Trip Planned

TULELAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tschirky, east side ranchers who sold a cattle ranch and timber land in Barnes valley recently, are en route to Switzerland where they plan to remain until just before Christmas.

They drove to New York for sailing and are taking their car to Europe with them, planning to see much of the continent before they return.

The cattle ranch was sold to Dr. Warren Hunt, Klamath Falls, and the timber to Hayden and Mays, also of this city.

This is Mr. Tschirky's first visit to his homeland since the war and he will visit his mother and brothers at Weisstannen located in some of the most picturesque mountains in Switzerland.

Mrs. Tschirky is the former Ruby Potts of Klamath Falls and this is her first trip abroad since 1937 when both made a trip around the world.

Garden Flowers

A midsummer array of garden grown flowers graced the country home of Mrs. Mary Sparks, Friday afternoon, July 25, when she was hostess to the Bonanza-Langell Valley Garden club.

Mrs. Fred Rueck gave a detailed and interesting account of her recent trip through the west, including Yellowstone park.

Thirteen members were present, and luncheon was served before the meeting adjourned.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Virginia Tofell, assisted by Mrs. Kay House, Friday afternoon, August 3, with Mrs. Arthur Schupp in charge of the program. Her topic will be "Roses and their Culture."

Luncheon

A family gathering was an occasion of Sunday, July 27, when relatives assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Poteet, 921 Prospect, for a potluck luncheon.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Goodell, Jack Cook, and Mrs. Charles N. Poteet of Joplin, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Poteet, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jackson and daughter, Barbara Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Argo of Corning, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Millard Lachman and son, Allen Charles, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Alexander and son, Bill, Genevieve Lund, Mr. and Mrs. Vito Petraro, Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Poteet and daughters, Carolyn Jeanne and Ruth Ann, Charles A. Poteet, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Wendland and son, Michael Paul, and Mrs. E. R. Walker, all of Klamath Falls; and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Poteet.

Ceremony

In a ceremony read in the presence of close friends and relatives, Ruth Cunningham, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Carlson of this city, became the bride of Norman E. Linville, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Linville of Klamath Falls.

Vows were exchanged in a candlelight setting at the home of the bride's mother, at 323 S. 5th street, the evening of Friday, July 18. After the reception which followed the rites, the new Mr. and Mrs. Linville left for a motor trip down the coast. They are now at home in Klamath Falls.

Officers Installed In Recent Service

An impressive ceremony marked the installation of Mrs. Lester Finley as la petite chapeaux of salon 335 Eight et Forty.
