

Order Of Rainbow Schedules Dance

TULELAKE—The annual dance at which members of the Tulelake assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, are hostesses will be held Friday evening, August 22, in the Broadway hall at Malin. Tickets may be obtained from any Rainbow girl and theme of the dance will be "Rainbow Gardens." Plans for the dance, which will be formal, were completed Wednesday night.

Four new members, Jean Rajanus, Sally Thomas, Fayanne McConnell and Betty Thaler were initiated, with Rosalee Wilkinson substituting as marshal for Dora Porterfield. Shirley Heck was musician. The worthy advisor is Phyllis Rowan.

On August 12 Mrs. Alma Goulson, past mother advisor of the Tulelake assembly and grand deputy of district two, accompanied by a number of Rainbow girls, will pay her official visit to the Alturas assembly to put on the work for the Grand Cross of Color.

The majority and marriage degrees will be put on the evening of August 20 in a closed session to be followed by a reception for Mary Robertson, delegate from here to the grand assembly of Oregon, Mary plans to attend Stanford University this fall.

Club Picnic

The Eastern Star Social club enjoyed a very pleasant picnic in the yard of the Fred Cofer home on High street Friday afternoon, August 1, with Mrs. Fred Cofer, Mrs. George Hurn and Mrs. W. D. Elliott in charge. After the picnic luncheon a brief business meeting was held at the Masonic temple September 12 and 13 with proceeds to go to the golden anniversary fund. Mrs. William Poole will be chairman in charge.

The afternoon was spent playing cards and games. Mrs. Victor Palmer received high in bridge and special award was given to Mrs. Wallace Terling. Special guests for the afternoon were the "line officers" from Prosperity chapter of Malin. Mrs. P. O. Wilson, Mrs. Joe Halousek, Mrs. Agnes Schreiner and Mrs. Ethel Hamilton. Honored guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Lillian Hagman and Mrs. Carol Buell, sisters of the late Mrs. Elmer Halsiger.

The next meeting will be September 5 at the Masonic temple with Mrs. Harold Teale and Mrs. Elmer Harndon as hostesses.

Bridge Club

Monthly Paper

MALIN—The Malin American Legion auxiliary, unit No. 84, will publish its own monthly paper beginning in September after the decision was made at the meeting of the auxiliary Monday evening, August 4. Each member will receive a copy of the Legionette when it is published.

The group also voted to send in the usual check-of-the-month contribution to auxiliary headquarters as well as the poppy order for the annual poppy sale for Memorial Day. Membership dues must be turned in by August 25 so that they can be sent to the state secretary. This is the first time that the quota must be in by September 30 and not January 1.

Norma Petrasek was installed as the unit historian. Leah Street, Ila Dunge and Mary Victorin will serve refreshments at the next unit meeting October 6. There will not be a meeting in September because of Labor Day holidays.

Emma Wilde and Norma Petrasek entertained after the wedding. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Ethel Roberts, Abbie Herringshaw and Grace Stephens, to members of the American Legion and their wives.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Bunge, Mr. and Mrs. Brunner, Mr. and Mrs. M. Loosley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Herringshaw, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilde, Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Petrasek; David Myer, Sammy Presley, Anne Laboda, Mary Jane Payr, Elizabeth Payr, Nellie Pierce, Ethel Hamilton, Nell Irwin, Leah Street and Irene Freitag.

CUTTING THE CAKE at the reception following their wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Adams. Rites were read Saturday evening, August 2, by the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr. The bride is the former Madelyn Mann of this city. —Guderian.

Exchange Vows

At a ceremony held in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Britter of Klamath Falls, Madelyn Mann became the bride of Charles W. Adams. The groom is the son of Mrs. Dora Adams of this city. The nuptial service was read Saturday evening, August 2, by the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr.

The bride wore a gold dress with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenia and roses completed the ensemble.

Bridesmaid was Geneva Hitson who was attired in a blue dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations. Bob Reeves served as best man. Mrs. Britter, the bride's mother, selected a black and white suit for the occasion while Mrs. Adams, mother of the groom, wore a floral print.

Auxiliary

A full schedule is planned for the Eagles auxiliary during the months of August and September. The auxiliary holds regular meetings each Tuesday evening, with August 12 being designated as initiation night. The officers and drill team will wear formal.

Another event will be a birthday party to be given every three months for those having birthdays during that time. The first party will be Tuesday, September 30.

Meetings of the officers are held twice a month, the first Thursday in the month reserved for the auxiliary and aerie officers and the last Thursday for auxiliary officers and members.

The Hazbins will meet Friday, August 22, at the home of Mrs. Phyllis Stelzenmueller.

A pinocchle party will be sponsored by the drill team and drum corps at the KC hall Friday, August 29, at 8 p.m.

Anyone interested in joining the new softball team sponsored by the auxiliary may contact Stella Persell, captain, by calling 3545 after 6 o'clock.

Pioneer Community

Mr. and Mrs. Hallock Douglson and two sons arrived from McMinnville July 26 to spend a week's vacation here. Part of the time they spent at Lake O' the Woods. Saturday they returned to their home leaving the two boys with their grandmother, Vera Clemmens. They will return sometime next week.

Joe Leitinger had the misfortune of his car burning last week along the road just off the highway that leads to the Henry Ray ranch. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Frain, Mr. and Mrs. Clemmens, and "Butch" and Martin Douglson spent Sunday at the Fred Frain home on Fall creek.

Another real estate transaction has been completed in this community, that of the F. and B. grocery purchased by Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Houck and son, Norman Larson, of Weyerhaeuser camp 6, of Bly. The new owners have taken possession and have named the store the Pioneer Community grocery, of which everyone is very proud.

Fitzgerald brothers moved some cattle Sunday from their summer range in the Pogeama area to their ranch here.

A family picnic was held Sunday at the Earl Kerns ranch. The affair marked the birthdays of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kerns.

Intent To Kill Charge In Shooting

SALEM, Aug. 9 (AP)—Fremont Russell Stevenson, owner of an apartment building here, will be arraigned in Marion county district court today on a charge of assault with intent to kill in the wounding of John Snyder, a tenant.

Formal charges were filed yesterday by District Attorney Miller B. Hayden. The shooting occurred late Thursday night.

Snyder is in critical condition in a Portland hospital with a bullet wound in the head. The district attorney reported there were several witnesses to the shooting which climaxed an argument in the apartment building.
