

Cardinals Plot Stretch Finish

Fifteen Newcomers Officially Welcomed Into Hall of Fame at Cooperstown

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball fans are hereby given fair warning to be prepared for another hectic down-to-the-wire finish in the National League pennant race with the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals once again assuming the leading roles.

Despite the Brooks' handsome four-game bule—six and a half over the fourth-place Redbirds—the Cardinals are not as bad off as first glance would seem to imply. The schedule is heavily in their favor.

Of the four chief contenders—Brooklyn, New York, Boston and St. Louis—the Cards have the most games left to play at home—38. The Giants have 30, the Braves 28 and the Dodgers have the least number of all, 26.

The Dodgers staged a temporary farewell party at Ebbets field yesterday by knocking off the Cincinnati Reds in both ends of a double-header, 7-4 and 4-3. Catcher Bruce Edwards was the big gun for the Brooks, driving in four runs in the opening victory and knocking in the winning run in the nightcap with a ninth inning single.

The Dodgers were forced to come from behind in each game, much to the delight of 38,000 cash customers making up the largest home attendance of the season.

Pete Reiser, the hard-luck champion, bruised his left shoulder when he fell fielding an inside-the-park homer in the first game, and was forced to retire. Examination showed no fracture. Reiser is expected to be out for three or four days.

In the only other game played in the majors yesterday, the Phillies whipped the Pirates in Pittsburgh in a night game 8-1 to stay out of the National League cellar.

No other teams were scheduled, although the New York Yankees met the Boston Braves in the annual Hall of Fame game at Cooperstown, N. Y., with the Braves eking out a 4-3 decision in 10 innings.

Before the game 15 newcomers were officially welcomed into baseball's Hall of Fame. They were Ed Walsh, Kube Waddell, Joe Tinker, Johnny Evers, Frank Chance, Eddie Plank, Tom McCarthy, Jesse Burkett, Jack Chesbro, Iron Man Joe McGinnity, Clark Griffith, Carl Hubbell, Frank Frisch, Lefty Bob Grove and Mickey Cochrane.

Will Not Fire At Peoria

John West Jr., one of the best young golfers in Klamath Falls and the state of Oregon, may not attend the National Junior Amateur golf tourney in Peoria, Ill., leaving only two of the four Oregon entries filled. West will be unable to get time off from work to make the long trip. Dick Ester, sponsored by the Portland Jayvees, and Spike Beeber by the Klamath Falls Jayvees, are the two entrants from this state.

Publinx Scores Too High, 38 Berths Still Left Open

MINNEAPOLIS, July 22 (AP)—It was bring that score down or miss the championship flight for some 150 public fee-course golfers today as the national public links tournament went into the final qualifying figures. Figuring that it will take a 36-hole score of about 151 or better to get into the pairings for match play which starts Wednesday, there were about 26 who appeared almost certain of a place. Those 26 scored 73 or better in the first 18 holes of qualifying yesterday.

DiMag Assumes AL Stick Lead

NEW YORK, July 22 (AP)—Harry (Little Dixie) Walker of the Philadelphia Phillies continued to pace the National League hitters today but Lou Boudreau, playing manager of the Cleveland Indians, lost his American League leadership to Joe DiMaggio of the New York Yankees. Walker, the fleet ballhawk brother of big Dixie of the Brooklyn Dodgers, banged out nine hits in 22 times at bat during the span through Sunday's games to boost his average from .341 to .346. DiMaggio clubbed six hits in his last four games, while Boudreau was held to three safeties in 11 trips to the plate, to pass Lou, 340 to 337.

Dancers Capture Initial Contest

PORTLAND, July 22 (AP)—The McElroy's Ballroom and Rialto Billiards, both of Portland's City League, captured first round victories last night as the 12th annual Oregon semi-pro baseball tournament got underway here at Westmoreland field. McElroy's defeated Timber Structures, 5-1, and Rialto's Jerry Barts pitched a two-hit 6 to 2 victory over Sunset Pioneers of the Tualatin league. Tonight's schedule pits Hollywood and Hillsboro and Forest Grove against Byerly's Sporting Goods.

Pair Of Games On Y Docket

Two titles are on the YMCA docket for tonight, with the Zion Lutherans and LDS slated to fight it out at the high school in a league play and the First Christians and First Baptist B's scheduled to play at Mills school. Last evening, the still undefeated First Baptist A squad continued their winning streak with a 14-9 victory over the Nazarenes and the First Baptist B's edged the First Christians, 8-7.

Jackson Spars To Downbeat In Gym Drill

Bay Area Fighter Ready For Ginger

Working out briefly last night at the Salvation Army gym in preparation for his main event fight at the armory this evening, Emery Jackson of San Francisco strutted his stuff to boogie-woogie music via record player—a new wrinkle in sharpening up a fighter's timing. Jackson is the opponent for Jack (Ginger) Snapp of Merrill in the armory card's feature attraction, 10 rounds, middleweight division. He holds one decision over Snapp and it was his timing that accounted for it. Jackson outboxed Ginger in their Portland mix.

Last night the bay area colored boy spent a few minutes shadow boxing to the beat of assorted hot licks from the phonograph, mauled the light bag a while, did some rope skipping, then declaring himself ready for tonight's encounter.

He looks to be a cagy boxer, one that will be hard to hit although Snapp is credited with having the lustier punch. The boys will go in at catch weights, both right on or near the 160-pound middleweight top.

Jackson arrived in town yesterday accompanied by Jimmie Simmons, his trainer. Snapp has been around for a week, since his last fight in Seattle.

Monte Montgomery was also working out at the gym last night, getting ready for his semi-windup lightweight scrap with Hal Fries of Salem. That will be a five-rounder.

Fries is one of two lads coming down from the capital city for appearances on the card. The other is Welterweight Dean Abbey, who will tangle with Phil Sampson, late of Reno and now living in Klamath Falls. Their bout is also scheduled for five stanzas.

One other bout is posted for the card, and still another may be added to open the docket. The other sure thing is a four-round middleweight meeting between Dick Wolfe of Alturas and Billy Sunday of Chiloquin.

The bouts start at 8:30 and the armory ticket office is open for general admission tickets an hour earlier at 7:30.

STOREY'S GRAND SLAM GIVES BEAVERS WIN

By The Associated Press
Seattle's Rainiers stood at their highest point of the season in Pacific Coast league play—sole possession of fourth place—after splitting a double header with their northwest rivals at Portland. The two clubs wound up their 12-game marathon with Portland taking the opener 11-7 and Seattle coming back in the finale 9-5. The split jumped Seattle a half game ahead of Sacramento which dropped an 8-2 decision to San Francisco. They were the night's only games.

Canadian Marks Not Defended

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 22 (AP)—"Business reasons" brought about the only upset of the Canadian tennis championships yesterday as the week-long tournament got under way at the Vancouver lawn tennis club. Morey Lewis of Texarkana, Ark., who with his wife, Baba, holds four senior Canadian titles, wired that the couple could not attend. Lewis holds the singles and co-holds the mixed doubles; Mrs. Lewis holds singles and is co-owner of the women's doubles.
