Prosecuting Attorney Sidney McMath (right) of Hot Springs, Ark., declared his pretty 26-year-old wife, Anne (left), shot and killed his father while "hysterical with fright" as a result of what he described the elder McMath's drunken abuse. The father, Hal, 57, was shot with a .45 automatic. This picture of the McMaths was taken recently in their automobile. —AP wirephoto.

Surgery—Mrs. August Lindstrom surgery this morning at Hillside of 2111 Radcliffe, underwent major hospital.

Krupa To Play Here

Making his first appearance in Klamath Falls in several years is "America's Ace Drummer Man," Gene Krupa, who will appear with his orchestra tonight, Monday, at the armory.

Krupa's famed "Drumatics" specialty will be a feature of the evening, as well as a jazz trio composed of Charlie Kennedy on the alto saxophone, Buddy Banell, piano, and Krupa on the drums. Vocalists are Buddy Hughes and Dolores Hawkins.

Radio Station KPLW will carry a half hour program direct from the armory from 10 to 10:30 p. m.
