

Eisenhower May Step Out Of Uniform In January; Hat-In-Ring Rumor Grows

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (AP)—Fresh indications that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower may step out of uniform in January coincided today with reports of increased activity in his behalf as a possible republican presidential candidate.

Christmas Toy Stock Said Down

By WILLIAM FERRIS
CHICAGO, Dec. 8 (AP)—Santa Claus will bring a greater variety of toys this Christmas than any year since before the war, but the jolly fellow's Yuletide sack will be short on quantity.

At the first of the year economic conditions were what the serious writers call "uncertain." Lots of people thought there'd be a recession, causing lower prices later in the year. Many retailers didn't order far ahead.

Francis Lauds OVS Facilities
State Representative Carl Francis of Dayton, Ore., who was in town recently to assist in the organization of a Young Republican club, visited the Oregon Vocational school and expressed his astonishment at the extensiveness of living and educational facilities and at the excellent educational program of the institution.

Home Hours
"I am pleasantly astonished at the excellent work being done at this project and at the fine educational program being presented here," Francis said.

university April 1 has been speeded up by President Truman's action in naming Gen. Omar Bradley as his successor.

Bradley, whose transfer from head of the veterans administration back to the army was effective last Monday, will be available for his new assignment shortly after January 1.

Although the five-star general has dodged questions about his availability for the nomination, politicians have begun to count him as a major factor in the race which already has three publicly announced entrants: Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota and Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Mostly Talk
Previously talk about Eisenhower as a potential candidate has been described as mostly just talk.

Some who attended an informal meeting of Pennsylvania republican leaders here last week at which Eisenhower was present said they came away with the notion that the general was "talking a whole lot like a candidate."

Eisenhower is reported to have said that the country needs "new leadership" to unite the people behind the battle against rising living costs and in support of the American position abroad.

Taft, also present, is said to have responded that it is all very well to generalize on issues but something quite different to meet them head on in congress.

Skier Hurt In Pile-Up

Lloyd Gass, 17-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Gass, 429 N. 3rd, suffered the only casualty of the day at Crater Lake national park Sunday despite a crowd of 450 sightseers and ski enthusiasts who passed into the area in 115 cars.

Young Gass was skiing at noon in the Knob Hill area when he struck a tree and fractured the right leg. His father was at the park at the time and gave first aid. Gass was placed on a toboggan, moved to the road, and transferred to Dr. Gass' car and brought here to Klamath Valley hospital where he was treated. He is now at the family home, the leg in a cast.

There was one automobile accident, rangers reported. Eric Lindrew, 19, Medford, was driver of a car which was traveling too fast on the ice covered road when it jumped a guard rail at Goodwin bridge about one and one-half miles above Annie Springs on the rim road. One of his passengers, Asia Brown, 17-year-old Medford girl, was bruised. The car was pulled back on the road by a government truck and able to continue under its own power.

Rangers reported 30 inches of snow in the park, 16 1/2 inches of it new. Snow started falling Saturday evening and continued throughout Sunday but today, Monday, skies were clear and the park was said to be in beautiful mid-winter dress. The temperature fell to 17 in the night and it rose but one degree at 10 a. m. There is a thin crust on top the powder and skiing is reported excellent.

Roads are covered with ice and snow, driving is hazardous, and caution is urged. Chains should be used.

Two bears remain in the park, one brown and the other black. The bears were at headquarters Sunday although their kin folk had long since gone into hibernation. Both the ski boys operated by Troy Cook, and O'Brien's lunch stand reported a big day Sunday.

Shopper Thief
GREETING CARDS—She looked at this card and that and slipped half a dozen under her coat and made her get-away. And why did she do it? Because she had a thief's heart. The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked.—BIBLE.

IN THE CLEAR—God put this woman's sin on Christ, his only-born son and Christ was then counted the thief. Sinless Himself, He died to clear the woman of this and every sin of her whole life. But she must believe in her heart that He died for her and cleared her or else her sins will meet her and the Judgment.

VICTORY—Christ is the Victory. Own Him as the Son of God who died for you and know that your sins are blotted out. But you still must have new life. To be that you Christ came up out of death and the grave.—Behold I stand at the door and knock. If any man hear My voice and open to Me, I will come in and feast with Him and He with Me. So He offers. Receive Him—Yield to Him and know for yourself His power to make you His New Creation.—"It is no longer I that live, but Christ that liveth in me," said the Apostle Paul who had Christ and Victory. What have you?
