lace over satin, and Vera Hasy, who was attired in a similar gown of blue. Both carried Colonial bouquets. Best man was Les Hummel, friend of the groom. Lighting tapers preceding the ceremony were Jack Kellum and John Albee, who were also ushers.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Richard received with their parents at the church immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Chinn, mother of the bride, wore a gown of white net over taffeta, with a corsage of red roses and bouvardia.

Later, close friends and relatives of the couple gathered at the home of the bride's parents. There the couple cut the first piece of their decorated wedding cake. Nan Schubert served the confection, with Mrs. Howard Strode and Vera Hasy pouring. Mrs. Pelosi and Mrs. Les Hummel were at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Jack Kellum was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left for a wedding trip which will take them to Louisiana. They will return to make their home here.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Virgil Chinn of Portland, Mrs. Z. Ellis of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Anderson of Alturas, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Pelosi of Everett, Mass.

Hostesses

Mrs. Jim Stillwell, Mrs. Art Triebwasser and Mrs. Paul Harper were hostesses for the July 9 meeting of the Jayettes, held in the chamber of commerce.

In cards, awards went to Mrs. Bill Rice, Mrs. Bev Driggs, Mrs. Kenneth Garvin, Mrs. Everett Ball, and Mrs. Stillwell.

Plans were formed for a family picnic to be held on July 24. One guest, Mrs. Charles Garrison of Orlando, Fla., was present.

Other members attending were Mrs. Fred Biehn, Mrs. Chet Hamacher, Mrs. Gene Williams, Mrs. Wesley Guderian, Mrs. William Jeffcoat, Mrs. Elton Smith, Mrs. Cleve Hooper, Mrs. John W. Rice, Mrs. Al Longe, Mrs. Norman Guyer, Mrs. Layton Slight, Mrs. Ray Ward, Mrs. Maurice T. Miller, Mrs. M. Kierluff and Mrs. Forrest Alter.

Legion Picnic

MERRILL—An outstanding event of the holiday here was the picnic sponsored by the American Legion. At 11 o'clock, free lunch was served. During the afternoon, many games and contests were held. There were foot races, bicycle races, an egg-throwing contest and a baseball game. Mrs. Louisa Icebence received the special award.

At 6 o'clock picnickers gathered around bonfires for a wiener roast. After dark the fireworks display was held, lasting about two hours and featuring every type of fireworks obtainable. Free balloons were distributed among the children.

Lloyd Hughey and Murry Howard presided over the tables where the food was served and Hughey was director in charge of the events of the day.

Merchants and others who donated prizes, food and money were Tulelake chamber of commerce, Loyal Order of Moose, IOOF, Smoke shop, VFW, Malin chamber of commerce, Midway Motors, Merrill garage, Merrill Machine Works, Merrill Lumber company, Merrill Builders, Merrill Clothing store, Valley Service station, Shell Oil distributors, Chevron station, Reeves, Jones grocery, Murphey's market, Hodges' grocery, Safeway store, Harris Machine shop, Union Oil distributors, Union Service station, First National bank, Ben Franklin store, Oregon Trading post, Signal station, Johnnie's place, Shuck brothers, Sharp Grain company, Castleman's pharmacy, Dr. F. E. Trotman, Mark's cafe, Connie's beauty salon, Stronghold cafe, Pacific Co-op and the Idle Hour cafe.

The picnic was declared a huge success by all who attended and it is hoped such an event will be held here again next year.

Order Of Antelope Object Of Expose

From where we're sitting it looks like high time the women of the community found out what's what. For 12 years they've heard about the "Order of the Antelope," the "Blue Sky hotel," the "Hart Mountain convention" and other mystic tales from the male population, all revolving around the group of men who take off for the wilds of Lake county about this time every year.

Unbeknown to the Antelopes, we sneaked a quick look at one of the organization's periodicals the other day and found to our dismay this startling bit:

"Oh, give me a life Far away from my wife, Where my fears and my woes fade away: Where with cusswords and gin, I can wallow in sin, And have evil intentions all day.

"Home, home on the range, Where the deer and the antelope play, Where in ornery ease, I can do as I please, And waste my existence in play.

"How often at night, With their cards running right, Have I stolen the funds of my pals, And left them amazed With their eyes dull and glazed, And their hides tacked along the corral.

"Home, home on the range, O, tis not as the poet hath sung, Where the sage tick holds away And the rattlesnakes play, With the horse thieves that ought to be hung."

Unfortunately, we were not able to secure any more of this tid bit, of which there are several more verses, presumably to be sung while one is lolling beside a camp fire, clicking one's spurs in the air, and scaring the wild creatures with whoops and wails.

Originally, there were supposed to be eight verses of men joining the order's escapades, but now, the will of woman being what it is, we hope our expose will take effect—let the chips fall where they may!

Lora Evans received the special award. The place of the next meeting will be announced later.

ONE YEAR OLD is young Fred Byron Eck Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eck of 427 Commercial. He celebrated his first birthday on June 4. —Kennell-Ellis.
