

KUHS Band To Rehearse

The first rehearsal for the Klamath Union high school band members going to Portland on July 16 will be Monday evening, July 7, at 7:30 p. m. The first meeting will be in the music room (323) of Klamath Union high school. Any band members unable to be present at this rehearsal, should call Mr. Loney at 7295 in the evenings and 5219 during the day.

Band members are again reminded to have uniforms pressed and if the uniform is not a good fit, come to the high school sometime prior to the first rehearsal and contact Mr. Warcup to see if any of the uniforms turned in will give a better fit. All band members are to take to Portland in white shirts and black ties in case of extreme heat. The Klamath Union high school band is representing Southern Oregon Elks at the national convention in Portland.

Portal Case To Stay On Books

PORTLAND, July 1 (AP)—A defense move for dismissal of a portal-to-portal pay suit failed, and the suit remained before Federal Judge James Alger Fee here today. The suit, brought by 180 employees of the Oregon American Lumber company, Vernonia, for $430,000 in travel time, will remain on the books at least until Judge Fee conducts a pre-trial hearing.

Defense attorneys had contended the recent congressional portal act bars such suits. The judge declined to rule.

Week-End Rains Extinguish Fire

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, July 1 (AP)—Week-end rains virtually extinguished the devastating Kenai peninsula blaze which scorched more than 250,000 acres of prime spruce, Ward Clay, commercial pilot, reported yesterday.

Heavy water used in atomic energy processes is known technically as deuterium oxide.
