Oregon Men Face Dakota Sentence

DEADWOOD, S. D., June 28 (AP)—A year's prison sentence here today faced V. Elmer Robertson and Ralph F. Beagroves, who escaped from the Oregon state penitentiary where they were serving sentences for a car theft in Grants Pass.

The pair, arrested here June 18 with a young Aberdeen, Wash., girl, were sentenced on a forgery charge. Sheriff J. O. Twiford said he would consult with the FBI about their possible return to the Oregon prison before taking them to the South Dakota penitentiary.

Organic material is mostly carbon.
