

Nominee List Growing, But Not Sparkling

Louis To Decide Whom He'll Fight

NEW YORK, July 8 (AP)—Names of prospective nominees for a September 19 shot at Joe Louis and his heavyweight boxing crown were skimming around Jacobs beach like flying saucers today—and provoking just as much bewilderment, comment and speculation as the dippy-doodling discs.

About all that was apparent was that the palace guard at the 20th Century Sporting club won't come up with anything definite until after golfing Joe Louis shuttles in July 15 to talk over his fluster future.

Time's a-wasting, and the upset victory of Ole Tandberg over Joe Baksi in Stockholm last Sunday had set Strauss acting director of the club in the absence of the indisposed Mike Jacobs, riffling through his desk calendar for dates and his list of well-riffed and sharpshooters ring eligibles for potential foes.

Until the once-tactiturn but lately volatile Louis unbends his views, here are some of the potential moves in the Strauss clubhouse, all subject to change with scant notice:

1. Baksi and Tandberg can have at it again here in Madison Square Garden August 12, or they can meet their Sunday swing session was an optical illusion or whether the Swedish slammer, despite his mediocre record, can consider Baksi his own personal antagonist.

2. Louis can fight the winner of the July 25 scrap between Ezzard Charles, the Cincinnati-heavyweight, and Elmer "Violent" Ray of Minneapolis, provided one or the other triumphs "decisively."

3. Tandberg, under contract to 20th Century, can fight Britain's Bruce Woodcock for London Promoter Jack Solomon. Baksi stopped Woodcock in seven rounds in April. If Tandberg can do it better and quicker perhaps he'll get the Louis bid—or merely qualify for permanent possession of Woodcock.

Top Softball Men Ponder Time Limits

A meeting of all city softball league team managers and umpires has been called for tonight to formulate rules for the second half of the circuit's season which starts tomorrow.

Frank Drew, president of the softball league, said that the meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m. at the city hall office of Sam Smith, recreation director.

New league rules tending to speed up the games and shorten the time taken to play each night's schedule will be discussed, Drew said. In the past there have been numerous instances of stalling, intentional or not, causing games to be drawn out extensively.

There is a possibility that a time limit of one hour or an hour and 10 minutes will be clamped on the contests, and also the adoption of a rule which would enable the league to suspend players who willfully kill time and stall during games.

Drew said that the games each night should be finished each night in a little over two hours and that long sessions in the past have added considerably to the expense of keeping the Modoc field lights burning.

Kemmer said the boys, ages 16 to 17, had confessed receiving a case of the stolen fireworks and had named the ring-leaders. The boys were not held.

By Hale Scarbrough Kamloops In Odell Would Restore Lake As Fishing Paradise

One of the best things that could happen to this county in the way of fishing and tourist-fishing would be to stock deep Odell lake with Kamloops rainbow trout, the way Lake Pend Oreille in Idaho has been stocked with the same.

Everyone from here who visits the fabulous "big hole" of Idaho comes back to report on the similarity of that lake and our own Odell, in depth, water, temperature, vegetation and potential food for the big Kamloops.

Pend Oreille was stocked several years ago with the trout, imported from a lake in Canada, and then closed down for five years. No fishing allowed at all during the closed period. Then a couple of years ago it was opened up and trout weighing all the way up to 35 pounds have been caught. The biggest, 35 pounds, was taken this spring.

The notoriety Pend Oreille has received because of the big fellows has been terrific and a real boom village has sprung up around the lake to take care of the tourists. Proper publicity stunts, such as having a curvaceous Hollywood starlet pose with a big trout some professional guide caught, add to the color.

Resort Operators Could Profit
Odell lake has the cold water, the depth, seeds of whitefish which would be good food for the big trout, and would be an ideal spot for a heavy planting of Kamloops, if the state's game commission is interested in doing anything of that sort.

I believe it would be to the interest and future profit of resort operators and summer home owners on Odell to ride the game commission until it takes some action on the matter. The lake could be closed to fishing for three years after the plantings of Kamloops are made, and, based on the Pend Oreille experience, trout 12 to 15 pounds would be caught out of there after a three-year layoff.

One thing sure, the game commission will not of its own volition take the initiative in building up Odell lake. The people who are at the lake and who fish the lake will have to set the ball to rolling to get anything done, and if Odell can be transformed into a second Pend Oreille the initial effort in getting the action would not be wasted.

They've Got No Hip Pockets
The St. Louis Browns are also active here in Oregon looking for baseball ivory, following the lead of the Yankees, the Browns will hold a tryout camp in Bend starting tomorrow and running for four days, then move up to Albany for three days starting July 17.

Conducting the camp for the St. Louis outfit of the American league will be Tony Robello and Charlie Bulman. The three Yankee scouts who were here last week are now in Silverton.

The Browns happen to be the only major league team that does not have hip pockets in the players' uniforms. That trait dates back 20 years or so when a rival third baseman slipped his hand into a tagged-up runner's hip pocket and prevented him from scoring after a fly ball.

After that incident the people who own the Browns decreed no more hip pockets. However, I don't suppose that peculiarity detracts from the Browns' scouts ability to run a lively baseball camp at Bend and Albany.

Agency Awaits State Test Before Telling Duck Dates

WASHINGTON, July 8 (AP)—The fish and wildlife service has completed the recommendations for next autumn's duck-hunting seasons and is sending them out this week to state game commissions.

The agency awaits the reaction of the states before finally determining the hunting dates. The new schedules may be announced within a month.

Albert M. Day, director of the service, recently indicated that both the season and the bag limit may be reduced—the season to 30 days and the bag limit to five ducks per day. The season last year was reduced from 80 to 45 days and the bag limit from 10 to seven ducks.

State hunting license sales increased 20 per cent last year to a new peak of 9,854,213. Meanwhile the waterfowl population declined drastically, for the third successive year, to 54,000,000, a drop of 26,000,000 below the 1946 figures.

Frederick C. Lincoln, assistant to Day, told a reporter that eight fish and wildlife service biologists in the Canadian waterfowl breeding areas and two in the Alaska sector—all equipped with airplanes—have reported a slight but encouraging increase in bird population over last year.

The drivers who will perform here are Bud Williams, who has had 12 years' experience as a stunt man; Tiny Boyce, another veteran at the business who at present has a patched-up collarbone as a result of a recent show; and Jack Armstrong, who has eight years of stunting experience.

The stock cars which will be used in the show, some of which are in low now, are white-painted Plymouth sedans. Older coupes will be used in the head-on collision stunt.

PORTLAND MARSHAL

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8 (AP)—Clouting the ball at a .367 clip, Husky Ed Fitzgerald, prize Sacramento rookie catcher, retained his role as pace setter for Pacific Coast league batmen through games of July 6.

Averages today by League Statistician William McGee, showed Fitzgerald leading his nearest rival, Oakland Second Sacker Dario Lodigiani, by 10 percentage points, Francis Kelleher, Hollywood outfielder, spurred from far back last week to move into third position with .347.

Lou Novikoff, Seattle outfielder, led in runs batted in with a total of 66 and Max West, San Diego fly-chaser, retained home run honors with 18.

Trailing Walker is St. Louis' Enos "Country" Slaughter who is slated to hit in left field for the Nationals, with a .330 mark.

Coast League Bid Referred To Executives

1948 Star Contest Given To St. Louis

CHICAGO, July 8 (AP)—With the 1948 all-star game awarded to the St. Louis Browns, major league club owners and officials settled back to watch a ball game today after a series of executive sessions.

Pacific Coast league bids for recognition as a third major league on "provisional" basis were referred yesterday to the executive council which will consider exemption of Coast players from the annual player draft for the next "three to five years."

Charles Graham, president of the San Francisco club and chairman of the recognition committee of his league, also had scheduled a meeting today with commissioner A. B. Chandler, there was no indication that Chandler planned any immediate action.

Any action on the Coast league's proposal about draft exemption would have to be made before the winter meetings or it would be meaningless. The majors meet in New York in December and the draft must be held Nov. 1 according to the major-league code.

Cuban baseball men, seeking permission to use 12 major league players in their winter league, also must await action by the executive council which will consider the matter until December.

Ford Frick was re-elected president of the National league for a four-year term, the longest position under the league constitution. Frick, a former newspaperman, has been president of the league since 1934.

The National league also added a new rule providing that night games, halted by lightning failure, must be resumed at the point of stoppage at a future date and concluded as a "suspended" game.

Player representatives, Johnny Murphy of the Boston Red Sox and Dixie Walker of Brooklyn, held a one-hour session with the members of the executive council. They discussed widening of the player pension fund to credit ex-GIs with wartime service even if they had not been in the majors for the required 60 days before they went into service.

Boudreau Is High Hitter

NEW YORK, July 8 (AP)—Paced by Cleveland Manager Lou Boudreau's 350, five of the American league's top 10 credit ex-GIs with the starting lineup of today's 14th annual all-star game at Chicago while four of the National league's first 10 leading hitters will open for the Nationals.

Boudreau, who has been idle for a week due to an injury, enjoys an 11-point lead over his all-star teammate runner-up Joe DiMaggio of the New York Yankees who sports a .339 average.

Harry Walker of Philadelphia, the Nationals' starting center fielder in today's dream game, leads his league with a .335 mark, a 10 point drop from his average of a week ago.

Trailing Walker is St. Louis' Enos "Country" Slaughter who is slated to hit in left field for the Nationals, with a .330 mark.

Solon Rookie Sets Hit Pace
SAN FRANCISCO, July 8 (AP)—Clouting the ball at a .367 clip, Husky Ed Fitzgerald, prize Sacramento rookie catcher, retained his role as pace setter for Pacific Coast league batmen through games of July 6.

Talmadge Barron, 18, of Weed, was placed under contract with the New York Yankees farm system at the end of a tryout camp here. The young right-handed pitcher will go to work next spring.

Jennings Tops PPGA Qualifiers

PORTLAND, Ore., July 8 (AP)—Portland's Lou Jennings, four strokes under par for 18 holes, had a two-stroke lead on his nearest rivals today as entries in the Pacific Northwest Golf association tournament went into the second half of the 36-hole qualifying round.

Jennings posted a 36-32-68 in yesterday's opening round. Two strokes behind with 70's were Lou Stafford and Ray Weston, both of Portland, and Guy Owen, Missoula, Mont.

Defending Champion Harry Givnan, Seattle, had a 74. On the nearby Columbia-Ede-water course, Edean Anderson, a Helena, Mont., 17-year-old, stroked a one over par 77 to take medalist honors in the women's 18-hole qualifying round. Three strokes behind was the runnerup, Gracie DeMoss, Corvallis.

Bevos Have Nine Games With Padres

By the Associated Press
The customers at San Diego figure to get the most for their money this week in the Pacific Coast league.

The hometown Padres will play nine games, including three double-headers, with the Portland Beavers. The extras come from earlier postponements.

This might be the chance the seventh-place Padres need to start climbing, except that Portland is well stocked in the pitching department and perhaps better equipped for the extra sessions. The Beavers will try to pull themselves up from sixth, where they fell last week.

Those traditional rivals, Oakland and San Francisco, and Hollywood and Los Angeles, have at each other again in normal seven-game series, with the Seals and the Angels the respective hosts.

Unless Hollywood pulls the rig on them, the Angels could add substantially to their three-game lead as the Seals and Oaks further trip each other.

Seattle at Sacramento rounds out the week's bill of fare.

NO-CONTEST CALLED IN 9-9 DIAMOND TILT

With the exception of the Eagles-Reclamation game, last evening's softball program at Modoc field was a round of decisive victories, Ashleys thrashing the Elks, 15-3. Gun Store thumping the KG 14-4, and the Four Star Merchants defeating Rickys, 14-4. The tilt between the two cellar teams, Eagles and Reclamation, was declared a 9-9 no-contest by the umpire, after a hotly contested decision.

Coming into the top of the sixth, the score was 7-1 for the Eagles, when a series of walks and errors allowed the Reclamation three runs. With two away and two men on, Ronnie Dinmick, a youngster fresh out of junior high, stepped to the plate and slugged out a left field homer, tying the score at seven all.

With another man on, J. Tripp poked out another homer to put Reclamation leads out in front by two tallies. First of the seventh saw the Eagles promptly gain back two runs with a homer by Max Ruge, bringing in one man.

Reclamation filled up the bags again in the top of the seventh, and Murl Metz snaked home from third on a fumble by the catcher. The ensuing argument as to whether the steal was legal or not lasted for some 15 or 20 minutes, during which time several of the players left the park.

When the arguing was over, the umpire decided to finish the inning, but the absence of several players forced him to declare a no-contest tilt.

Gun Store blasted Louie Toucher, KC chucker, with 15 hits while Lou Evans allowed just two. Big Swede Anderson hurled Ashley to their win over the Elks and with the exception of Jimmy West's homer the Rickys squad was stopped by Everett Buck's windmill hurling for the Merchants.

Locke Leads In Playoff

CHICAGO, July 8 (AP)—The favorite club in Bobby Locke's bag is a rusty putter that looks like something captured from a tribe in the unexplored regions of his native South Africa.

The rusty relic of unknown age pulled Locke through five straight sub-par rounds in the All-American Professional Golf tournament to a 72-hole tie Sunday and yesterday enabled him to finish three strokes up on Ed "Porky" Oliver of Wilmington, Del., at the end of the first 18 holes of their 36-hole match at Tam O'Shanter Country club.

Reclamation filled up the bags again in the top of the seventh, and Murl Metz snaked home from third on a fumble by the catcher. The ensuing argument as to whether the steal was legal or not lasted for some 15 or 20 minutes, during which time several of the players left the park.
