First Presbyterian To Hear Reports, Have Picnic

Two outstanding events are slated Sunday for the congregation of the First Presbyterian church. After delegates to recent national Presbyterian assemblies report at the 11 o'clock service, the congregation will adjourn to the Donald Hunt ranch for a picnic.

Dr. George I. Wright, elder commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, will describe assembly meetings held this year at Grand Rapids, Mich. The General Assembly consists of elders and ministerial commissioners from the United States.

Also speaking at the morning service will be Marian McIntyre and Steve Stone, delegates to the First National Westminster Fellowship assembly held recently at Grinnell, Ia.

Evangelist Speaks Here

The Rev. D. Willia Caffray, world traveler and missionary evangelist, will speak at the Klamath fairgrounds auditorium August 3 through August 10. The meetings, scheduled for 7:45 p. m. each evening and 2:30 p. m. Monday through Friday, will follow the services being held at the fairgrounds by Dr. Dan Gilbert.

The Rev. Caffray, the first woman to be ordained by the Methodist church, has preached in 56 countries and is known internationally. She will be accompanied by Betty Restrick, soloist and pianist. The campaign is being sponsored by the Holiness association with the following pastors cooperating: the Rev. Howard Lane of the Church of the Nazarene, the Rev. Charles Sundstrom of the Immanuel Baptist church, the Rev. Virgil Dexter of the Free Methodist church, the Rev. Everett Tunning of the Sprague River Friends church, the Rev. Shier of the Church of God, and the Rev. Sherman Moore of the Pilgrim Holiness church.

Congregational To Hear Guest

The congregation of the Community Congregational church will welcome to the pulpit this Sunday the Rev. T. Davis Preston of Soquel, Calif. The Rev. Davis is a former pastor of the church and is well remembered in Klamath Falls for his ministry here and his work with youth groups. The Rev. and Mrs. Preston will be at home in the parsonage at 2160 Garden street from August 1 to August 17. The Rev. Davis will conduct sermons at the church Sunday, August 3, 10, and 17. The Rev. Godfrey Matthews, minister of the congregation, is doing duty for the Rev. Dr. Seth Huntington at the First Congregational church in Salem.

Mrs. Timms Speaks At Union Gospel

Mrs. C. M. Timms, pastor of the Union Gospel Mission church, 251 Commercial, will preach at the Sunday morning worship service at 11 a. m. Church school convenes at 10 a. m. with evening services at 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting is held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Texas Evangelist To Visit Klamath

Evangelist W. S. Willis of Grandview, Tex., will be in Klamath Falls to conduct revival meetings at the Church of Christ, 2205 Wantland. The services will be held each evening at 8 p. m. from August 3 to August 17. Regular Sunday services will be held.

Delegates To Speak At Sunday Service

Dr. George I. Wright, center, a delegate to the recent General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, will report to the congregation of the First Presbyterian church, Sunday morning at 11 a. m. Marian McIntyre, left, and Steve Stone, right, will also present a summary of the recent National Westminster Fellowship Assembly which they attended at Grinnell, Ia.

100 Enroll In Vacation School

The vacation Bible school, being sponsored by the Calvary Baptist church in the Pelican City school building has reached an enrollment of nearly 100. Attendance has increased daily with as many as 85 children attending. Doris Brown of Louisville, Ky., leader of the school, took the children to Moore park Thursday for a picnic lunch. A corps of thirteen workers is assisting. Bus service has been arranged

God Of The Bible Is Sermon Topic

The Rev. Sherman Moore, pastor of the Pilgrim Holiness church, announces that his subject for the Sunday morning worship hour will be "The God of the Bible." The Sunday evening service will be held in cooperation with the Holiness association campaign at the fairgrounds auditorium.

Self-supporting Sectional Roof with lapped, ribbed rainproof joints. Rolled edge at eave line for greater strength and finished appearance.

Heavy Horizontal Corrugations form reinforced side walls that will not warp, bend, crush, or burst when bin is filled to capacity with grain or shelled corn.

Twistproof One-piece Door Frame of heavy angle iron forms a rigid frame around the opening for both entry and filling door. Extra weatherproof sheet steel jamb gives burstproof connection to side walls.

Twistproof Roof Filling Door, ribbed at both sides to prevent bending or crushing. Closes rain-tight after years of use.

Door Reinforcing Bar extends across opening between entry and filling doors. Note rigid door bracings.

Rugged Door Boards with heavy ribs on both edges to resist twisting or crushing. Wide gateway makes boards easy to put in and take out.

Rainproof Fittings around all doors keep out snow and driving rain.
