

Chapter Meets On Tuesday Evening

Summer flowers provided a lovely setting for the last meeting before summer of the Aloha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday evening, June 24.

Attending the meeting were three guests, Lorena McNair of Ashland, junior past worthy grand matron; Anna Foust, worthy grand matron from Kansas, and Mary Norval, worthy matron from Cascade Crest chapter in Chiloquin. They were escorted to the east and presented messages by Worthy Matron Helen Listoe.

Reports from the officers who attended grand chapter and initiation were part of the evening's program. Marian Sheridan sang during the service. Rhoda Harnden, program chairman, presented Constance Hunt who sang a group of songs accompanied by Mrs. Robert Craig at the piano.

Viola Dickson and Alpha Phelps, past matrons, were the hostesses for the evening. The tables were set in the dining room and decorated with vases of summer flowers. All members having birthdays in April, May and June were honored at special tables. The committee of refreshments was Vera Lunkenbach, Orva Beard, Margaret Gelhaar, Vera Harkler, Mildred Hilton, Eleanor Hoagland, Ada Jones, Grace Leach, Margaret Anders and Esther Hendrickson.

The Aloha chapter will meet for its first meeting of the fall on September 9 for a covered dish dinner.

Nuptials

CHILOQUIN—Benson C. Mitchell Jr., a former Chiloquin and Merrill resident, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benson C. Mitchell of Portland, took Grace Hanigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hanigan of Portland, as his bride in a Portland ceremony on Saturday morning, June 21, at 9:30, at the Sacred Heart church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white trained wedding gown, fingertip length veil, and carried a bouquet of stephanotis, gardenias, and orchids.

Alice Hanigan, younger sister of the bride, was maid of honor, while a school friend of the bride and a sister of the groom, Patricia Mitchell, were bridesmaids. The three attendants were dressed in blue, yellow and orchid colored floor-length gowns, and carried shower bouquets.

Barney Mitchell was best man for the bride, and ushers were the groom's brother-in-law, Glenn Burke, and a school friend, Forest Reid, of Chiloquin. Altar boys were two young brothers of the bride.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Mallory hotel. The traditional blessing of the bride's bouquet at the chapel of Maryhurst college was followed by the reception at the George Hanigan home at 3:30, after which the young couple left for a wedding trip before making their home in Corvallis where the groom is a student at Oregon State college.

The bride is a graduate of Maryhurst college and a teacher. Mitchell attended Sacramento Junior college before entering the city and recently sailed overseas duty and had the rank of captain.

Ladies' Night

TULELAKE—Rotary Annus were held at annual ladies' night Monday when members of the Tulelake Rotary club entertained at dinner at the Sportsman's hotel. The dinner marked the beginning of a new year for the club and recently elected officers took the chairs.

Installed were George Reiben, president; H. T. Street, treasurer; E. L. Coyner, secretary. New directors are Dr. Earl Spary and Leoth Dunlap with Rev. Hugh Bronson as the holdover member of the board.

H. T. Street who with Ralph Fausch and Leoth Dunlap attended Rotary International at San Francisco early in June reported on the sessions. President Reiben and Secretary Coyner are attending an assembly of delegates of district No. 105 at Chico this week.

Clifton Hines, program chairman for ladies' night, introduced the members of the Mother's chorus, directed by Mrs. Don Webster who presented three numbers.

Mrs. Rose Steppie of Klamath Falls this week announced the engagement of her daughter, Virginia, to Lloyd Samson, also of this city. He is the son of Mrs. Myrtle Samson of Klamath Falls. The wedding will be an event of the near future.

Entertained

MERRILL—The Lost River and Klamath Garden clubs were entertained at the lovely ranch home of Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, Tuesday, June 24. Members and guests strolled through the beautiful flower gardens admiring the many blooms and the clever nooks and arbors. A lily pool filled with blooming water lilies and bordered by low flowering plants centers the large lawn. One corner of the garden, completely screened off by shrubbery, contains an outdoor fireplace, tables and benches, with an entrance through a bower of flowering trees.

Mrs. G. A. Krause gave an interesting and informative talk on miniature flower arrangements. She brought several arrangements for display and after her talk, the members and guests went out into the garden and made miniature arrangements.

Refreshments were served to guests in the garden.

Those present were Mrs. Krause, Mrs. O. T. McKendree, Mrs. Al J. Doriaque, Mrs. Warren Hunt, Mrs. C. W. Hornbrook, Mrs. K. G. Cummings, Mrs. Jacob Heid, Mrs. Bruce Binkley, Mrs. E. B. Redman, Mrs. Randall Pope, Mrs. Don West, Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. Dan Barry, Mrs. John O'Neil.

Sacred Heart Scene Of Sunday Nuptials

Millie Motschenbacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Motschenbacher of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Raymond Zarosinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Zarosinski of Kenos. Vows were exchanged in the Sacred Heart church at 2 o'clock, Sunday, June 22. Father John Phelan read the service.

The bride wore a white satin gown with a sweetheart neckline, full sleeves and a long train. Her fingertip veil was of white net.

Claudine Caldwell, bridesmaid, wore a pink net gown and carried a Colonial nosegay of roses and carnations.

Best man was Joe Zarosinski, brother of the groom. Ushers were Don Zarosinski and LaVerne Motschenbacher.

White gladioli with other spring blooms and tall tapers decorated the church. Traditional wedding music was played by Elaine Abbott. Harriet Lavenik sang "Ave Maria."

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall of the church. Mrs. Everett Jackson, sister of the bride, served. Mrs. Phyllis Pollock, Mrs. Arnold Motschenbacher and Mrs. Edna Caldwell poured.

For traveling Mrs. Zarosinski selected a flame red suit with white accessories. Following a week's honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Zarosinski will be at home at the Glencourt apartments.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Ashley have been receiving interesting remembrances in their morning mail... autographer menus from famed New Orleans restaurants sent by the vacationing Ashleys.

Attend Camp

MALIN—Marge Bunge and Frankie Phillips of Malin attended the Girls' State camp at Silver Creek Falls state park, near Salem, sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary. The girls were there from June 8 to 15.

They visited the capitol building, the state library, and the supreme court building, with the girls forming their own corps of government officers. On Saturday they had their governor's banquet and farewell party.

The girls attending Girls' State are sponsored by members of the auxiliary units throughout the state.

This is the first time the Malin unit has participated. Irene Freitag and her assistants were responsible for arranging to send the girls to camp. By receipts from the 1946 Thanksgiving dance and supper, all expenses were paid for the girls.

The girls will give a report on their trip at the July 7 meeting of unit 34.

Double Rites

A double wedding was an event of Sunday afternoon, June 8, at the Immanuel Baptist church at Midland. Reading the ceremony was the Rev. Perry M. Johnson.

Euphama Switzler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Switzler of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Carroll Mistler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mistler of Midland. Also exchanging vows were Ella Jones of Klamath Falls and Luther Slawter of Eugene.

The brides wore similar white afternoon dresses and carried old-fashioned nosegays. Their accessories were white.

Attendants for the brides were Mrs. Orville English and Betty Joiner. They wore rose colored crepe dresses with white accessories.

Attending the grooms were John W. Mistler and James McGown.

H. G. Shirey sang "O Promise Me" and Jean Stroude sang "Because."

The church was decorated with palms and baskets of white gladioli and azaleas.

After the wedding, a dinner for the bridal party and relatives was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mistler.

Mr. and Mrs. Mistler spent a short time at the coast and are now at home in Oakland, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Slawter are at home in Eugene.

Short Meeting

Pythian Sisters Social club met at the home of Mrs. George Mast on Friday evening, June 20. During the short business meeting plans were made for a rummage sale to be held August 16, and a picnic was also planned for July 25 at the home of Rowena Fugill, 2124 Ogden.

After the business meeting pinocle was played, and a potluck supper was served by Mrs. West, Wanda Elliott and Marie Kilgore. The next regular meeting will be Friday, July 11 and will be held at the home of Mrs. Kilgore, 303 S. 6th, the Lee Apartments.
