

St. Paul's Is Scene Of Sunday Nuptials

Barbara Lorber, daughter of Mrs. Dean Gillock of this city and George Lorber of Sacramento, became the bride of Roy Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cook of Klamath Falls, in a ceremony on Sunday, June 29. The Rev. Frederick C. Wisenbach read the service at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Palms, tapers and white gladioli formed the setting for the rites. Mrs. Samuel A. Amschen played the traditional wedding marches and "Because" and accompanied Marie Rogers, who sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with a lace and braid trim at the neckline, long fitted sleeves, and a full skirt, gathered at the waistline, and with insets of lace in the long train. Her veil was held in place with a tiara of white braid. On her white prayer book she carried a single white orchid with matching satin ribbon streamers.

Mrs. William Roufs, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Her long gown was of light blue and she carried a Colonial nosegay of pink. In her hair she wore a crown of carnations with a short veil.

Dixie Gillock, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her gown was of pink and she carried a bouquet and wore a headpiece similar to those of the matron of honor. Little Mary Coffman, kowled in white organza and carrying white flowers, was the flower girl, with Billie Jamieson, cousin of the groom, ring bearer.

Mrs. Gillock, mother of the bride, wore a frock of blue with white accessories, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Cook, chose an afternoon dress of pink with black accessories. Each wore a corsage of seasonal flowers.

The ceremony was read at Reno, Nev. Mrs. Givan is the sister of Mrs. Hanan and Mr. Givan, son of Mrs. Tiny Griffin, both of Bly.

IN A DOUBLE WEDDING read at the Immanuel Baptist church in Midland, Euphonia Switzer became the bride of Carroll Mistler, and Ella Jones exchanged vows with Luther Slawter. Mr. and Mrs. Mistler will make their home in Oakland, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Slawter will reside in Eugene.

BPW Group

Homemade strawberry shortcake was one of the highlights of a recent meeting of the recreational group of the Business and Professional Women's club. The group met at the home of Mrs. Phil Brixner on Lakeshore drive Tuesday evening, July 2. After picking strawberries, they went on a short hike in the hills behind Lakeshore drive, returning to the Brixner garden for dessert.

The recreation group was recently formed for BPW members interested in participating in sports. Members enjoy horseback riding every Tuesday evening and bowl each Friday evening. Co-chairmen are Dorothy Buck and Lois Smith.

Those present at the Brixner home were Anna Struthers, Gertrude Toile, Loye Smith, Eva Lea Long, Lucile Tweed, Lorraine Quillen, Joy Biggs and hostess, Mrs. Brixner.

Double Rites

BLY—A double wedding was the event of Wednesday, July 9, when Lauretta Griffin became the bride of Wayne Smith, and Beverly Hanan, the bride of Gordon Givan. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Nelson of Bly and Mr. Smith, the son of Mrs. Lillian Osborn of Pasadena, Calif.

The ceremony was read at Reno, Nev. Mrs. Givan is the sister of Mrs. Hanan and Mr. Givan, son of Mrs. Tiny Griffin, both of Bly.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Cook left for a wedding trip in Sacramento, Calif., returning to make their home in Lenox addition. For traveling the bride wore a suit of deep rose with white accessories, and the orchid carried during the ceremony was pinned at the shoulder.

The bride was graduated this spring from Klamath Union high school and the groom was discharged last fall from army service.

Ceremonies

MERRILL—Sixteen members of the Merrill Women of the Moose, chapter 18, motored to Medford, June 26, to assist with installation ceremonies for the Medford chapter. About 50 brothers of the Local Order of Moose were guests. Earl Wood, deputy supreme governor of the Moose, gave an interesting and instructive lecture on the activities of the fraternity. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Merrill chapter No. 18 met July 1, in the lower PGE hall. Congratulations awarded the year's free dues. The auditing and executive committee met at the home of Esther Johnson, July 2, to conduct special business.

Bridge Party

A delightful evening of bridge was enjoyed Wednesday, July 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Houser on Lakeshore drive. Co-hostesses, Mrs. Houser and Mrs. Orville Hamilton, entertained for Mrs. Percy Webb of St. Helens.

Honors in bridge were taken by Mrs. Robert O. Sprout, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Verne Moore and Mrs. Frank Bogatay.

Guests included Mrs. Joe Bally, Mrs. John Schubert, Robert Elliott, Mrs. William Solga, Mrs. William Westover, Mrs. Roy Whytal, Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Sprout, Mrs. Bogatay and honor guest, Mrs. Webb.

Parade Winner

The Eagles auxiliary held a regular meeting Tuesday evening, July 8, in the lower PGE hall. Congratulations were in order for the auxiliary drum corps which received first prize in the 4th of July parade. Mrs. Davig was initiated.

After the meeting next Tuesday, there will be a shower for Mrs. Pauline Debee.

All drill team members are urged to be present July 15 to elect a captain. Members of the auxiliary are asked to bring a covered dish for a potluck supper to be served after the meeting.

Legion Group Sets Vacation Period

MALIN—That September will be the vacation month, instead of August, for the Malin American Legion was decided at the group's Monday evening meeting, July 7. The group met at the Malin church with a new corps of officers filling the chairs.

A committee to audit the secretary's books for the fiscal year was appointed with Helen Loosley, Nell Irwin and Hazel Kalina chosen. Abbie Herringshaw, unit secretary, presented a history of the unit since its founding in 1938.

The membership voted to invite the Malin Legion to join in the refreshment and social hour after each meeting. A committee of three will serve each month. Grace Stephens, Ethel Roberts and Abbie Herringshaw will serve for the August 4 meeting.

The delegates to the state convention held in Portland gave a report at the meeting and the president mentioned the working together of the American Legion and the auxiliary on the rehabilitation and child welfare work. Irene Freitag, Grace Stephens, Abbie Herringshaw and Ethel Roberts attended the convention.

The district gavel bell was won by the Malin unit for the third time and will now have permanent possession of it. The bell was won previously in 1939, 1943, and 1944.

Reports on girl's state were presented by Marie Bunge and Frankie Phillips. Motion pictures were also shown of the camp at Silver Creek falls, where the girls state was held.

Refreshments were served by Agnes Schreiner to Irene Freitag, Grace Stephens, Nettie Pierce, Abbie Herringshaw, Martha Brothman, Ethel Roberts, Agnes Schreiner, Helen Loosley, Leah Street, Anna Petrasek, Inez Fallihue, Elizabeth Paagy, Ila Bunge, Barbara Bunge, Nell Irwin, Margie Bunge, Frankie Phillips and Hazel Kalina.
