

Garden Wedding Is Read On Saturday

A lovely June bride in a beautiful garden wedding was Betty Marie Ottoman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ottoman of Malin, who exchanged vows with Richard G. Halousek of Malin, son of Mrs. Ella Halousek, in a ceremony read at 3 o'clock, Saturday, June 21.

The wedding took place in the garden of the lovely country home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rajnus, uncle and aunt of the bride.

The Rev. Glen A. Morton read the ceremony under a beautiful arch decorated with yellow and blue Snow Queen daisies.

As the guests assembled Mrs. Don Webster, of Tulelake sang the popular adaptation of "Our Love" from Peter Tschaikevsky's overture, "Home and Juliet," and Schubert's "Ave Maria." She was accompanied by Mrs. Laddie Rajnus. Mrs. Webster played the traditional wedding procession from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered the garden.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, James Ottoman. Her gown was of heavy white satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, high neckline, trimmed with a lace yoke insert and long, pointed sleeves. A full skirt ended in a full court train. She wore a coronet headpiece of white carnations and white rosebuds from which fell a long veil. Her bouquet was of white rosebuds.

Maid of honor was Betty Gant of Klamath Falls, who was gowned in long blue flowered organza, fashioned princess style, and wore a headpiece of white carnations. She carried a bouquet of the same flowers.

Bridesmaids were Pearl Ottoman and Jean Rajnus, sister and cousin of the bride, who wore long frocks of yellow dotted swiss with fitted bodices and bouffant skirts. Each carried a nosegay of Esther Reed daisies, marguerite daisies and yellow roses and wore matching yellow hats with pale blue streamers.

Best man was Vincent Zumr, and ushers were Billy Stonecypher and George Rajnus.

Mrs. James Ottoman, mother of the bride, chose an afternoon dress of pink print with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Halousek, mother of the groom, was attired in a gray print afternoon dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Halousek received with their parents after the wedding in the garden where they cut the three-tiered wedding cake, decorated in keeping with the garden style wedding. Mrs. Irene Moen served the cake. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Ivan Ottoman and Mrs. Laddie Rajnus, and at the punch bowls were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Halousek, Pearl Ottoman and Jean Rajnus. Patricia Benoit was in charge of the guest book.

For going away Mrs. Halousek chose a pink gabardine suit with brown accessories and wore an orchid corsage. The young couple left to honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, San Francisco and other points in the region.

Both bride and groom are from outstanding pioneer families in the Malin area, each attending Malin grade school and high school. The young couple plan to make their home in Malin.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Joseph Beck of Chicago, Mrs. Ella Halousek and Mrs. Irene Moen of Portland, Norman Ottoman of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. John Rajnus of Sacramento.

President

Members of the Klamath Toastmistress club gathered in the Pelican cafe Saturday evening, 7 o'clock, June 21, to greet Esther Campbell, international president of the Toastmistress club. Miss Campbell presented the local chapter with a charter and spoke at that time.

The tables were centered with low bowls of pantries and roses and decorations were under the direction of Mrs. Dean Osborne and Mrs. Ann Price. Mark Poll was in charge of the program.

Other activities for the week-end included a board of directors' meeting Saturday noon with a tour of the Marine Barracks and other spots of interest in the afternoon.

Before returning to Seattle Sunday afternoon, Miss Campbell was the houseguest of Lucile Tweed.

Officers of the Toastmistress club are Mrs. Paul Buck, president; Lorraine Quillen, secretary; Mrs. Emmett Chidester, vice president and Mrs. Price, treasurer.

Informal Tea

Mrs. Gordon McCracken and Mrs. Wyatt Padgett were hostesses last Tuesday at an informal tea given for the pleasure of Mrs. H. A. Chamberlain of Elma, Washington, who was visiting her daughter and son-in-law, the McCrackens, in Klamath Falls. Scene of the affair was the Padgett home on North Eleventh street.

Invited guests were Mrs. Dick Hicks, Mrs. William Sweet, Mrs. V. J. Goodwin, Mrs. John O'Neill, Mrs. Frank Hall, Mrs. Jack Wagner, Mrs. William Wasmann, Mrs. Robert McReynolds, Dorothy Riggs, Barbara Shultz of San Jose, California, Dale Motley, Jean Underwood, Nancy Bennett, Joy Kent, Maxine Liskey, Jean Ostendorf, June O'Brien, Mrs. L. L. Palmerton, Margie Palmerton, Maryellen Wright, and Mrs. S. B. Hopkins.

Shower

A red and white kitchen shower was held Tuesday evening in honor of Nadine Palmerton, who will wed Virgil Hanks, Sunday afternoon. Guests gathered at the home of Betty Hopkins, 625 North Eighth. Gifts were placed on a table centered with a red and white crepe paper umbrella and a miniature doll, dressed in white satin.

Invited guests were Mrs. Dick Hicks, Mrs. William Sweet, Mrs. V. J. Goodwin, Mrs. John O'Neill, Mrs. Frank Hall, Mrs. Jack Wagner, Mrs. William Wasmann, Mrs. Robert McReynolds, Dorothy Riggs, Barbara Shultz of San Jose, California, Dale Motley, Jean Underwood, Nancy Bennett, Joy Kent, Maxine Liskey, Jean Ostendorf, June O'Brien, Mrs. L. L. Palmerton, Margie Palmerton, Maryellen Wright, and Mrs. S. B. Hopkins.

Wed In South

The Presbyterian church of San Luis Obispo, Calif., was the scene of the wedding of Shirley Barlow to Robert Jones, son of Mrs. Laura Jones of San Luis Obispo.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Warren of 44 Fleischacker street, Klamath Falls.

The double ring ceremony took place Saturday, June 21, at 2:30 o'clock. Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Dorothy Barlow, and bridesmaid, Elinora Marika. Best man was Fred Gist, uncle of the groom.

The couple left after the wedding for Southern California on a short trip. They will make their home in San Luis Obispo.

Queen Honored

Rodeo Queen Ginger Thomas and her court were guests of the Willard hotel at a luncheon held Tuesday, June 24, at noon. The table was centered with red roses surrounded by tiny porcelain horses to carry out the rodeo motif. Pictures were taken prior to the luncheon and afterward the group left for a radio broadcast.

Escorted by Mrs. W. D. Miller and Mrs. Paul Bucky, the following girls were present, Queen Ginger Thomas of Port Klamath, Doris Porterfield of Dorris, Calif., Mary Catherine Hammond of Merrill, Barbara Daniels of Klamath Falls, Billie Harris of Bonanza, and Frances Grey of Tulelake.

Mrs. Louise Warren and son, Dick Barlow, spent a week in Southern California visiting Shirley and Dorothy Barlow of San Luis Obispo. They also visited friends in San Francisco and Napa, Calif.

MAKING A LOVELY PICTURE is this June bride with her attendants. The bride is Betty Ottoman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ottoman of Malin, who became Mrs. Richard G. Halousek in a mid-afternoon ceremony last Saturday. Left to right are Betty Gant, maid of honor; the bride; Jean Rajnus and Pearl Ottoman, bridesmaids.

Birthday

Nancy Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren of Eldorado street, observed her tenth birthday anniversary on Thursday evening with a supper party arranged by her mother for a group of friends.

Celebrating the affair were, Suzanne Liston, Eva Casey, Sheila Adler, Sara Stewart, Mary Lou Enguecke, Jeanne Condrey, Bernice Bullard, Zon Johnson and Susan Peak with Nancy the honor guest.

Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ervine of Iowa City arrived in Klamath Falls Thursday for an extended visit with Mrs. Ervine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Erlanson of 310 North Ninth street. Mrs. Ervine is the former Marys Erlanson. The Ervines drove west from Iowa City where Mr. Ervine is studying dentistry.

Mrs. Gordon Erlanson and her little daughter, Jana, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Erlanson for several weeks and have been houseguests of Mrs. Erlanson's mother, Mrs. Charles Cizek. Mrs. Erlanson is the former Adelle Zamsky. Little Jana met her grandparents for the first time on her visit. Her daddy is Captain Gordon Erlanson, who is stationed in Chicago with the army medical corps. The two plan to leave for the east next Tuesday.

Bridge Club

Meeting on Wednesday evening, June 25, was the TNT Bridge club. Hostess for the evening was Mrs. Roy Carter at her home, 5128 South Sixth street.

Holding high score was Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, second high, Mrs. A. C. Backes, traveling, Mrs. Clara Shaw, and low, Mrs. Phil Brixner. Members present were Mrs. Henri Conradi, Mrs. Backes, Mrs. Brixner, Mrs. Lorenz, Gertrude Tolle, Mrs. A. D. Lambert, Mrs. Emil Albrecht, Martha McCollum and Mrs. Shaw. Guests were Mrs. O. R. Holloway, Mrs. Glenn Inman and Mrs. Al Hattan.

Mrs. Backes will next entertain the group.

SOCIETY

By Edna Killmeyer

Vows Exchanged At St. Augustine's

In a pretty nuptial service Lorraine Tanner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Tanner of Kenosha, Wisconsin, became the bride of John James O'Connor at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, June 21, at St. Augustine's church at Merrill.

The altar was banked with Queen Ann daisies with the same flowers used throughout the church. Lighted tapers in candelabra added to the setting.

Mrs. Don Webster sang "Ave Maria" and "Panus Angelicus" as guests assembled. She was accompanied by Mrs. M. E. Giacomini, who played traditional wedding marches as the bridal party entered and left the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Colonial style gown of white marquisette with a train of dainty Chantilly lace. Her veil was of fingertip length in illusion net and fell from a crown of orange blossoms.

For jewelry the bride wore a cameo necklace, borrowed from the groom's mother. The cameo was a gift to Mrs. Burke from her son in Italy.

White roses with a frill of Chantilly lace to match the gown's trim formed the bridal bouquet.

Maid of honor was Vicki Burke, sister of the bridegroom, who was attired in a marquisette gown of pink, fashioned similarly to that of the bride. A short matching veil was worn in her hair, and she carried a nosegay of small seasonal flowers.

The bridesmaid, Constance Jean Turner, wore a gown identical to that of the maid of honor in blue with matching veil and bouquet. Little flower girls were Selma Matson and Margaret Colwell, with Peggy Matson as ring bearer. All wore dainty frocks of white organza.

Rites Solemnized On Sunday Afternoon

Wed in a Sunday afternoon ceremony at 2:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church were Mildred Elaine Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Williams of this city, and Larry Kent Milligan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Milligan of Idaho Falls, Idaho. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Howard F. Hutchins before a large gathering of friends and relatives.

Many baskets of white gladiolus with palms, and tapers in silver candelabra decorated the altar. Bouquets of the spring blooms tied with white satin ribbons marked pews. Maryellen Wright and Mr. Hugh Killmeyer lighted the candles.

Mrs. Samuel A. Maiben played traditional wedding music and accompanied Fred Ross, who sang "With This Ring I Thee Wed" as guests assembled.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. Will. Her gown was of heavy slipper satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and a bustle back which ended in a long train. A beaded tiara held in place her full length illusion veil edged in Chantilly lace. For jewelry she wore a single strand of pearls.

Her arm bouquet was of white carnations and matching ribbon streamers.

Maid of honor was Florence Tetaloff of this city, and bridesmaids were college friends of the bride, Ione Johnson of Corvallis, and several of her friends. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of capisen nylon taffeta, a deep salmon shade, with long matching gloves. Miss Tetaloff was attired in a gown of the same shade, similar to the bride's. The maid of honor wore a Juliet cap of white with a short veil, and the bride's other attendants wore similar lace Juliet caps. They carried old-fashioned nosegays of small dainty flowers.

The little flower girl was Lynette Kohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kohn Jr., who wore a gown identical to the other attendants. In her hair was a wreath of white daisies.

Best man for his brother was Jerry Milligan of Jackson, Wyoming, and ushers were John M. McMinn of Portland, and George Smith Jr. of Chico, California.

Following the rites the young couple received with their parents in the church parlors. Mrs. Williams, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of aqua with matching accessories, and Mrs. Milligan,

Lions' Dinner

Friday evening marked the annual installation dinner of the Lions club and its auxiliary. The affair was held at 7 o'clock at the Willard hotel.

Installing officers were Mrs. Edward Robinson for the auxiliary, and Gene Hooker for the Lions club.

Officers of the auxiliary are Mrs. Robert Hooker, president; Mrs. Paul Lee, vice president; Mrs. Morgan Johnson, secretary; and Mrs. Everett Vanderpool, liaison. Directors for one year terms are Mrs. Harold Shidler and Mrs. J. B. Bishop, and elected to serve two year terms are Mrs. Alfred Huntington and Mrs. John Schubert.

Installed as president of the Lions club was Wesley McNeel with Paul Lee, vice president; Everett Vanderpool, secretary; Martin Putnam, lion tamer; William Milne, tall twister; and two-year directors, Robert Henry and Roy Fremo, with Ray Ward and the Rev. Howard F. Hutchins serving one-year terms.

Retiring officers are Paul Angstead and Mrs. Angstead.

Pelican Is Scene Of Installation

New officers of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist club were installed at the Pelican party room Thursday at noon. The head table was in a theme of blue and gold. Soroptimist colors, and bouquets of spring blooms decorated the rooms. The long tables were centered with miniature lattice fences, interwoven with greenery and red roses.

As installing officer, Coral Sabo installed the following: president, Sylvia McClellan; vice president, Thelma Henry; second vice president, Anne Rickbiel; recording secretary, Lorraine Johnson; corresponding secretary, Suzanne Hamilton; treasurer, Vivian Owens. The members

Luncheon

The regular meeting of the Sojourners was held at the Willard hotel, Wednesday, June 25, at 1:45. A no-hostess luncheon in the hotel dining room preceded the meeting. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. E. J. Howell and Mrs. T. E. Patty.

Mrs. C. G. Hooper, the new president, presided at the business meeting at which time committee chairmen for the next six months were named. They are Mrs. R. E. Craney, cards and gifts; Mrs. A. M. Compton, historian; Mrs. H. R. Kirchan, by-laws; Mrs. E. P. Hobart, hospital; Mrs. Charles Houston, publicity; and Mrs. Lloyd Young, calling.

Mrs. C. A. Gilmore was named chairman for the annual picnic to be held at Moore park. Plans for the affair which will be held in July will be made at the next meeting.

Nine tables of cards were in play during the afternoon with awards going to Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mrs. A. G. Kusler, and Mrs. Amanda Roberts.

Sojourners is a social organization sponsored by the chamber of commerce. All newcomers who have lived here less than 18 months are cordially invited to attend. Meetings are held the second and fourth Wednesday of each month at the Willard hotel. The next meeting will be held July 9.

Winner

Mrs. Marvin Nerseth took honors Friday as winner of the Lamm trophy tournament, the spring handicap of Women of Reames Golf and Country club. Runner-up was Mrs. Paul Farrans.

O. H. Buffington presented gifts to the winner and runner-up. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. George H. Merriman and Mrs. John West. Luncheon was served, followed by bridge.

A guest was Mrs. C. W. Coseboom of Garden Grove, California, sister of Mrs. Oscar Shive, who is visiting here.

Entertained

Mrs. John Kennedy entertained on Thursday, June 19, at her Weyerhaeuser home for guests who had been associated with her in Camp Fire Girls' activities. Luncheon was followed by a novelty game. High and low scores were held by Mrs. Roy Gieser, first, Margie Palmerton second, and Norma Lee Gieser. A bridal gift was presented to Nadine Palmerton, bride-elect of Virgil Hanks, by the hostess.

Present for the afternoon were Georgia Friebel, Mrs. Gerry Wolff, Mrs. Roy Gieser, Norma Lee and Bonnie Gieser, all of Chiloquin, Mrs. Mike Howry, Mrs. Anne McDonald, Mrs. B. C. Johnston, Mrs. Loren Palmerton, Dorothy Riggs, Nancy Bennett, Margie and Nadine Palmerton and the hostess.

Sailing Home

Kathleen and Mary Lou O'Connor, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Connor of Merrill, with their uncle, Dennis O'Connor, are expected to sail from Cork, Ireland, for New York on the Mauretania August 13. The girls have been in Ireland for many months with their uncle, having flown from New York on September 9 of last year.

Both Kathleen and Mary Lou will enter college on their return home late this summer.

Surprise Party

A surprise party honoring Mrs. Allen Aldrich, the former Jean Ostendorf, was held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ongman, 2245 Radcliffe. Hostesses were Marjorie Ongman and Mrs. Q. T. Gibson.

Invited guests were Darleen McDaniels, Mrs. Russell B. Ellsworth, Coo Bay, Mrs. Lon Mast, Gertrude Hanson, Martha Gizio, Nanette Schubert, Carol Newman, Francis Gilchrist, Norma Stueben, Lois Cody, Francis Ballin, Lois Rumer, Marion Caldwell, Mrs. Russell Toyce, Mrs. Cliff Ongman and Maryellen Wright.

A PRETTY WEDDING was that of Mildred Elaine Williams and Larry Kent Milligan, read last Sunday at the First Methodist church. The new Mrs. Milligan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Williams of this city. The couple will reside in Corvallis after their return from their wedding trip.

A WEDDING WITH A COLONIAL THEME was an event of last Saturday when Lorraine Tanner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Tanner of Kenosha, Wisconsin, became the bride of John J. Burke Jr., of Merrill. The couple exchanged vows at St. Augustine's church in Merrill.

—Kennell-Ellis.

—Kennell-Ellis.