

Garden Ceremony Is July Event

Pauline Jayne, daughter of Mrs. Iona Quigley of Richmond, Calif., became the bride of Charles Mast, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Ogden of Klamath Falls, in a ceremony read at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Wednesday, July 2, in the garden of the Ogden home, 418 Delta street.

The Rev. G. C. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church, read the double ring rites.

The bride chose for her mid-summer wedding a suit of cream white. Her accessories were of pink to match her corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Don Mast, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and her husband, Mr. Mast, brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Mast were here from their home in Corvallis for the nuptials.

Mrs. Mast was attired in a suit of dusty rose, with black accessories. A corsage of gardenias was pinned at the shoulder.

A small, informal reception followed the rites. The new Mr. and Mrs. Mast cut the first piece of their wedding cake, after which Mrs. Ogden, mother of the groom, served refreshments.

The couple honeymooned in the Rogue River valley, returning to make their home in Klamath Falls.

Wedding

TULELAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schweigert have received word of the marriage of their eldest son, Hilmer, to Mary Ann Oremba, Highland Park, Ill. The wedding was an event of early July in Harding, Ill., in Holy Cross church. The nuptial mass was read at 9:30 o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore traditional white satin with court train. Her finger tip veil was of net and she carried American Beauty roses and sweet peas.

The young couple will make their home in Harding where the groom is employed.

The new Mrs. Schweigert is part owner of a beauty salon in that city.

Switzerland

TULELAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tschirky, east side ranchers who sold a cattle ranch and timber land in Barnes valley, recently are en route to Switzerland where they plan to remain until just before Christmas.

They drove to New York for sailing and are taking their car to Europe with them, planning to see much of the continent before they return.

The cattle ranch was sold to Dr. Warren Hunt, Klamath Falls and the timber to Hayden and Mays, also of this city.

Mrs. Emil Tofell, Mrs. Frank Victorin, and Mrs. John Reber. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Reber.

This is Mr. Tschirky's first visit to his homeland in 10 years and he will visit his mother and brothers at Weinstatten, located in some of the most picturesque mountains in Switzerland.

Mrs. Tschirky is the former Ruby Potts of Klamath Falls and this is her first trip abroad.
