Y Group

The Y's Menettes, an organization of the Klamath county YMCA, met at the home of Mrs. C. F. Johnson, 4500 Clinton, for a regular monthly meeting December 1. Plans for a joint Christmas party to be held with the Y's Men were discussed. The date has been set for December 18.

The party will include an exchange of toys for needy children. Present were Mrs. Stanley Beckie, Mrs. Warren Bennett, Mrs. Norman Cruise, Mrs. Tom Williams, Mrs. Don Hinehart, Mrs. Harry Clark, Mrs. Cecil Kollenborn and Mrs. Charles Johnson.

Mission Week

Women of the Calvary Baptist church are observing this week as "Foreign Mission Week of Prayer." Their guest speaker for the week is Mary Nellie Lyne of Berkeley, Calif. Miss Lyne works with the Chinese speaking people of the San Francisco bay area and for a number of years was a missionary in China. The first meeting was held Tuesday afternoon, and others are planned for 2 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, at 5038 Shasta way, and at 2, Friday afternoon, at 1125 Pine.

Miss Lyne will speak to the entire congregation of the church at 7:30 Wednesday evening in the city library auditorium. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Dinner Dance

Late plans have been completed for the holiday formal dinner dance arranged for members and guests of Reames Golf and Country club. Date for the affair is this Saturday evening, December 6.

A highlight of the evening will be the presentation of club championship awards. Dancing will be from 9 to 1 o'clock with the cocktail hour from 7 to 8. Music will be by Gordon's orchestra.

On the committee in charge of the party are Mr. and Mrs. Greer F. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hosker, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Oldenburg and Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nerseth.

Annual Bazaar

The annual bazaar given by the Relief society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will be held Friday, December 5, at 6 o'clock in the evening at the recreation hall of the church, 511 Mar- tin.

Fancy needlework articles are among the gift items to be offered for sale. In connection with the bazaar will be a cafeteria style dinner from 6 to 7:30, followed by a full-length free motion picture. Later in the evening there will be dancing. All are welcome.

Tulelake

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gresham of Gresham Motors returned Wednesday from Sacramento where they purchased a new neon sign to be placed when remodeling of the building, headquarters for DeSoto and Plymouth cars, is completed.

Students of Winema school have made arrangements to present the annual Christmas program in the Tulelake high school gymnasium on December 19.

Colleen Metz, editor of the Tulelake department of White and Gold, high school annual; Charles Wiese, associate editor; Malcolm Crawford, business manager, and Ann Reid, associate business manager, with a member of the faculty will attend the White and Gold conference to be held Saturday at Weed.

Skeleton plans are being worked out for the annual community Christmas tree to be placed in the business district by the Tulelake post, American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Treats for the young fry and a program is planned.

L. A. Scott, manager for three years of the Shell Oil station on Main street, has taken over management of the Union Oil station built recently by John Kantra. Gregg Brooks, in charge since the station opened some months ago, resigned. Scott is well known in the Klamath basin and for several years was associated with Robert Walker in the Shell station at Merrill.
