

SHOPPING SCENES

Upper Two
THE RIGHT TOY IS IMPORTANT opines Kenneth Nash, route 3 box 154, Weyerhaeuser employee, who looks over a few metal playthings offered by Salesgirl Bonnie Jean Haney.

TOM WILLIAMS of the KUHS staff, was caught by the Yule Tidings cameraman trying to decide on a box of candy. The sales girl is Lavina Brietsan.

Center Three
A YOUNG FELLOW GETS pretty tired, even Christmas shopping. Charles A. Chaffee of Midland holds his 17-month-old son, Duane Albert, sound asleep with a fire ladder clutched in his little hand.

SIX-YEAR-OLD Jimmy Vaden, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Morris, 434 N. 6th, admires a red bike he'd like to find under the tree.

A BIG RED BALLOON amuses little Susan Gail Preston while her mother shops for holiday gifts.

Lower
MECHANICAL TOYS interest little girls, too. Birdie Mae Brown, Herald and News seller, pauses in a downtown toy shop.
