

Rites Solemnized In June Service

Vieta Garret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Garret of Tulelake, exchanged vows with Marion Rasmusen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rasmusen of Portland, in a ceremony read at 4 o'clock, Saturday, July 5. The Rev. Hugh Bronson of Tulelake read the nuptials in the First Presbyterian church of Klamath Falls.

White gladioli and palms formed the setting for the service with lighted tapers illuminating the church.

Traditional wedding music was played as the bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white satin and lace with a short train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls. The bride carried an arm bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Jean Dyer of Tulelake, friend of the bride. Her gown was of blue, and she carried a bouquet of pink gladioli. Mildred Reed of Tulelake and Doris Aiken of Ashland were bridesmaids. Miss Reed wore pink and Miss Aiken contrasting bouquets of pink and blue daisies.

Elmer Garret, brother of the bride, was best man, and ushers were James Marchitti of Seattle, and Merle Currington of Portland.

Little flower girls were Charlotte King and Edna Maharry, and Carol Ann Trumbly, cousin of the bride, of Tacoma, was ring bearer. Each wore white.

Mrs. Garret, mother of the bride, and the groom's mother wore afternoon dresses of black with pink accessories and corsages of pink carnations.

A reception was held in the garden of the Garret home at Tulelake with close friends and relatives attending. Serving was Miss Dyer, and the bridesmaids poured.

After August 1, the couple will be at home in Portland. For traveling, Mrs. Rasmusen wore a dress-maker suit of peach shade with black accessories and a red rosebud corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Southern Oregon college at Ashland, class of 1947, and the groom attended Pacific university at Forest Grove.
