

Degrees Conferred By Eastern Star

A large crowd was present Tuesday evening, November 25 at the Masonic temple when Aloha chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, met for a regular meeting with Helen Listoe, worthy matron, presiding.

Degrees were conferred, and Mr. and Mrs. Matthews from Adarell chapter of Jacksonville participated in conferring degrees on their two sons.

A special feature of the evening came when new members were honored. Gifts were presented to them by the conductress, Phyllis Poole and Norma Uerlings, from the worthy matron.

Phyllis Hutchins sang a group of songs, accompanied by Beatrice Denison. Hostesses for the evening were Kate Peyton, Sallie Wood and Ida Moretz, past matrons. May Phinney, Blanche Bechtel, Kate Peyton and Sanford Selby exemplified the work of the examining committee.

Refreshments were served after the meeting. Greens and fall blossoms decorated the rooms and the refreshment table. Those serving were Martha Hubbard, Eva Pennington, Alice Peyton and Martha Powell.

The next meeting of Aloha chapter will be on December 9, featuring the annual election of officers.

Luncheon

The Three R club of the Royal Neighbors of America met for luncheon at the home of Dacie Hoover Tuesday, November 25. Sixteen members and one visitor were present.

Anna McCormack received high in pinocle, Martha Baker, second, and Ella Pauley special. The next meeting will be held at the home of Gretta Schweiger, 4415 Cottage, Tuesday, December 9.

At the next meeting Polyannas will be remembered with Christmas gifts, and there will also be a Christmas gift exchange with the price limit between 75 cents and one dollar.

DEVELOPED ART

Women occupants of harems in Turkey developed the art of embroidery. They spent endless hours perfecting designs for dress and utilitarian purposes while living in seclusion.

PRETTY niece of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Patty of this city is Linda Mary Harris, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harris of Amersham Bucks, England.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Good Citizens

Five girls have been chosen by their schools to be entered in the state Daughters of the American Revolution good citizen contest from this area. Mary Lou Case will represent Klamath Union high school; Barbara Deaton, Bly high school; Carol George, Henley high school; Carol Janet Holt, Malin; and Eleanor Anne Hunkett of Merrill high.

Three schools in the county have not yet selected their representatives, Gilchrist, Bonanza and Chiloquin. The contest is open to all four-year public high schools in the state. Deadline on entries is Dec. 15.

Names of the local candidates will be sent to the state contest, with one of the girls endorsed by Eulalia chapter, DAR. Good citizen chairman of Eulalia chapter is Eva Burkhalter.

Each girl will receive a pin and certificate at commencement exercises and the girl to receive the state award will be given a trip to Washington, D. C., in the spring.

Formal Dinner

A formal dinner meeting of Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was held in the Winema hotel Monday evening, November 24, for initiation of new pledges and to confer the ritual of jewels degree on eligible members.
