Wheat Shows Big Gains

CHICAGO, July 19 (AP)—Trade advices that the Commodity Credit corporation was inquiring for wheat in the Southwest caused aggressive buying of bread cereal futures on the board of trade today. Feed grains also spurted, with corn aided by comparatively cool weather in the Midwest.

According to trade reports, the CCC asked for offers of wheat at prices below former buying levels. The last price paid by the government agency in the Southwest was $2.23½ a bushel. Late Wednesday the CCC withdrew from the market, taking no wheat since that date.

Wheat closed 3 to 4¾ cents higher, July $2.37⅞, corn was 3¼ to 4 cents higher, July $2.16¼, and oats were 1¼ to 1⅝ higher, July $1.01½-1.01½.

Fire Burning Near Sisters

By the Associated Press

Forest fire hazard remained high in Eastern and Southwestern Oregon today as a crew of 200 encircled the only sizeable blaze in the state.

Ten miles south of Sisters at the edge of the Deschutes national forest, fire yesterday threatened to get out of hand and it spread to nearly 70 acres of Brooks Scanlon company slashings before a line was put around it early today. A strong southwest wind pushed the flames along in the early hours of the fight, but it died down late at night.

As the humidity dropped, temperatures soared. Eastern Oregon continued in the grip of a heat wave expected to keep the mercury between 95 and 100 degrees. Medford's forecast was for a top of 95 today, but elsewhere lower readings were in prospect with forecast maximums of 89 at Klamath Falls, 86 in the Willamette valley, 85 in the Columbia gorge and 74 along the coast.

Merger Move To Cut Expenses

WASHINGTON, July 19 (AP)—Rep. Manasco (D-Ala.) told the house today that unification of the armed services would help cut down on the "jealousies, the bickering and back-biting now going on between officers of the army and navy."

Manasco spoke as the house began consideration of legislation to set up the air forces as a separate branch of service and place it, the army and navy under a single civilian cabinet officer. The senate already has passed similar legislation.

Human Iceberg Escaping Heat Wave

Unconcernedly looking at the cameraman, Wes Guderian, from the confines of his ice house is Jack Armstrong, about to begin a 50-minute incarceration. Jack has been doing this since Thursday before curious crowds at Sears, Roebuck and Co. He will slide in for the last time this afternoon, and will take a few days off before appearing in the same act in Bend. It has been hot in Klamath Falls, but most spectators agreed Jack was beating the heat the hard way.

School Head Plans Trip

City School Superintendent Arnold L. Gralapp will travel north next week in an attempt to secure more teachers to complete elementary school staffs for this fall in the most acute teacher shortage the city system has yet faced.

Gralapp said today that the major portion of teaching positions have been filled, but four major spots remain open in the elementary schools and two in Klamath Union high school. He added that the hardest hit by the teacher shortage this year is the elementary system.

The high cost of moving household furnishings and belongings from one city to another is a prominent reason for the lack of teachers in this section and throughout the country, but the still extreme scarcity of housing stands as the major reason.

Gralapp's trip north will take him to Eugene and Corvallis, homes of the University of Oregon and Oregon State college respectively, the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, and the state teacher placement service at Portland.

The county school office reports that the situation is somewhat improved over last year in the county system with most teaching positions filled.

Alturas Nine Juniors' Foe

The Sons of Italy baseball teams will play two games tomorrow, one on the home diamond and another up in the mountains at McCloud.

The Recreation field game will be between the Junior Sons and Alturas Bulldogs, a regular Interstate league game, at 2:30. The Alturas nine defeated the Juniors in the opening game of this season.

Jay Quigley, mainstay of the Juniors' mound staff, is scheduled to take the hill for Klamath.

The Klamath Sons of the Northern California league will come up against the McCloud Loggers for the first time this season tomorrow afternoon at McCloud. A previous meeting was rained out here. McCloud boasts an up-and-down team which holds two wins over Medford, but which last week was drubbed by Weed, 23 to 9.

Junior Tennis Laurels Kept

RIVER FOREST, Ill., July 19 (AP) Buddy Behrens of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Doris Jensen of Des Moines, Ia., both successfully defended their titles in junior singles of the River Forest tennis open yesterday.

Behrens took a straight set victory over Dick Mouledous of New Orleans, 6-2, 6-1, to win his second crown while Miss Jensen downed Barbara Beckel of Peoria, Ill., 6-2, 6-1.

Al Hetzeck of Hamtramck, Mich., and Tony Trabert of Cincinnati captured the doubles title in an upset of Behrens and Mouledous—ranked No. 2 in national junior doubles—12-10, 6-3.

Ranch Suit Filed Here

A lawsuit for possession of large ranch holdings in the far northern end of Klamath county, plus $500 damages, has been filed with the circuit clerk by J. W. C. Pogue against Frank Glanville.

The ranch is located about four miles south of the Deschutes county line and to the west of The Dalles-California highway.

Pogue's complaint says he entered into a contract of purchase of the place from Howard Mayfield on June 15, 1942, and that Mayfield placed a warranty deed in escrow to be delivered upon payment of the purchase price.

Pogue declares that he is entitled to possession of the property, but that Granville is there and Granville's possession of the premises since June 23, 1947, is worth $500 in damages.

Harry Boivin is the attorney for Pogue.

Police Seek Suspect In Sex Slaying

SAN DIEGO, July 19 (AP)—A dark-haired man who has impersonated naval officers and FBI agents in night clubs was hunted today for questioning concerning the slaying of Mrs. Marian Davidson Newton, found strangled and apparently raped a few hours after she left a night club Wednesday night in company of a man fitting the suspect's description. His name in known.

Police Lt. Ed Dieckmann announced that an all-points pickup had been broadcast for the suspect, described as 26 years old, about 5 feet, 8 inches tall and traveling in a black or maroon coupe. Dieckmann would not divulge where identification of the man came from.

Mrs. Newton, 36, auburn-haired, Vancouver, B. C., divorcee, was found dead in a clump of bushes atop an ocean cliff park on the northern city limits late Thursday. Her clothes were torn and evidence indicated she had been hurled from an automobile. Her purse was found in another section of the city.

Lt. Ed Dieckmann, head of the police homicide squad, said the case was "another barroom pickup and murder," it following the general pattern of eight other deaths, beginning with that of Elizabeth Short, so-called "Black Dahlia," in Los Angeles.

Police believe Mrs. Newton went from the night club with a dark-haired man. A companion of the woman, Edna Mitchell, said she had left the club earlier and did not know the man except by sight.

Police yesterday questioned a navy sailor and a marine and also said they would like to obtain information from a man with whom Mrs. Newton recently posed for a photograph in Tiajuana, Mexico.

Standard Raps Oil Rumors

CHICAGO, July 19 (AP)—Standard Oil company (Indiana) said today the oil industry "should not allow the impression to exist that oil shipments to Russia are responsible for current supply difficulties in the United States."

In a letter to employees, the company stated that for the last several months the United States had been importing more oil than it had exported, and that U. S. shipments to Russia had been at a rate of less than 1500 barrels a day this year as compared with an average rate of 6889 barrels daily for 1946.

"The oil shortage in the Middle West would not have been lessened if no oil had been shipped to Russia," the company said. "The main difficulty here is lack of transportation facilities to bring oil in from other areas."

Morgan Claims Yacht Trophy

HONOLULU, July 19 (AP)—Each passing hour gave Comedian Frank Morgan a firmer hold today on his claim to the governor of Hawaii cup, to be presented the winner of the 2500-mile California to Hawaii yacht race.

On the handicap basis, Morgan's 70-foot schooner Dolphin II had defeated 23 of 34 entrants at an early hour this morning. None of the remaining contenders was reported in a position to challenge the Dolphin's lead.

Four more yachts went out of the running during the night. They were Lady Jo, Louis Abrams, Honolulu Yacht club; Emerald, G. Walter Skow, Newport Harbor Y. C.; Anacapa, Jules Voerge, Berkeley Y. C., and Lucky Star, H. B. Hobson, Waikiki Y. C.

Diamond Lake Still Producing

Fly-fishing is taking the fore in Southern Oregon rod circles and according to reports gleaned from local sporting goods shops, other methods have been all but eliminated for the time being.

Hottest reports are still coming from Diamond lake, with many good catches reported by fly-fishing. East, Fish and both Twin lakes are very popular and Wicklup reservoir is coming in for its share of attention.

The Rogue river is said to be producing fairly consistently with flies, and Lake o' the Woods is becoming popular for bass. Four Mile is reportedly good for still fishing in the early morning, and the Williamson is spasmodically producing with good luck reported by some and poor by others.

Prize Winners—The small boy and girl who appeared in the 4th of July parade costumed as an Irish couple were awarded a prize but their names are not known. They are asked to contact the Lost River dairy to receive the award.
