Highway Accidents Injure Six

(Continued from Page One) mound of Tulelake, driver, and his mother and father, Mrs. Maude Raymond, was brought to Hillside hospital with minor cuts and was released from the hospital today.

Then late yesterday afternoon a car and a truck smashed "headlight to headlight" on highway 97 on the outskirts of Chemult.

The cars driven by Lester Turnbaugh and Robert L. Morgan of Merrill, collided at a crossroads, and Tulelake police said that high grass along the roadside obstructed the vision of both drivers and caused the mishap.

Numerous other accidents were reported to law officers over the past week, but none carried any personal injuries.
