

MIDLAND EMPIRE NEWS

Olene

Mrs. Rowe Kinney, accompanied by her daughter, visited for several days with relatives in Yreka, and returned Sunday to her home in Olene.

A recent guest at the H. F. Grimes' home was Mrs. Helen Lennington, Mrs. Grimes' mother. She is a resident of Yakima, Wash.

Mrs. Jack Marshall and children, Jack, Kathleen and Janice, motored to Eugene Friday where they attended the centennial celebration. They returned Saturday and reported a wonderful time.

The Wilbur Reeling, George Reiling and Ernest Milani families drove to Ashland Sunday where they visited with Mrs. Fred Reiling and their grandparents, the George Andersons. The latter families reside at Brookings, but are now in Ashland for Anderson's health.

The Leo Donovans have named their small daughter, Mary Kathleen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McLaughlin of Klamath Falls were dinner guests at the Marion Barnes' home Monday evening. On the previous Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Kennett and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kennett drove out to the Barnes' home to greet the Omer Aveyrs, visiting from Porterville, Calif. Mrs. Aveyr lived in Klamath Falls in 1910 and attended high school here. She will be remembered as the former Louise Goodrich.

Lost River and Poe Valley granges are making preparations for their role as hosts to Pomona grange. The affair will be held the second Saturday in August, August 9, in the Poe valley community hall.

Henley

A community picnic honoring Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Howe and son, George, who are leaving soon to make their home in Salem, will be held on the Henley grade school grounds at 12:30 Sunday afternoon, August 3. The picnic is sponsored by the Henley Alumni association, but everyone who wants to come is invited. Ice cream, pop and coffee will be furnished. Bring your own table service.

Mrs. Harold Dixon and children, Karen and Philip, are visiting with relatives in Halsey, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Erling Melby returned last week from a six week's trip to San Francisco and Hollywood where they visited with two of Melby's sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Bruner left Saturday to attend the Eugene centennial pageant and visit with two of Bruner's nieces. They returned Sunday, however, without seeing the pageant, which was called off Saturday night due to rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dehlinger have finished construction on their new swimming pool at their Ness Lake ranch. The pool is supplied by warm water from an artesian well.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dehlinger left Saturday for Yellowstone National park. They plan to go by way of Prineville to visit their daughter, Mrs. Verne Berry.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Howe and son, George, Mr. and Mrs. Max Marvin and son, Roy, Winifred and Betty Guber spent two days at Lake o' Woods as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dixon and daughter Donna.

Mrs. Emma Sturman is visiting her brother and sister-in-law who live in Eugene.

Friends here have received letters from Mr. and Mrs. Otis Johnson and son, Otis, who have just returned from a six week's trip visiting points of interest in the East. Johnson, who formerly taught band and social science at Henley high school, attended the National Education conference at Cincinnati, O. Johnson, at present, is principal of the junior high school in Grants Pass.

The official opening of the new Chevrolet service station and garage at Henley will be celebrated by an old fashioned dance in the garage Saturday night, August 2, according to the proprietors, George Williams and Russel Allen. Hot coffee and doughnuts will be served during the afternoon and evening. The public is cordially invited.

Florence Howe and Audrey McPherson of Klamath Falls were visitors at the Carrol Howe residence Sunday.

George Elliott, principal of the Merrill schools for the past five years will succeed Carrol Howe as principal of the Henley schools.

Elliott is considered one of the outstanding educators in the county. Howe resigned his principalship at Henley recently to accept the position of state high school supervisor of Oregon.
