

Lecture Hour Is Feature Of Meet

Midland — A group of Midland grange members attended grange at Fort Klamath Tuesday, July 15. In charge of the lecture hour was Mrs. E. Travers who was assisted by the youth group of the Midland grange. Refreshments were served to 60 members and visitors by the Fort Klamath grange.

Those attending from the Midland grange were Grange Master and Mrs. Lyle Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Milani, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Milani, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Flowers, Mr. and Mrs. August Andrieu, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Soto, Mrs. James Flowers, Mrs. Edna Travers, Kenneth Milligan, Angela Milani, Jay Mundlin, Mrs. C. Derby and son, Miss Derby, Kenneth Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Andrieu, Mrs. Roy Huff, Mrs. McGilvery, Kenneth Gilvery, Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Sehorn and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sutton.

Other recent activities of the Midland grange include a gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Andrieu. Pinochle was played with high women's score going to Mrs. Lee Sutton, and high score for men to Jess Walker. Low score went to Mrs. Francis Flowers and August Andrieu. Ernest Jacobson received the special award.

Six tables of bridge were in play at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Andrieu, Saturday, July 12. High woman's prize went to Mrs. Leon Andrieu and high man's prize went to Verlin Huff. Mrs. Campbell and Joe Milani received low scores. Special award went to James Flowers.

About 40 members of the Midland grange attended a picnic held Sunday, July 20, at Orr lake, below Mount Hebron, Calif.

New Officers

Members of the Rebekah Social club met on the lawn at the home of Alma Cofer, 1017 High, on Wednesday, July 23, for a potluck picnic. Election of officers followed the luncheon, and all the present officers were reinstated. They are Lora Evans, president; Nettie Good, vice president, and Arlo Andrus, secretary-treasurer. New names were drawn for the secret pals, and the pals of the past year revealed themselves with small gifts.

The next meeting, August 13, will also be a picnic at the home of Berenice McCracken of 3631 Homedale.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wickersham and Louisa Brandt entertained guests from Illinois during the past week. Visiting Klamath Falls were Mr. and Mrs. Art Larson and Mrs. Margaret Lind of Rockford, Ill., and Amelia Menten of Dixon, Illinois.

YOUNG DENNIS Lundgren Peck celebrated his fifth birthday on July 20 with a party at his home, route 3 box 415. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Peck.

Joint Picnic

Catholic Daughters of America and Knights of Columbus held a joint picnic at the gravel pit on Sunday, July 20, and a total of 100 people was checked in at the gate by the Knights of Columbus committee. This was the largest group picnic to be held there for several years. It was outstanding in that it was more than twice the number ever to attend a Daughters and Knights picnic in recent years and the committees in charge of arrangements merit a vote of appreciation for their excellent work in organization.

Cokes, coffee, cream and sugar and ice cream were furnished by the club and the rest of the menu served at noon, was potluck. Swimming, horseshoes and ball games were enjoyed throughout the day, with the third and fourth degree teams of the Knights of Columbus playing early in the afternoon and later there was a game between the third degree team of the Knights and the Catholic Daughters. The umpire was Vincent Clapp.

Kathleen Maguire was chairman of the committee of Catholic Daughters and she was assisted by Phillis Mahoney, Marie Edwards, Elaine Abbott, Geraldine McGinnis, Phyllis Smith, Katie Bruner and Emilie Miller. Head of the Knights committee was Bernard Garske, and others on the committee were Paul Newman, Larry Fickett, George Seymour, Bernard Carrier, Eddie Canton, Bob Brady and Otto Smith.

Guests Feted

BLY — On Thursday, July 17, Helen Smith entertained a group of friends with a bridge party in honor of Mrs. W. C. Wheeler of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Carl Armstrong of Seattle, Wash. The honor guests have been visitors at the Spike Armstrong home.

Two tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon with high score going to Mrs. Carl Armstrong, traveling to Mrs. W. Wheeler, and consolation to Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell.

Refreshments were served to Betty Hyde, Betty Armstrong, Lynn Kendall, Fay Schoenberg, Elizabeth Campbell, the honor guests, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Wheeler, and the hostess, Mrs. Smith.

Word has been received here of the birth of a daughter, their first child, to Mr. and Mrs. James H. Ferguson of Sacramento, Calif. The little girl, named Margaret Ann, was born July 20. Her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ferguson of 3440 Cannon, and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harvey of the Keno highway.

ENGAGED is Doris Stump, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arma Stump of 529 N. 10th street. She will become the bride of Jim Roberson, son of Mrs. Onnie Fitzgerald, 3326 Derby street, on August 9.

BEFORE AN ALTAR banked with flowers, Marjorie Mauldin became the bride of Robert Powell at the First Presbyterian church recently. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Corinne Mauldin of Klamath Falls and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Powell of Tulelake. Following a trip along the coast, they are at home in Tulelake.

Late June Rites Read-In East

Friends here recently learned of the wedding of Kay Herrick, daughter of Mrs. Thomas O. Herrick and the late Mr. Herrick of Sedalia, Mo., who visited in Klamath Falls with her aunt, Mrs. P. D. Schroeder a few years ago, making many friends during her stay.

Miss Herrick became the bride of Mahlon E. Rhoads Jr. in a late June ceremony read at the First Christian church of Sedalia. Rev. Edgar L. Knight read the ceremony. Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, who performed the ceremony at the marriage of the bride's parents, gave the benediction.

Many candles lighted the altar as the bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Warren Herrick, who gave her in marriage. Her gown was of white satin with herringbone net skirt, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline inset with white net, and a court train. A halo of orange blossoms fastened her long, bridal illusion net veil. Her bouquet was of Easter lilies in a shower arrangement.

Mrs. Webb Foster of Denver, Colo., was her sister's matron of honor. Her gown was of pale green net over taffeta with a bouffant skirt. Her shoulder-length veil was of the same net, and she wore lace mitts. Another sister, Mrs. M. L. McClain of Chicago, Ill., was gowned in yellow and Maxine Mertel wore orchid. Each carried gladioli tinted to match their gowns.

Mary Katherine Herrick, niece of the bride, was flower girl, in a gown of pink identical to the bridesmaids. Tommy Laurence, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Elmer Read of Salinas, Kans., was best man, and ushers were Kenneth Orr, Robert Pingland, Myron Rodgers and Ralph Ryder. A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother after the ceremony. Many friends and relatives of the couple attended. Serving was Mrs. P. D. Schroeder of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Schroeder was present for her niece's wedding and served at the reception.

Reunion

TULELAKE — A family reunion which brought six brothers and sisters together for the first time in more than 25 years was held this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Roper. They are members of a pioneer Washington family, all having been born in Clark county, son and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George W. E. Roper. Their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Pritchard, came west to Portland by ox team with one of the early migrations.

Here for three days of sightseeing and picnicking were Mr. and Mrs. M. J. (Blanche) McShane, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. (Lelah)

Houghton, Simi, Calif., and Mrs. Arthur (Lisle) Quessel, Santa Barbara.

The brothers, Otis, Ray and Marion are all residents of Tulelake and in business here.
