

Klamath Man Takes Bride In Hawaii

Word has been received of the recent wedding of Blanche Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Reynolds of Fleming, Ky., and Lt. (jg) Roland W. Hare, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Hare of Klamath Falls. The couple took their wedding vows in the base chapel at Honolulu, Hawaii, where the bridegroom is stationed. Chaplain Charles Smith read the ceremony.

The bride, attired in a long white gown of satin and lace, was given in marriage by Ray Moore. Her illusion net veil was of fingertip length. White carnations and orchids formed her bouquet from which pikake leis cascaded.

Olive Parker, a close friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of light blue marquisette, and she carried pink and blue flowers. Mrs. C. W. Grant, USN, was best man.

A wedding reception was held at Kane Kaper in Honolulu. Mrs. Hare attended Radford college, Radford, Virginia, and is a civil service employe at Hickam Field in Honolulu.

Lt. Hare is a graduate of Bonanza high school and of Southern Oregon College of Education and attended the University of Washington at Seattle before entering the service. He is Commanding Officer of the L. S. M. 377, headquarters in Honolulu.

Past Matrons

Past matrons of the Eastern Star of Aloha club met in the backyard lawn of the Fred Cofer home Friday for a 1 o'clock picnic lunch. Mrs. Cofer is president of the club.

During a short business session Mrs. Leland Willis resigned as vice president, due to conflicting duties, and her resignation was accepted with sincere regrets. The club will again meet on the Cofer lawn for a picnic luncheon the last Friday in August.

Thimble Club

Neva Hayes of 1111 Alameda was hostess to the Thimble club of Neighbors of Woodcraft on the evening of Thursday, July 23. Fourteen members were present. After a short business meeting, whist and pinocle were played. At whist, Dickey Freeman held high score, Betty Patterson, low, and at pinocle the award for high score went to Martha Gierist, low to Grace Bock. Later in the evening the hostess served refreshments to members and guests.

The place for the next meeting is still to be decided, and will be announced later.

Birthday Party

CHILOQUIN—Mrs. Henry Porter entertained a group of children Sunday afternoon, July 27, in honor of the birthday of her niece, Bonnie Dee Mayfield, who is visiting here this summer.

The theatre party, followed by refreshments at the Porter home, was attended by Louise Niehaus, Kenneth Reed, Diane Kircher, Anthony Matt, Merton Porter, Marcia Prescott, Ray Lewis, Todd and Tanya Sche, Jerry and Kay Hae-lund, Bonnie, and her cousin, Judy Close.

Committees

MERRILL—The executive committee chairmen of the Women of the Moose, Merrill chapter No. 18, met Wednesday evening, July 23, at the home of Olevia Hobbs to transact business and for the chairmen to receive new instructions and plan their work for the ensuing year.

Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Hobbs and Olga Bradshaw to Dovie Reeder, Rose VanMeter, Veronica McNeil, Clara Hayes, Hazel Kenyon, Mildred Grayson, Anna Michaelis, Gladys Allen, Ida Sarutski, Louisa Icenbice, Grace Coughron, Dorris Winebarger, Rose Spolek, Leona Strack, Lottie Phipps and Maggie Adams.

ELECTED to the petit chapeaux of salon 355, Eight et Forty, is Mrs. Lester Finley, who, with other officers of the group, was installed recently. —Millers.

Bride-Elect

Barbara Lavenik, bride-elect of Martin Conlin, was feted at a pre-wedding shower on Friday evening, July 25, at the home of Mrs. Harry Molatore on Eldorado street.

Bouquets of white gladioli were the attractive decorations which set the party motif. In bridge, Mrs. Stanley Miller held high, and in pinocle, Mrs. George Kennett received high.

Others present were Mrs. Tony Molatore, Mrs. Mike Lavenik, Mrs. Clifton Molatore, Mrs. Phillip Quisenberry, Mrs. Albert Lavenik, Mrs. Dick Kranenburg, Mrs. William Kunz, Mrs. Elora Racin, Mrs. E. L. Richer, Mrs. Dick Miller, Mrs. Norman Moty, Mrs. George Kennett, Mrs. Al Jones, Mrs. Lyle Durrell, and Mrs. Stanley Miller.

Hostess

Mrs. L. A. Walkley was hostess last Tuesday at her home on Division street when a group of friends gathered for a bridal shower honoring Barbara Keeler, who will wed Carl Weaver on August 9.

Games and refreshments highlighted the evening. Among guests were Miss Keeler, Mrs. Lloyd Seeley, Mrs. Palmer Gunderson, Mrs. Jack Weaver, Mrs. John Elder, Mrs. Johnnie Eckerdt, Mrs. Ross Johnston, Mrs. Pat Stein, Mrs. Annabelle Gritzmaker, Joyce Davis, Jean Murphy, Beverly Keesee, and Mrs. Allen Keeler.

A centerpiece of sweetpeas was at the refreshment table, with tiny bouquets of the summer flowers marking places for guests.

New Club

The recently organized 31-34 Pinocle club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jolly on 2046 Worden on Friday evening, July 26. Mrs. Edward Kurth, president, received high score.

The next meeting will be a potluck dinner on Saturday, August 30 at Moore park. Pinocle will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Padgett.

Wednesday Party

CHILOQUIN—Mrs. Jerry Reed entertained a group of 11 young girls at a Wednesday afternoon, July 23, party in honor of her daughter, Marjorie's, birthday. Awards for the games played went to Gloria Ochoa, Susan Ravizza and to Karen Miller.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon to Sharon Lee Zadina, Susan Ravizza, Linda Pope, Karen Miller, Winifred Had-dock, Freida Kirk, Gloria Ochoa, Marcia Prescott, Edith and Joan Ling and Marjorie Reed.

Honored

CHILOQUIN—Susan Ravizza was honored on Saturday afternoon, July 26, at a birthday party given by her mother, Mrs. Harry Ravizza. Refreshments were served after the group had enjoyed an afternoon of games.

Guests were Sharon Lee Zadina, Marjorie Reed, Cecilia and Benny Lopez, Stephen and Linda Pope, Nancy and Janna Warren of Algona, and Susan's brother and sister, Michael and Sally. Assisting the hostess was her sister, Mrs. Scott Warren of Algona.

Potluck Supper

HENLEY—A potluck supper honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dixon of Sacramento, Calif., and their grandson, Jerry Scroggins, was held recently at the Burrell Short home.

Those attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dixon and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gober and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dehlinger, Russell Gober, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dixon and Jamie, Howard McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Short, Tom Dixon and Mrs. McDonald of Bonanza.

Mrs. G. Logan Black of 207 Grant street left today for a vacation trip, accompanying Gene Haynes. She will visit her brother at Okdale, Calif., for three weeks.

BLANCHE REYNOLDS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Reynolds of Fleming, Ky., became the bride of Lt. Roland W. Hare, USN, in a ceremony read recently in Honolulu, Hawaii. Lt. Hare is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Hare of this city, and is stationed in the islands.

Houseguests

Professor and Mrs. M. P. Cleghorn of Iowa State college, Ames Ia., are guests of the former's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cleghorn, 219 High street. Professor Cleghorn has been connected with the teaching staff of Iowa State for the past 45 years and was for many years head of the mechanical engineering department.

Mrs. M. P. Cleghorn was graduated in the same class with her husband from Iowa State, taking her degree in home economics 45 years ago, and John C. Cleghorn also holds a degree in mining engineering and one in civil engineering from the same college.

The visitors were here just 20 years ago and are impressed by the improvements and growth of this section in this time. They have been entertained with a trip to Crater lake, and with drives about the agricultural sections of the Klamath basin. They expect to start on their return trip Monday, August 4.

Mrs. Paul Pechstein of Seaside, a sister of the Cleghorns, also spent a few days here, returning to her home Thursday morning.

Neighbors

The Royal Neighbors of America held a regular meeting in the KC hall Friday. A visitor, Mrs. Glen Dickson, from Wichita, Tex., was welcomed.

Plans were made for the next meeting which will be homecoming for all old and new members. Charter members are asked to attend. A program is planned for this meeting. The lodge and Three R club will join together in a potluck picnic at Moore park, Sunday, August 3. All members and their families are invited.

The next regular meeting will be August 8 in the KC hall.

Four Years Old

Celebrating his fourth birthday Sunday, July 20, was little Michael Elliot, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elliot of 2046 Ward.

Refreshments were served in the Elliot garden to Larry Termin, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. L. Bar-kee, Mrs. Strong, Mrs. Clifford Hall, Beverly Ann Barkee, Kaylene Strong, Deane Strong, Betty Shan-non, Tommy Hall, Robert B. Elliot, John Elliot and honor guest, Michael.
