

City Briefs

WEATHER

OREGON—Cloudy west and partly cloudy east portion with showers today and tonight, and in northwest portion Tuesday, slightly warmer west and slightly cooler extreme east portion today, gentle to moderate westerly winds off coast.

KLAMATH FALLS AND VICINITY—Partly cloudy today and Tuesday, moderate westerly to northwesterly winds, high today 73, low 53, high Tuesday 76.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA—Mostly clear today, tonight and Tuesday, moderate to heavy rain near Oregon border and foggy along coast, slightly cooler on northern coast today, moderate to heavy westerly winds off coast.

Mrs. Kleineger Returns—Mrs. Frank Kleineger has returned to her home on Crescent avenue after a month's vacation trip during which she spent a week with friends in Colorado, going from there to Nebraska for a visit with relatives. Her next stop was Minneapolis where she was also the guest of relatives and attended the aquennial, that city's beautiful water festival. After several days in Chicago with friends, Mrs. Kleineger flew via airliner to San Francisco and on to Klamath Falls.

Moving To Corvallis—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hogue are moving today to Corvallis, where they formerly lived. They had resided in Klamath Falls for 18 years. Mr. Hogue has retired from active business. He operated Hogue's Top shop here for a number of years, and also carried mail in city delivery for three years. The family's address in Corvallis will be 402 North Eighteenth. In Klamath Falls, they lived at 320 Eldorado.

Guests—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mann, 2045 Oregon, had as guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spicer and son and daughter of Newport Beach, Calif., who were returning from a vacation trip to Yellowstone and Banff. Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Bruning of Tucson, Ariz., going north on a vacation trip, were also guests of the Manns over the week-end.

Easter Lily in Bloom—An Easter lily with six white blooms is growing in the yard of Mrs. Darwin Steinman's home, 827 N. 2nd. Unusual because it has had no special care or protection from cool weather, the lily was planted by Mrs. Steinman "just to see what it would do."

Ill—Mrs. Jasper McElroy of Canas, Wash., and Delbert Bradburn of Seaside arrived in Klamath Falls Saturday morning, called here by the illness of their father, Alex Bradburn. They are staying at the home of Mrs. Rose Keese, 324 S. 9th.

Visits Parents—Mrs. William Norton and children were guests here last week from their home at Coos Bay, visiting Mrs. Norton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McCall of the Midland road. Mrs. Norton is the former Hillis McCall.

Canby Meeting—Morrow Council of Rural Resources will meet Wednesday evening at Canby with Ralph L. Smith Lumber company as the host. Frank Jenkins, Herald and News publisher, will be the speaker.

Home On Visit—James D. Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Case, is home on a visit from Laytonville, Calif., where he has been working. Young Case contracted a bad case of poison oak while on the coast job.

Tattion In Colorado—Cy Tattion, the announcer and master of ceremonies at the last Klamath rodeo, is in Colorado to announce the Ski-Hi Stampede to be held at Monte Vista, July 30, 31, and August 1.

Meeting—The Townsend club will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. at 500 N. 9th. This will be a business meeting and the public is invited. The auxiliary will not meet this week.

Cornerstone Laid For New Church

Meeting—Women of the Moose will hold a meeting at the hall Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. All officers, committee chairmen and members of the senior regents are requested to be at the hall for practice. New and old members who will take an escort chair are asked to attend.

Mumps—One case of mumps was reported in Klamath county during the week ending July 19, according to the Oregon Health bulletin. This was the only communicable disease filed with the Oregon state board of health by 75 per cent of Klamath doctors reporting.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Golding of 2105 Reclamation and his sister, Mrs. John Fitzgibbons of Long Island, N. Y., returned Saturday evening from a stay of several days in San Francisco and San Jose. They returned home by way of the Redwood highway.

Visit Briefly—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Berry of San Jose flew to Eugene Saturday and returned Sunday by car, stopping briefly to visit his mother, Mrs. S. R. Berry of 2105 Reclamation.

Correction—One hundred cars and over 400 persons attended the picnic of Catholic Daughters of America and Knights of Columbus held at the gravel pit Sunday, July 20, not 100 persons as previously stated.

Attending School—Harvey White of 1755 Ivory is attending the hydramatic school in Eugene. The school lasts Monday through Wednesday.

In Salem—Mr. and Mrs. John Hoerth of 1707 Ivory spent the week-end in Salem.

To Portland—Mrs. Frank Peyton of Ward street left for Portland where she will undergo an operation at St. Vincent's hospital.

Fox Goes To Island School
Carol L. Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Fox of Merrill, has been transferred, upon completion of his boot training at the San Diego naval training station, to the electronics maintenance school on Treasure Island, San Francisco. While at Treasure Island Fox will receive an intensive training course in radar and radio equipment for which he will be awarded credit toward a college degree. Fox was one of five chosen from his company for this training.

Wheat Rancher's Death Reported
PENLETON, July 28 (AP)—John Henry Tillman, 66, former west coast construction engineer who has operated a large wheat ranch near Helix since retiring from business in 1939, died yesterday of a heart ailment.

A graduate of the University of Ohio, he had lived in Oregon since 1912. His widow, Helen Boone, Portland, and a son and daughter survive.

Fox was attending high school when he enlisted in the navy, March 17, 1947, through the navy recruiting station in Klamath Falls.
