

Tulelake Man Takes Bride In Ceremony

TULELAKE—A wedding of interest here was an event of this week in Los Angeles when Simone Colinet of Paris, France, became the bride of Dwight Hamilton, Tulelake. The couple left here last week for the home of the groom's mother immediately after the arrival of the bride-elect by air.

The groom, an ex-army engineer with 39 months' service in the European theater met his bride while on leave in Paris. The romance grew and Miss Colinet planned to arrive in America last fall. A delay in documents necessary for her trip prevented it at that time. She arrived in New York via a Dutch airliner where she was to have been met by Mrs. French Johnson who flew East.

Because of a change in flying plans, Miss Colinet failed to meet Mrs. Johnson and came West alone.

Mr. Hamilton was employed by French Johnson prior to entering the service, returning here after his discharge. He was among the veterans who drew a lotterystake for the December allotment and following their return from a wedding trip, the young couple will make their home here.

Mrs. Johnson visited en route East at Denver, Colo., Kansas City, Mo., her former home, and at North Hampton, Mass.
