

Vows Exchanged On Thanksgiving Eve

On Thanksgiving eve, November 26, Mildred Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Rice of this city, became the bride of Charles Ravert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ravert, also of Klamath Falls. The marriage was solemnized at the Bible Baptist church at 8 o'clock with Rev. Keith P. Fields performing the ceremony.

The bride's only attendant was her niece, Delores Rice, and the groom's best man was his brother, Robert Ravert. The ushers were Carl Ewing, a cousin of the groom, and Wesley Carter.

Just before the ceremony, Grayson Broyles sang "The Love of God" and "Because." Mrs. Keith P. Fields played the traditional wedding music.

The bride's gown was of white satin with a net yoke edged with tiny pearls. It had a fitted bodice and tight fitting sleeves coming to a point at the wrist. There was a short train and a finger tip veil caught in orange blossoms. The bridesmaid's dress was aqua with a gathered neckline and short puffed sleeves.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Charles Rice, a brother of the bride. After the bride and groom cut the traditional piece of wedding cake, Mrs. Keith Rice Sr. served the cake and Mrs. Merwyn Rice and Mrs. P. O. Reynolds poured.

The young couple are now at home at 2125 Darrow, following a short honeymoon in Northern California.

Candlelight Vows Exchanged Sunday

Margaret Mae Guimon, daughter of Frances Guimon of this city, and John Guimon of Coos Bay, exchanged vows with Darrell Gene Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith of Casper, Wyo., at Sacred Heart Catholic church, Tuesday, December 2.

Rev. Father Timothy P. Casey read the double ring nuptials at 11:30 in the morning. A vocal group from Sacred Heart sang preceding the ceremony.

Vows were exchanged before an altar decked with palms and white chrysanthemums with many tapers in candelabras.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white and carried a prayer book marked with a single white orchid and her mother's rosary.

Her sister and only attendant was Gloria Guimon, who was attired in a gown of peach shade and carried white gardenias.

Best man was John Wilson, friend of the bridegroom. Luncheon was served for the couple and members of their immediate families at Lucca's cafe after the ceremony. Later in the afternoon, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Hazel Muldin, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Charles Klune served.

Following a short trip, the new

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home at Coos Bay.

Marine life in the once radioactive waters of atom-bound Bikini lagoon is apparently back to normal, with no discernible prospect of fission-produced monstrosities.
