

22 Nations Invited To Attend Paris Conference To Talk Europe Recovery

PARIS, July 3 (AP)—The French foreign office announced today that 22 nations will be invited to a meeting in Paris, July 12, to discuss European economic cooperation as outlined in the Marshall proposal.

The countries invited will include Austria, Turkey, Albania, Ireland and all former enemy states except Germany, it was announced. A foreign office spokesman said the invitations would be sent to Paris embassies tonight.

The French foreign ministry announced earlier a British-French decision to invite all European states, with the provisional exception of Spain, to take part in drafting a reply to the proposal advanced by U. S. Secretary of State Marshall for European economic recovery.

A foreign office spokesman said a letter had been sent to Russian Am-

Stocks Still Pushing Up

NEW YORK, July 3 (AP)—For the seventh successive session, stocks pushed upward in today's market as short covering and further investment purchasing more than offset considerable profit cashing on the lengthy advance.

Irregularity and relatively slow dealings ruled during the forenoon. Selling never was urgent, however, and by the fourth hour prices began to harden in virtually all departments with volume expanding.

Gains of fractions to 3 or more points predominated at the close with assorted oils, rails and industrials at new highs for the year.

Transfers for the full stretch ran to around 1,100,000 shares.

Zenith Radio jumped better than 5 points on word the concern was working on a new type of television. At 1947 tops were Union Pacific, Nickel Plate Preferred, Phillips Petroleum, Gulf Oil, Superior Oil, Texas Pacific Land Trust, Joy Steel, and Pepsi-Cola.

Rodeo Program

July 4th, 5th and 6th
FRIDAY - SATURDAY - SUNDAY
4th of July parade—10 a. m. Friday.
1:15 p. m. each day—rodeo at fairgrounds.
9 p. m. to 1 a. m. each day—rodeo dance at armory.

The 4th of July parade will start at Spring and Main streets promptly at 10 a. m. Friday, and proceed down Main to Second, thence left to Klamath and Walnut. The police department will direct at this point.

E. P. Ivory, parade chairman, will be at the Black and White service station at the corner of Main and Spring. The phone number is 7741.

Each section marshal will assemble his section on Spring street in the order listed in the march program and instruct his entries to maintain moderate distances between elements. All entries must report to marshal personally and he or his assistant will assign places in the section.

Pony riders, small carts, and bicycles will compose the juvenile section. These must be arranged so that they are in separate units.

The mounted horse section, under direction of Lou Serruya, will be interspersed as directed. All entries for best-dressed cowboy and cowgirl, both fancy and working costume, should report to Serruya and will be grouped in an indicated position in the line of march.

Each section marshal will proceed up Main at the head of his section and take a position at the judges' stand to identify his float or group as they pass.

Judges will use their own discretion as to awarding prizes and their decision will be final. There will be a first and second award in each section and a grand prize for the best entry in the whole parade. In the juvenile section, in addition to prizes awarded by the Lost River dairy, there will be a first, second and third ribbon award in each group.

Wheat Shows Some Losses

CHICAGO, July 3 (AP)—July corn futures today pushed to another all-time peak of $2.05 1/2 a bushel, and July oats hit a new seasonal top of $1.00 1/2. Although corn and oats were strong, wheat was weak throughout and lost almost 3 cents at times.

Demand for cash corn was good but receipts continued light—only 35,000 bushels reported book overnight.

Wheat closed 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents lower than the previous close, July $2.13-$2.17, corn was up 1/4 to 2/4 cents, July $2.05 1/2 and oats were 1/4 to 1/2 cent higher, July $1.00 1/2-1.

Red Broadcast Gets Funds

WASHINGTON, July 3 (AP)—Senate and house passage sent to the White House today a bill providing $55,273,932 for the state, commerce and justice departments and the federal judiciary for the current fiscal year.

Included in the measure, third major appropriation bill on which congress has completed action, is $12,400,000 for the state department's foreign information program and "voice of America" broadcasts.

Both the senate and house passed the measure on voice votes.

The bill is approximately $147,000,000 below the president's budget estimates. Of the total $234,000,000 sent to the state department, $108,000,000 to justice, $192,000,000 to commerce and $17,000,000 to the federal judiciary.

Prison Convicts Slate Pen Relays

SALEM, July 3 (AP)—The state prison convicts will hold their annual "pen relays" tomorrow.

The Fourth of July show, lasting all day, will include boxing and all forms of track and field events. Except of course the pole vault, because the warden doesn't want any convicts vaulting over the wall.

Malin Student Has Perfect Grades

Della M. Martin of Merrill was one of 41 University of Oregon students receiving a perfect grade point average of 4.00 or straight "A's" during spring term. Listed among the 269 students making the University of Oregon honor roll with 3.5 or better, based on not less than 12 term hours, were Nina S. Ferniman, Mary E. Griffith, Joan C. O'Neill, George H. Proctor and Mary Landry Wasmann of Klamath Falls, and Elbert F. Floyd Jr., of the Klamath Agency.

Paul Jones Day To Be Observed

Personnel of the regular navy and the naval reserve will join the public in ceremonies honoring the memory of John Paul Jones, "Father of the Navy," on Sunday, July 6. This is the bi-centennial of Jones' birth.

An appropriate program will be held aboard the USS Bon Homme Richard berthed at the U. S. naval shipyard, Bremerton, Wash., and the local navy recruiting office will broadcast a memorial program sometime this week-end, the time and date to be announced later.

General Clark Sounds Red Warning

FORT LEWIS, July 3 (AP)—Retaining his anxiety over the role and attitude of Russia in Europe, Gen. Mark W. Clark told Fort Lewis troops last night that "insidious forces and underhanded methods of communism are seeking to destroy the freedom of Europe which you and I fought so hard to preserve."

An estimated 1000 persons were in line to meet the general and Gov. Wallgren at an evening reception at the officers' club.

Canadian Combines Used

REGINA, Sask., July 3 (CP)—Approximately 500 combines from Saskatchewan are now assisting with the United States mid-western harvest and approximately 100 more are on the way. M. E. Hartnett, Saskatchewan's deputy minister of agriculture, said today.

He said most of the combines now en route would probably be sent to Kansas where harvesting is reported delayed by a shortage of equipment, but added that allocation of combines was the responsibility of American authorities.

Because Saskatchewan has agreed to send farm workers to Eastern Canada for harvesting it was doubtful if any more men or equipment could be sent to the United States.

Predator Control To Speed Up

PORTLAND, July 3 (AP)—Predator animal control work will be stepped up this fall, Frank B. Wire, state game supervisor, said today.

"Aerial poisoning, aerial coyote hunting, trapping and use of dogs are among methods of control planned," he said, with emphasis given on the way M. E. Hartnett has been reporting urgent need of control.

Wire said that aerial hunting has been reducing the number of coyotes in the deep desert country and that some decrease in that work is likely with other areas getting correspondingly greater attention.

Last spring he said, hunters in 271 hours of flying time killed 624 coyotes as well as 59 additional probably killed. The commission paid $3390 for the airplane hunting program.

Chamber To Add Man To Staff

The appointment of an additional man to the staff of the Klamath County chamber of commerce was approved by the chamber board of directors at a noon meeting Wednesday. The new man, who has not yet been selected, will handle much of the chamber's activities in the industrial development of the Klamath area.

Plans were also made to send a delegation to the meeting of the Tulare Rotary club, Wednesday noon, July 9. Topic of the meeting will be tourist promotion. Members of the "tourist committee," inter-city committees, board of directors and other groups will represent Klamath Falls.

Mosquito Stopping Praise Given

PORTLAND, July 3 (AP)—The time Portlanders used to spend awaiting mosquitoes apparently is being used to write letters to City Commissioner Dorothy McCullough Lee.

The letters thank her for practically ridding the city of mosquitoes by a DDT dusting program of the breeding grounds.

Mrs. Lee said she had learned mosquitoes from undusted Columbia county attempted to invade Portland, but intervening trees were dusted and the invasion was stopped cold.

Air Command To Investigate Discs

DAYTON, O., July 3 (AP)—Wright field public relations officials said today the air materiel command is conducting an investigation of "saucer shaped" missiles which have been sighted at intervals during the past few weeks by observers in the Pacific Northwest and Texas.

Officials said the command would report their findings later.

Roseburg Budget Hits Second Nag

ROSEBURG, Ore., July 3 (AP)—Roseburg's endeavor to establish a budget for the current fiscal year, stymied by defeat at the polls last May, struck a new snag today when the city's attorneys discovered an error in the advertisement for a second election, set for July 8, and advanced the opinion that the error would becloud legality of the budget in the event of its adoption. City officials immediately planned to meet next Monday and to cancel the election call. This will be followed a day or two later by the necessary budget correction and a fresh call for a popular vote.

Most Portland Business To Close

PORTLAND, July 3 (AP)—Business here will be largely suspended over the long Independence Day week-end.

Virtually all businesses will close as usual for July 4, and a large proportion of retail stores will remain closed Saturday. In addition, banks, the livestock market, liquor stores and most offices will observe the double holiday.

The grain exchange and farm-products market will have only the single holiday.

Retired Ohio Business Man Becomes Trailerite, Then Trailer Dealer

Home of Medford Trailer Sales

One of the newest, substantial additions to the trailer industry on the Pacific Coast is H. L. Morgan's Medford Trailer Sales, Medford, Oregon. Mr. Morgan started to invest $20,000 in a modern trailer sales business, but writes that the amount is nearing the $40,000 mark now and that manufacturers who have visited him say he has the finest lot on the Pacific Coast.

Be that as it may, it is certainly a fine-looking lot, as the picture readily shows; and one of the interesting bits of background to this new business is the fact that the owner of it had never seen the inside of a trailer until a year or so ago. The whole business blossomed from his purchase of a trailer with which to travel to the West.

"Pappy" Morgan, as he introduced himself to us, says he and his wife had long dreamed of living in the west amid the snow-capped mountains, deep canyons, trout-filled, turbulent streams and all the grandeur and majesty that lovers of nature cherish. So finally he sold his business interests in Youngstown, Ohio, and prepared to explore the west leisurely and to settle down in it somewhere. Friends advised them to buy a trailer, to avoid the daily headache of trying to find a place to sleep—and the purchase of that trailer, although they didn't know it then, was the seed that sprouted into the Medford Trailer Sales.

They started their trailer tour in some trepidation, naturally enough; but they soon found that the trailer was tractable and that their fears were unfounded. They crossed the Rockies, toured the west for six months and came one day to Medford. "It was love at first sight, as anyone will understand who has been through that breathtakingly beautiful country. They were thrilled with its green forests, vast fruit and lumbering industries, towering mountains, and decided this was the paradise they'd been dreaming about and searching for.

Inactivity soon became irksome, however, and being by now thoroughly sold on trailers and trailering, "Pappy" decided to go into the business of selling trailers and talking up trailering to everybody. He set out to build a sales lot that would be a credit to Medford and to the trailer industry and he has done a good job.

The tower on the office building is thirty-two feet high, with floodlights on top and brilliant neon signs. The posts supporting the arched display signboards are topped by large electric lights and the signboards themselves may be detached easily for changing merely by pulling two bolts and sliding the sign down. The color scheme is blue, white and orange. The lot is landscaped with green spruce trees and flower beds at strategic spots; trailers with awnings, bright umbrellas and patio furniture are displayed in the inner areas which do not show in the picture; and those are ornamental, white curbing with green top to represent natural grass, which you see in the foreground.

Business is booming at "Pappy" Morgan's Medford Trailer Sales and he aims to keep it that way.
