

EVERY CELEBRATION should have its queen and the Klamath Basin Rodeo will be ruled by pretty little Ginger Thomas who was named over a group of eligible young contestants, six of whom will be her attendants. 1. Queen Ginger is shown at the upper left and (2) the rodeo committee. Left to right: Elmer Balsiger, Pat Ivory, Elmer Balsiger, Bill Keryns, Dr. J. C. Hunt and George E. Galt. Not pictured, Marshall Corbett, Basil Brown, arena director; W. C. Dalton and Jim Stevenson, directors, and E. E. Driscoll and William Keryns, legal advisors. Balsiger is president of the association, Keryns, vice president and Galt, secretary-treasurer. Ivory and Kibbell are both directors. The Klamath Rodeo association is in its second year, successor to Klamath Buckaroo days which was established in 1935 under the sponsorship of the American Legion. The present association is a basin-wide project. Below, the six princesses who will attend Queen Ginger. Left to right, (3) Mary Catherine Hammond of Merrill; (4) Frances Fry of Tulelake; (5) Billie Harris of Bonanza; (6) Doris Porterfield of Dorris; (7) Carol George of Henley; (8) Barbara Daniels of Klamath Falls. Each community in the basin entered one or more contestants who were judged on riding, personality and poise. (All pictures by Wes Guderman, The Herald and News).
