

But Not Quite . . . Cincy Pitcher Almost Duplicates No-Hitter

By The Associated Press
Ewell Blackwell, the lanky Cincinnati side-arm mound artist, although somewhat disappointed over his hairline failure to duplicate Johnny Vander Meer's record of pitching two consecutive no-hitters, enjoyed the distinction today of being the major league's "winningest" pitcher.

Blackwell followed his hitless and runless masterpiece of June 18 against the Boston Braves with another brilliant pitching performance against the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday.

He came within two putouts of registering his second straight no-run no-hit game as he retired the Dodgers in the first eight innings without a safety. He got rid of the first man to face him in the ninth to extend his consecutive hitless and scoreless string to 19 innings (the first of the Braves came with 12 1/3 hitless innings), but Eddie Stankey drove a sharp ground ball past his legs into center field for a clean hit to end the game.

Brooklyn Outfielder Carl Furillo whopped a home run with the bases full against righthander Eimer Riddle and hit two singles against righthanded pitchers to drive in seven runs and lead the Brooklyn to a 9-8 victory in the second game. The split dropped the Dodgers into third place four percentage points behind the second place New York Giants and one and a half games away from the National league leading Braves.

The Braves won an 11-inning game from the Chicago Cubs 8-7 when Dick Culler singled off Johnny Schmitz to drive in Phil Mast. It was a pair of round trippers by Boston's Frank McCormick and Bob Elliott with two out in the ninth which forced the game into overtime.

Lloyd Gearhart's 11th inning home run with Buddy Kerr on base gave the New York Giants a 7-5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, ending the Cardinals' winning streak at nine games.

Rookie Catcher Larry (Yogi) Berra highlighted a five-run first inning by hitting a home run with the bases loaded to lead the New York Yankees to a 6-5 victory over the Detroit Tigers, the Bengals' ninth straight defeat which dropped them into the second division for the first time this season.

The second place Red Sox and Cleveland Indians divided a doubleheader at Boston. The Indians taking the opener 8-2 behind the veteran Mel Harder and the defending American league champions winning the second game 6-3 in back of Rookie Harry Dorish.

The split left the Red Sox two full games behind the league leading Yankees and enabled the Indians to move into fourth place, a half game ahead of the Tigers.

Carl Scheib, the Philadelphia Athletics' 20-year-old righthander, won his third successive start and chalked up his second shutout by defeating the Chicago White Sox 3-0 in the second game of a doubleheader after the Sox had won the opener on an unearned run 1-0 in 10 innings.

The Washington Senators and St. Louis Browns split a doubleheader, the Senators eking out a 3-2 victory in the opener and the Browns slugging out a 9-6 win in the nightcap.

In a battle for last place in the National league, the Philadelphia Phillies outlasted the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-3 in 13 innings in the opener of a scheduled doubleheader. The nightcap, cancelled at the end of four innings by a Sunday 7 p.m. curfew, found the Phils leading 8-6.

Angels Pound Fences Hard Home Run Blasts Subdue San Diego

By The Associated Press
Wrigley field, the place they call home, is a heavenly hangout, the Los Angeles Angels claim. But if the San Diego Padres never see the joint again, it will still be too soon.

The league-leading Angels hit three bases-loaded homers yesterday in their native habitat to sink the Padres twice, 13-9 and 4-0, and sweep the entire series, seven games to zero.

The twin win moved Los Angeles two full games ahead of runner-up Oakland and three in front of third-place San Francisco, who divided with Portland and Sacramento.

The Oaks series-edged the Beavers, four games to three, by winning the finale, 3-1, after Portland won the opener, 6-3. San Francisco wound up with a similar margin over the Seals, taking the closer, 8-3, after losing, 7-6.

Seattle's yeasty Rainiers rose from the cellar to a seventh-place tie with San Diego by walloping Hollywood twice, 6-4, 3-2. It gave Seattle the series, 4-3.

The Angel barrage brought to 12 their roundup production for the Padre series, and gave them a total of 76 homers in 75 games.

Seattle's Lou Novkoff made it a three-way tie for homer honors with Angel Eddie Sauer and Padre Max West by smacking his 13th and 14th against the Stars. He drove in four runs in the first game, and his second circuit smash was the winning tally in the afterpiece, in which Tom Reis allowed the Stars only two hits.

Bill Ramsey's ninth inning over-the-fence brought Sacramento home ahead in the opener, but the Solons then bowed before the Seals' Bob Chesnes, racking up his 14th victory.

Roy Helser twirled Portland to their first game win, but the Oaks' Hugh Mulcahy and Damon Hayes combined to throttle the Beavers in the windup. Dario Lodigiani homered for the Acorns.

YMCA Slates Tilts

Tonight, in YMCA league play, the Latter Day Saints will meet the Zion Lutheran squad at the high school practice field in a league competition, and at Mills school the First Baptist B squad will take on the Stewart Lenox Baptist B's. Both games will begin at 6:00 sharp.

Last Frame Rally Gives Klamath Sons 4-3 Defeat

A tight-spot single with two gone in the last of the ninth yesterday afternoon gave the Weed Sons a 4 to 3 decision over the Klamath Sons in a Northern California league game at Weed. With the score 3-all, Ray Brown singled, was sacrificed to second and Elby Mazzoni drilled a single into right field to break up the game.

Krohn, new man on the Klamath mound staff, was the unfortunate pitcher. He had relieved Floyd Shotwell in the seventh with the score tied.

Weed had the advantage most of the afternoon, scoring once in the first inning and again in the fifth, principally on errors. The local squad got into the game in the seventh when Gordy LoSealzo singled and was forced at second on Floyd Shotwell's grounder. Shotwell reached first on an overthrow and tore into second base, hurting his knee on the slide.

Carlstrom was allowed to run for Shotwell and scored on Mario Pizzani's single.

In the last of the seventh Aldo Rosetta walked, was moved to second on a sacrifice and scored on Brown's single to right, making the score 3-1.

Top of the eighth, two out, Fran Miller singled, took second on a passed ball and scored when Clyde Carlstrom, batting for Jim Bobchil, lashed a triple to the left center wall. Carlstrom scored when Mazzoni booted LoSealzo's grounder.

That made the score even, 3-3, and set the stage for the last-ditch rally by the Weed basebalers.

Krohn was the loser. Jim Krizza went all the way for Weed.

Juniors Forced Overtime In Downing Tulelake, 7-6

By virtue of a four-run rally in the fourth inning and a last-inning right field double which developed into a home run by George Jones, the Klamath Junior Sons nooned out the Tulelake Homesteaders, 7-6, in an 11-inning game played at Recreation field yesterday afternoon.

Two doubles and a walk allowed by Jay Quigley, Klamath hurler, and an infield error in the first inning resulted in four Tulelake scores, but Quigley settled down and allowed just two more hits during the game.

Dale Perry, Junior shortstop, led off with a double in the first inning and later scored. The Sons went hitless until the fourth inning when a series of hits and errors brought four runs across. Then in the 11th inning, McVey scored to give the Homesteaders a one-run edge, but in the Klamath half of that inning, George Jones, second sacker, looped a short hit into right field, scoring Tommy Edwards, and then came home on an overthrow to third base. The play at home plate was very close, but the umpire ruled Jones safe, ending the tilt at 7-6.
