

Fairgrounds Meet Series Scheduled

Combining religion and international topics, Dr. Dan Gilbert of Washington, D. C., will speak at the Klamath fairgrounds July 29 through August 1. Starting Tuesday evening, and continuing each afternoon at 2:30 p. m. and each evening at 7:45 p. m. Dr. Gilbert will speak on the following subjects:

- Tuesday, 7:45 p. m. — "Inside Washington, D. C.—the adventures of a Christian newspaper man inside the nation's capitol."
- Wednesday, 2:30 p. m.—"Is Russia getting ready to invade Palestine?"
- 7:45 p. m.—"How Bible prophecy sets the date for the outbreak of World War III."
- Thursday, 2:30 p. m.—"The origin, career and destiny of the United Nations organization — as described in Bible prophecy."
- 7:45 p. m.—"From Atheism to Christ — or how I became a Christian."
- Friday, 2:30 p. m. — "Communism's secret plan to destroy America."
- 7:45 p. m. — "Hell over Hollywood—the truth about the movies."

These services are under the auspices of the Klamath county Youth for Christ organization and are sponsored with the cooperation of the following churches: Assembly of God, Bible Baptist, Calvary Baptist, Christian church, Immanuel Baptist, First Covenant church, Church of God, Klamath Temple, Free Methodist church, Nazarene church and the Pilgrim Holiness church.

Rites Mark Laying Of Cornerstone

Cornerstone for the new building of the Zion Lutheran church was laid July 13 at a ceremony conducted by the Rev. Victor A. Schulze. Present at the service were, left to right, the Rev. Schulze, E. J. Blind, H. A. Burkhard, Mrs. M. M. Ward, Gottfried Neubert, A. Ronfeld and H. W. Lietzke. The cornerstone was presented to the congregation by Mrs. Ward and laid by Joe Robustelli. The new structure is being built at 11th and High streets. —The Shutter Shop

Lutherans Plan Picnic

The annual Sunday school and congregational picnic of the Klamath Lutheran church is slated for Sunday, July 27, at Moore park. There will not be Sunday school or worship at the church but open air services will be conducted by the Rev. S. M. Topness at the park at 11 a. m. Those desiring transportation or having extra room in their cars are asked to meet at the church at 10:30 a. m.

Each family should bring table service and sandwiches, and a dish to pass. Coffee and cream will be furnished by the brotherhood, which is in charge of arrangements. There will be treats for the children and games and races in the afternoon. Members and friends of the church are invited.

CHURCH NEWS

Nazarenes Hear College Speaker

Clara M. Cristensen of Northwestern Nazarene college at Nampa, Ida., will be the guest speaker for the local Church of the Nazarene Sunday.

Miss Cristensen comes to Klamath Falls as youth worker conducting a vacation Bible school at the local Nazarene church which will continue through Friday, August 1.

Miss Cristensen is professor of voice at the Northwest Nazarene college. Before coming to the Northwest she taught in a number of colleges in the United States and Canada, as well as specializing in youth work during vacation periods. The public is given a cordial invitation to hear Miss Cristensen at the Nazarene church, Martin and Garden.

Convent Bible School To Open
The closing exercises of the Daily Vacation Bible school will be held at the First Covenant church, 823 Walnut, Sunday evening, July 27, at 7:45 p. m. The teachers of the various age groups will lead their children in exercises which will give to parents and friends who attend an idea of what has been done during these ten days of school. Awards for perfect attendance, for bringing the most new pupils, and Bible school certificates will be given to the children at the close of the exercises.
