Swim Schedule Gains Ground

The winter swimming program, directed by the city recreation department, is going quite well with more and more townspeople taking advantage of the Klamath Union high school pool, Recreation Director Samuel H. Smith said today.

Smith especially encourages social and church groups, service clubs and other organizations to use the pool on Wednesdays, the night reserved for groups. Reservations may be made at any time by calling Smith at his office, telephone 7112. Should the demand be large enough, another night will be open for private group swimming.

Rebekah Lodge—There will be a regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah lodge in the IOOF hall, Thursday, December 4 at 8 p. m. The past noble grands will have charge of the meeting and after the business meeting there will be entertainment.
