

Klamath Agency

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Monks, Klamath Agency, plan to spend a 30-day vacation in North Dakota, returning to the agency about August 18. They plan to go by automobile. Monks is deputy superintendent at Klamath Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Poltras have been taking a few days' vacation from Klamath Agency. Poltras is accountant at the Agency office and Mrs. Poltras is a former member of the Klamath tribal loan board. They returned to the Agency July 3.

Floyd LaPointe, bank clerk at the Klamath Agency, has gone to South Dakota to get his family and bring them to the Agency. Mrs. LaPointe has been spending three or four months in South Dakota with her relatives.

Authority has been granted by the interior department to build two frame cottages at the Klamath Agency. Funds were appropriated by the congress for this purpose in 1942 but due to the war and restrictions on materials no construction work was attempted. It is hoped to have the two cottages finished by next fall or early winter.

The Indian Trader's store at Klamath Agency has been taken over by W. N. Herrick, formerly of Fort Klamath. Herrick purchased the store from Mr. and Mrs. Donna and Camagna. Herrick operates the post office and also a cafe in connection with the general store at the Agency. Herrick is a government licensed Indian trader.

Mrs. Julia Ann Poole, postmistress at Klamath Agency post office, has resigned her office and expects to be replaced by Mrs. Martha Read. Definite date of change has not yet been announced by the post office department in Washington, D. C.

Bly

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stonebreaker and family visited friends and relatives in Pendleton last week. Jerome remained there, where he has employment for the summer.

Nancy Tibbits returned from Albany last Sunday where she was visiting her father, Lester Tibbits. Harold Crane of Pascenta, Calif., was a business visitor in Bly Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wisecarver and children went to Myrtle Point for a week's visit with Mrs. Wisecarver's mother, Mrs. Florence Miller.

Glen Baty is visiting friends and relatives in Swatara, Minn.

Rudy Ashbaugh of Myrtle Creek was a business visitor in Bly Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Dillavon and Shirley, Jackie and Gloria Bell visited friends and relatives in Cascade, Ida., over the 4th.

Beverly Hanan is visiting her brothers, Jack and Vern Hanan. Beverly is from Sunnyside, Calif., where she lives with her sister, Mrs. Pete Gruber.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith of Ashland are visiting friends and relatives here over the holiday.

Bill Tucker made a trip to Paisley

Chiloquin

Visiting with relatives in Chiloquin on Wednesday and Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Cox and Emma, Lou of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. John Cox of Medford, Mrs. Chester Flury of Eagle Point, and Mrs. Emma Hackett of Prineville. The group were overnight guests at the LeRoy Giesler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Markwardt had had as guests this past week relatives from Redwood City, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Leever. The two families drove to Eugene last Friday and will be at Davis lake for the 4th holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Blockinger, and their daughters Sally and Mrs. Richard Atiyeh, of Portland, have returned from a trip to Texas. Their return route was by Flagstaff, Hoover dam and Bakersfield, where Mrs. Atiyeh left to fly to her home in Portland. The other three continued for a visit in Modesto before reaching home on Tuesday afternoon. Their trip was enjoyable except for the heat.

Newcomers in town are Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Curtis and five-year-old daughter, Barbara, of Vancouver, B. C. Mrs. Curtis is a sister of Claud Parazoo.

Mrs. Fred Gehring and relatives from North Dakota were in town from Klamath Falls last week, visiting with friends and other relatives.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markwardt are her mother, Mrs. Alma Fisher, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fernandez, of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shueck, former residents, were here for the holidays visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kellison. The Shuecks have moved to Auburn, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Warren, Tina, Sharon and Janet, of Prospect, were Sunday guests at the Wolff ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kahn, graduates in anthropology from the University of Oregon, are spending Monday. His mother, Mrs. Rosie Tucker, came back with him for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McMillan and family and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lower and family of Tuttle, Ida., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scottie Lower of Ivory Pine.

a week in town, visiting with former classmates and the field group under the direction of Dr. L. S. Crossman. The Kahns, who are from San Francisco, brought their 20-month-old daughter, Barbara, with them, but on Sunday she was taken to visit grandparents in Eugene. With Mrs. Kahn went Mrs. Gerry Wolff, Cherry Lynn and Micki Jo, who spent the time with the Warner Blake family.

Benny Benson is spending a few days with his family from his new location in Canby, Calif.

The Folk Haddocks left last Saturday for their vacation.

Two graduate students from the University of California are spending the summer months in this vicinity doing thesis work in anthropology. They are Marion Pearsay and Mrs. Mitchell Harding Dasey.

Alan Prescott has purchased Johnnie's Place in Merrill, and began operating the first of the month. Vern Smith will take over the management in August.

Freida Kirk, sixth grader and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freidman Kirk, was the winner of the Methodist summer camp scholarship contest run during the past three months by the Women's Society of Christian Service. Scoring was based on attendance at Sunday school, church and junior choir practice and upon memory work.

The contest was open to all the juniors and intermediates of the Sunday school. Camp will be held next week at Suttle lake.

Grasshoppers destroyed crops in the United States valued at $400 million from 1936 to 1945.

Auto insurance protected millions of motorists. Hans Norland Auto Insurance, Phone 6060.

Hager

Dinner guests at the R. H. Anderson home Sunday were Mrs. S. E. Martin of Oakland, Calif., Mrs. J. F. Simpson of Great Falls, Mont., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCullock and daughter, Carol, of San Carlos, Calif., Mrs. Maude Hosley, Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby and Mr. and Mrs. William DeCew.

Ed Goeckner spent a few days at the Anderson home while on business here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. DeCew are leaving for a visit with their relatives in Montana this week-end. They plan to go by Pendleton, and take Larry and Martin Snyder with them.

Cleo and Lois Burgess are doing quite well at the firecracker stand on S. 6th.

Mrs. I. Wright's sister came from Texas last week to visit at the Wright home here and also see other relatives.

Vern Moore is building a new home in this community. Mr. Bevan and Paul Dalton have recently finished their new residences.

Congratulations to Orville Sukrow and Marjorie Britton who were married recently at Reno. They will live at Hager.

Mrs. Jack Steyskall and children visited her parents, the Hesses, over the week-end.

Dave Klein lost two very valuable hogs during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Gordon were here last week, stopping to see Gordon's sister, Mrs. Fannie Talbot, and Mrs. Gordon's sister, Mrs. Nellie Anderson. They were en route to their home in Roseville, Calif., having spent a vacation at Yellowstone national park.

Mrs. Roy E. Herrick Jr. is ill at her home here.

Mrs. Reuben Talbot and infant son are home from the hospital. The new boy has been named Donald Ray.

Mrs. Fannie Talbot has been ill but is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cayin, Mr. and Mrs. Masou Cayin and Mrs. Belle Lindley of Hornbrook, Calif., were at the W. L. Frair ranch on Tuesday this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well developed; the females usually are able only to hiss.

Another of the community's young men, Eddie Bushong, brought home a new bride. They were married in Oklahoma, returning here this week. Mrs. Bushong, Eddie's mother, accompanied him east.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bushong of

Boise, Ida., have been visiting their mother here, returning to their home this week.

The voice of the tortoise is not well