-3 against the New York Giants. Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, the Redbirds' number one hurler, gained his ninth victory as he became the first St. Louis hurler to defeat the Giants this season. The Cards had lost six straight to the New Yorkers.

The onrushing Redbirds now are in fifth place, but only three and a half games away from the front running Boston Braves who lost to the Chicago Cubs 6-5 in an afternoon game.

The New York Yankees went back into first place in the American league by defeating the slumping Detroit Tigers 5-3 while the Boston Red Sox were losing to the Cleveland Indians 3-2. Rookie rightander Frank Shea of the Yankees continued his mastery over the Bengals and Ace Southpaw Hal Newhouser with a four-hit effort.

The Red Sox fell a half game behind the Yankees as Tex Hughson lost a tough decision to Cleveland's Allen Gettel. Jim Hegan, Gettel's batterymate, for whom fans of his home city of Lynn, Mass., put on a "night" drove in all the Indians' runs with a second inning home run and a ninth inning single. It marked the end of Boston's eight-game winning streak.

Ernie Bonham, former 20-game winner for the New York Yankees, hurled a 6-0 shutout against the Philadelphia Phils in his first starting assignment for the pirates in a night game at Pittsburgh.

The scheduled night game between the Chicago White Sox and Athletics in Philadelphia was postponed by rain. Brooklyn and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

PGA Proves Tough Tilt

DETROIT, June 21 (AP)—The 29th National PGA golf championship hit the third round and 36-hole match play today but few of the pre-tournament favorites were around to appreciate it.

With the heaviest casualty list in history marking the first two 18-hole match rounds, most of the front-ranking name stars were already looking on from the sidelines as play went into the fourth day over the treacherous 6922-yard Plum Hollow Golf club layout.

Knocked out in the opening round were such aces as Ben Hogan, defending champion; Jimmy Demaret, medalist and leading tournament money winner of the year; Bobby Locke, the knickered South African tourist, and two other ex-PGA champs, Johnny Revolta and Bob Hamilton.

Sam Snead, 1942 PGA champion and runnerup last week in the National Open, wasn't long in joining them as 45-year-old Gene Sarazen kayoed him, 2 and 1, on the second lap after Snead had squeezed past hardhitting Jimmy Thomson in his first match, 2-up.

Sarazen's third round opponent was 39-year-old Ky Laffoon, the Chicago veteran who ousted one of the giant-killers in the second round, kayoing Toney Penna of Cincinnati whose eight birdies in 17 holes was enough to drop Hogan in his first match, 3 and 1.

Another star-wrecker, Texas-born Henry Ransom, now of Ravinia, Ill., couldn't hold up after throwing the bombshell that eliminated Locke, 1-up, and he bowed to 39-year-old Dick Metz of Chicago in the afternoon.

Earl Martin of Inglewood, Calif., administered the knockout drops to Demaret, a former Plum Hollow pro who put together a 68 and 69 for medalist honors. But promptly after swatting Demaret, Martin bowed out as Vic Ghezzi's second 6 and 5 victim of the day.

Olson Wins Match

HONOLULU, June 21 (AP)—Carl (Bobo) Olson, 157¾, Honolulu, won a ten-round decision over Paul Lewis, 159¼, Oakland, Calif., in a bruising bout here last night.

Lewis, brother of former lightheavyweight king John Henry Lewis, absorbed everything the hard-punching Olson threw. But he could not match the power of the 18-year-old Swede, regarded as one of the best fighter prospects Hawaii has seen in a long time.

POUGHKEEPSIE REGATTA SET

Eleven Crews Join Battle

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 21 (AP)—The costliest, the most unquestionably amateur and one of the gaudiest of sports spectacles comes back to the American scene tonight after a six-year absence with resumption of the 45th Poughkeepsie regatta.

Eleven superbly conditioned varsity crews, representing the best there is with the exception of Yale and Harvard, are ready to row their hearts out for three miles down the Hudson, starting at 3:15 p. m. (PST).

Gliding along at 12 miles an hour, with approximately 32 strokes to the minute, they will finish a half mile below the mid-Hudson bridge.

Washington, winner in 1941, is one of five favorites which include Cornell, Princeton, California and Navy. Since 1932 only Navy, winning in 1938, has broken the western monopoly.

The remaining six in the big race, a record entry list two above the previous high, are Rutgers, Syracuse, Wisconsin, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Columbia, and Pennsylvania.

Chief of Police George P. Leadbitter said he believed the crowd would again equal the pre-war estimates of 100,000.

It will be sprawled up and down the banks on either side, perched on the decks of scores of yachts, clinging to bridges and docks. There is no observation train this year.

Preceding the varsity race come the junior varsity, also at three miles, and the freshmen at two miles. In all, 29 crews are entered.

On Sunday one crew from each college, except Navy and Rutgers, will board a special train in New York to go to Seattle, there to compete on Lake Washington in the 2000 meter Olympic distance race June 28. Yale and Harvard will also go along.

Crew coaches, by nature a reserved lot, agree only that a tight race is in prospect. "It looks like a blanket finish," said Norm Sonju of Wisconsin. "If it's good conditions tonight we won't be too far behind," added Jim McMillin of MIT. "My crew is better now than when California beat it," said Washington's Al Ulbrickson.

The course of the race is down the west bank. Rutgers has the inside lane, California 2, Syracuse 3, Wisconsin 4, MIT 5, Pennsylvania 6, Washington 7, Cornell 8, Columbia 9, Navy 10, and Princeton 11.

Norway Gets Olympics Nod

STOCKHOLM, June 21 (AP)—Avery Brundage, head of the American delegation to the International Olympic committee meeting here, announced today that the committee had selected Helsinki, Finland, and Oslo, Norway, as the sites for the 1952 Olympic games.

The selection was made at a closed meeting of the committee this morning, Brundage said.

Brundage commented:

"In view of the fact that Helsinki was given the Olympics in 1940 and prepared for them, it is not unusual, to expect they would have a favorable reception of their renewed bid.

"The United States cannot expect to have the Olympics too often. Oslo has bid for the winter Olympics more than 10 years and it is natural that the winter games be held there, with the summer games at Helsinki."
