MRS. JOHN IRVINE RIGGINS is the former Ruth Mildred Matthews of this city. Vows were exchanged recently in Monterey, Calif., at the First Presbyterian church of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Riggins are at home in San Francisco.

Ceremony

An event of Saturday evening, August 2, was the wedding of Helen Davenport to John Louis Stolle which took place in the Sacred Heart Catholic church. Father John Delahunty read the single ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Davenport of Madras, formerly of Klamath Falls. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stolle of this city.

The bride was attired in a white silk crepe dress with white accessories, and wore an orchid as a corsage. Clara Davenport, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a pink suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of larkspur and white gardenias.

Best man was Bob Harrington of Klamath Falls. The bride's mother wore a dark blue suit with brown accessories and the groom's mother selected a black silk crepe dress with white accessories. Both ensembles were completed by corsages of red roses and white gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stolle on Bristol avenue. The large living room was decorated in pink and white and a three-tiered wedding cake centered the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Stolle are making their home in Madras.

Art Exhibit

A tea and art exhibit are on the calendar for the Tulake Home-stead Community club to be held at the Pelican parlor room from 2 to 4 o'clock the afternoon of Friday, August 15.

The collection of original paintings by Mrs. Walter Brown will be exhibited. Each club member is invited to bring a guest. In order to arrange for guests, members are asked to contact Mrs. Leo Sagerhorn, Mrs. Leon Street or Mrs. A. E. Ryckman, not later than Wednesday.

Carl Hagel and Mrs. Edgar Osborne will entertain with vocal selections during the affair.

Recent Guests

MALIN—Entertaining for house guests recently were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ellis. Spending several days at the Ellis home were Mr. and Mrs. Orvie Steele and daughter, Mimi, of Portland, and E. J. Arthur of Tacoma. Also visiting the Ellis ranch were Mrs. John Woodington and daughters, Nancy and Susan, of Portland. The Woodingtons are former Klamath residents.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ellis entertained at dinner. Present were Mrs. Orvie Steele and Mimi, E. J. Arthur, Mrs. Frances Alderice, Mr. and Mrs. A. Manicola of San Francisco, and the host and hostess.

Luncheon

Tulake members of the Guild of the Tulake Community Presbyterian church meeting Wednesday for luncheon at the home of Mrs. A. E. Ryckman with Mrs. Hildur Larson as co-hostess voted to serve a banquet for the Christian Endeavor Westminster group of young people to be an event of September 10.

A charge of one dollar per plate will be made and funds accruing above actual expenses of the dinner will be turned back to the young people to apply on the project of helping finance the sending of dairy stock to a war ravaged country of Europe.

Places were marked for 36 guests at the dessert tables.

Following the business hour Mrs. Pennock was in charge of devotions, and Mrs. Chester J. Main spoke on social education and action.

The president, Mrs. Gerald Wilson, has returned from a vacation and was in the chair as Mrs. Ronald Ward, secretary, who has been absent several months.

Several out of town guests were present.

Surprise Party

A pre-nuptial surprise party was an event of Friday evening, July 22, when Phyllis Smith, assisted by Luana Smith, entertained for Barbara Lavenik.
