

Bride-Elect Feted At Recent Shower

LANGELL VALLEY—A lovely event of Thursday, July 17, was a pre-nuptial shower honoring Doris Leavitt, bride-elect of Roy A. Hodges of Bonanza. Hostesses were Genevieve Smith, Alma Embrey and Mary Anne Smith. Scene of the party was the Walter Smith home.

Summer flowers in pastel shades were arranged about the room. A gardenia corsage was presented to Miss Leavitt by Nonie Pepple of Klamath Falls. Gifts were piled high before the fireplace.

Betty Pepple received the contest prize. A pretty wedding cake, topped with a bride and groom, made by Mary Anne Smith, was cut by the honored guest.

Refreshments were served late in the afternoon to Miss Leavitt, Cora Leavitt, Mary Dearborn, Sara A. Hodges, Mercy Johnson, Carolyn Dearborn, Helen Chatburn, Marie Hodges, Grace Dearborn, Billie Gresham, June Shuck, Margaret Burnett, Margaret Dearborn, Rebecca House, Betty Pepple, Noma Bechold, Lela Murray, Bessie Franz, Kay House.

Following their recent golden wedding celebration, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Reid took a golden honeymoon trip, covering over 5000 miles by rail.

The honeymooners went to Chicago from here, then to Niagara Falls, traditional honeymoon spot, to New York and to St. Johns City, New Brunswick.

Leaving New Brunswick they went to Montreal, Canada, and took the Canadian Pacific to Lake Louise, Banff, through the Canadian Rockies to Vancouver and down the west coast to home.

Before making their trip the Reids sold their business, the Palace of Sweets on E. Main, and their home there. They are now residing at the Victory apartments until their new home is built, near the Crystal steam baths on E. Main, of which Reid is a partner. They returned from their trip Monday.

Social Group

The Carnation club, social organization of the Degree of Honor, met for reorganization Wednesday, July 16, with 19 members and two guests attending. Estelle Smith was elected president, Ruth Matthews, vice president and Dorothy Derreh, secretary. The minutes since the club was organized in 1927 were read and provided much amusement. It was decided to meet on the third Wednesday of each month in the future. Several interesting games were played, and the hostesses served refreshments later in the evening.
